CHRONOLOGICAL CYCLES, 1900.

Golden Number	•••	1	Dominical Letter		G
Epact Solar Cycle	•••	xxix	Roman Indiction		13
Solar Cycle	•••	5	Julian Period	• • •	6613

The DOMINICAL or SUNDAY LETTER for any year is that one of the first seven letters of the Alphabet which stands opposite the first Sunday of the year, when the first letter of the Alphabet is placed opposite the first day of the year, the second letter opposite the second day, and so on. It is obvious that if these seven letters be repeated in order opposite the remaining days of the year, the same letter which stood opposite the first Sunday will stand opposite every succeeding Sunday. Hence the use of the Dominical Letter in the Calendar is to indicate the days of the month on which the Sundays will fall in the different years.

Leap years have two Dominical Letters, one of which indicates the Sundays during the months of January and February; the other during the remaining months.

The Dominical Letter for the present year is G.

The Golden Number of a given year is the number which indicates the place of that year in the lunar cycle. This cycle is a period of nineteen years, and is called the LUNAR CYCLE because in every nineteenth year the different lunar phases—new moon, full moon, etc.—happen on the same days of the month, though about one hour and a half earlier in the day. It is also called the Metonic Cycle, from the name of its discoverer, Meton, an Athenian astronomer, who published his discovery at the Olympic games celebrated in the year 432, B.C. The first year of the Christian era is regarded as the second year of the current lunar cycle; hence we have the following rule for finding the Golden Number of any given year:—Add one to the date of the year, and divide the sum by 19; the remainder is the Golden Number. If there is no remainder, the Golden Number is 19. The Golden Number for the present year found by this rule is 1.

 $1900 + 1 \div 19 = 100_{19}$

The EPACT of any year is the number which represents in days the age of the moon on the let January of that year. One lunar month according to the Ecclesiastical Calendar contains 29½ days. Twelve lunar months, therefore, contain 354 days. Hence if the first day of a lunar month coincides with the let January of a particular year, the moon's age on the next let January (supposing the year to be a common one) will be 365—354, or 11 days. This number, 11, is then the Epact of that second year. For the third year of this series the Epact will be 2 (365—354), or 22; for the fourth year, 3 (365—354), or 33. But when the Epact is equal to or exceeds 30, a month is introduced or intercalated, and the Epact of the year is the remainder after deducting 30. For the fourth year of the above series, therefore, the Epact will be 3, instead of 33.

To find the day of the week corresponding to a given day of a given month in a given year from 1800 to 1900 inclusive: -Find first the year in question in the table on the left: the letter which stands at the head of the column in which the year is found is the Dominical Letter for that year. Proceed now to the table on the right; find the month about which you are inquiring, in the column headed "months;" and opposite this month look for the letter which you have found to be the Dominical Letter for the given year. Look next to the figures at the top of the column in which this letter is contained, and you will there find the days in that month, which are Sundays, and by reckoning backward or forward, the day of the week corresponding with the given date is found.

1898? From the left-hand column we find the Dominical Letter for 1829 to be D, and for 1898 B. Opposite March we find the letter D in eth, 13th, 20th, and 27th of the same month were Sundays. Hence, in 1829, the Feast of St. Patrick fell on Tuesday, and in 1898 on Example. -On what day of the week did the Feast of St. Patrick fall in the year 1829, and on what day of the week did it fall in the year the first column and B in the sixth. Hence, in the year 1829, the 1st, 8th, 18th, 22nd, and 29th of March, were Sundays; and in 1898, the

In the months of January and February in a leap year the proper line of Dominical Letters must be taken, as indicated in the table.

The day of the month corresponding to a given day of the week in any year can also be found from the same tables.

Find the Dominical Letter for the given year; then the dates of the Sundays for the given month in that year, from the second table. Having found the date of the preceding Sunday, we have only to reckon forward to the given week-day.

A TABLE OF		January,	February,	March,	April, .	May,	June,	July,	August, .	September,	October,	November,	December,

Example. -To find the number of days from the 15th June to the 15th March following. Find June in the first column, and then in a line with that under March, is 273 days. If it were from the 16th June to the 26th March, it would be 10 days more or 283 days; but if from the 16th June to the 5th March, it would be 10 days less, or 263 days. In leap years, when the last day of February is included between the two dates, there will be one day more than by the table. The Indiction or Cycle of Indiction is a period of 15 years. It has no connection with any ecclesiastical feasts or religious observances, and was first employed, it is believed, by Constantine the Great. The Indiction continued to be employed for centuries by Popes and Emperors as a convenient method of reckoning time and of expressing dates. The point of departure of the Indictions was fixed by Pope Gregory VII. (1073-1085) to be the first day of the year 313, A.D. Reckoning backwards we find that the year 1, A.D., was the fourth year of the current Indiction. Hence to find the place of any year of the Christian Era in the current Cycle of Indiction, we have but to add 3 to the date of the year in question and divide the sum by 15. The present year is, therefore, the 13th of the 126th Indiction. For 1861-5,798,564 | 1871-5,412,377 | 1881-5,174,836 | 1891-4,704,750 Catholics form 75.40 of the Population of Ireland, the actual number amounting to 3,547,307, in a Total Population of 4,704,750.

EMIGRATION STATISTICS.

According to the Returns obtained by the Royal Irish Constabulary and the Metropolitan Police, who acted as enumerators at the several Irish Seaports, the number of emigrants (natives of Ireland), who left Ireland during the year 1897 was 32,535; of these 13,966 were males and 18,569 were females. Of the whole number, 3,210 were from the Province of Leinster; 12,798 from Munster; 6,266 from Ulster; and 10,261 from Connaught.

Of the total emigrants from Ireland in 1897, 7·1 per cent. were under 15 years of age; 83·0 per cent. were between 15 and 35 years old; 9·9 per cent. were 35 or upwards; and in 5 instances the ages were not specified.

The total number of Emigrants—natives of Ireland—who left Irish ports from the 1st May, 1851 (the date at which the collection of these returns commenced), to the 31st December, 1897, is 3,722,658—1,948,792 males and 1,773,866 females. The number for each year is given in the following Table, from which it appears that the highest number in any one year was 190,322, in 1852; the lowest, 32,535, in 1897, and the second lowest, 35.895, in 1894. In the decade from 1866 to 1875, the average annual number of Emigrants was 74,667; in the decade, 1856 to 1865, the average number per annum amounted to 88,272, and in the four preceding years, from 1852 to 1855, the number averaged 148,985 annually. After 1876 the number increased steadily but slowly for three years to 38,503 in 1877, 41,124 in 1878, and 47,065 in 1879. In 1880 the number rose to 95,517, but it fell to 78,417 in 1881. In 1882, however, an increase of 10,719 took place, and there was a further increase in 1883, in which year the emigrants amounted to 108,724; then a decrease of 32,861 took place in 1884 compared with 1883, and a decrease of 13,829 in 1885 compared with 1884, followed by an increase of 1,101 in 1886, and a further increase of 19,788 in 1887, in which year the number was 82,923. After 1887 there was a gradual annual decline to 35,895, in 1894; but in 1895 the number rose to 48,703, and fell to 38,995 in 1896, and to 32,535 in 1897.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

The Marriages registered in Ireland during the year 1897 numbered 22,891; the Births 106,664; and the Deaths 83,839. The marriage-rate (5.03 per 1,000 of the estimated population) shows a slight decline as compared with that for the preceding year, but is somewhat above the average rate for the ten years 1887-96; a like observation applies to the birth-rate (23.5 per 1,000); while the death-rate (18.4 per 1,000) is considerably in excess of the low rate (16.6 per 1,000) for 1896, and slightly over the average rate for the ten years 1887-96.

The recorded natural increase of population, or excess of births over deaths, was 22,825: the loss by emigration amounted to 32,535; there would thus appear to have been a decrease of 9,710 in the population during the year, but against this decrease there is a set-off in immigration, of which no official record has been obtained. The estimated population in the middle of the year was 4,551,723.

Of the property passing at death all which was at the deceased's own disposition, or goes to his family, will be aggregated, and pay the graduated rate of duty in the schedule on the aggregate value.

Succession to Real and Personal Property.—Where property is settled by the will of the deceased, or passes by his death under some other disposition to a person not competent to dispose of the property, a further duty of 1 per cent, called the Settlement Estate Duty, is payable upon the property so settled.

If the gross value of the property in respect of which estate duty is leviable on the death of the deceased does not exceed £300, a fixed duty of 30s. is payable, and a fixed duty of 50s. when the gross does not

LAST WILL OR TESTAMENT.

It is important that all who have property to bequeath, or instructions to give for the Catholic education of their children, should make their wills while their health and faculties are unimpaired. Instead of trusting in printed forms and directions, it is always better to obtain the help of an experienced lawyer. A will must be written in ink, on paper or parchment. It must be signed at the end by the testator, in the presence of two or more witnesses, and he should after signing it, take it in his hands and say: "I acknowledge this to be my last Will and Testament, and request you to witness it." The witnesses (who must be parties not interested in the Will) will then sign in the presence of the testator, and of each other, writing fully and clearly their name, surname, residence, and trade or profession, &c. It is not absolutely necessary for the witnesses to know the contents of a Will. Obliterations and alterations should be avoided, and when they are necessary should be signed by the testator and witnesses.

LEO. XIII.

SUPREME PONTIFF,
Now GLORIOUSLY REIGHING.

JOACHIM PECCI.

The two hundred and fifty-eighth successor of St. Peter, was born at Carpineto, in the Diocese of Anagni, March 2nd, 1810; consecrated Archbishop of Damietta, Feb. 19th, 1843; translated to the See of Perugia, Jan. 17th, 1846; proclaimed Cardinal, December 19th, 1853; elected Pope, Feb. 20th, and crowned March 3rd, 1878. His Holiness retains the Prefectship of the Holy Roman and Universal Inquisition or Holy Office, of the Consistorial Congregation, and of the Apostolic Visitation; the Protectorship of the Church and Chapter of Sc. Celsus and Julianus, of the Archconfraternity of the Via Crucis, and of the Sacred Stigmata of St. Francis.

The Supreme Pontiff is assisted in the government of the Church by the Sacred College of Cardinals, and by several sacred congregations of which the Cardinals are the chief members; by the Patriarchs, Archishops and Bishops; by the Apostolic Delegates, Vicars and Prefects, and by certain Abbots and Prelates.

THE CARDINALS.

The Sacred College of Cardinals consists, when it is complete, of seventy members:—Six Cardinal Bishops, fifty Cardinal Priests, and fourteen Cardinal Deacons. The Cardinals, when duly constituted and proclaimed, form the supreme council or senate of the Church. They are the advisers of the Sovereign Pontiff, and at the death of a Pope they elect his successor. The Cardinal Bishops occupy the Suburban Sees of Rome, which are, Ostia and Velletri, Porto and Santa Rufina, Albano, Frascati, Palestrina, Sabina. The Cardinals of the second and third order take their titles from some of the oldest Churches in the city of Rome. The first Cardinal Bishop is Dean; the first Cardinal Priest is First Priest; and the first Cardinal Deacon, First Deacon of the Sacred College. The Dean has the right of consecrating, and the First Deacon the right of proclaiming and crowning a new Pope. On the death of the Pontiff, the Cardinal Camerlengo has the administration of the affairs of the Holy See.

The above Summary of Residential Sees amounts in all to 966. But in this list we do not include districts governed by Prefects Apostolic and Apostolic Vicars, who exercise episcopal functions and jurisdiction under the Propaganda.

THE ROMAN CONGREGATIONS.

THE CONGREGATION OF THE HOLY OFFICE.

This Congregation, erected and constituted by Pope Paul III. in the year 1542, was approved and enriched with many privileges by his successors Pius IV., Pius V., and Sixtus V. Its object was to combat heresy and false doctrines, and to restrain heretics from injuring religion and the Church. The Pope himself is always Prefect of this Congregation, and the Dean of the Sacred College of Cardinals its Secretary. The Chief Commissary of the Congregation must belong to the Dominican Order and the Province of Lombardy. Two of its Consultors must also belong to the Dominicans, and one to the Minor Conventuals.

CONGREGATION OF PROPAGANDA.

This Congregation was founded by Pope Gregory XV., in 1622. The Pope in his Constitution Inscrutabilis conferred upon it the most ample powers for the Propagation of the Faith, and especially for the superintendence of missions in countries where heretics or infidels had to be evangelized. For this purpose it could not only appoint and change the necessary ministers in the countries specially submitted to its care, but also perform everything else it considered either necessary or opportune for the advancement of religion in such districts and provinces which are governed "more missionum," or as missionary countries, i.e., not by bishops constituted in the regular hierarchy, but by Prefects and Vicars Apostolic. Certain countries, even where the regular hierarchy is established, such as Ireland, England, and Scotland, and the United States, are likewise subject to the Congregation, and transact almost all their business with the Roman Curia through it. Hence, applications for dispensations, etc., are addressed to this Congregation through its Secretary. The Congregation has, moreover, a legislative and judicial power; and by authority conferred upon it by Gregory XV., and confirmed by Urban VIII. and Innocent X.; its decrees, signed by the Secretary, and confirmed by the Prefect, have the force and authority of an Apostolic Constitution.

All communications should be written in Latin, or, at least, in French or Italian, and addressed to the Secretary as follows:

A Sua Eccellenza Revma.,
Il Signor Segretario della Congregazione,
di Propaganda Fide,

21011

The present Prefect is Cardinal Micci las Ledochowski, and the Secretary, Mgr. Agostino Ciasca, Archbishop of Larissa.

THE CONGREGATION OF THE COUNCIL.

This Congregation was founded by Pius IV., for the purpose of promoting the observance of the decrees of the Council of Trent. To this Pius V. added the interpretation of these decrees and the decision of all controversies arising from them. In 1587, this Congregation was also commissioned by Pope Sixtus V. to revise the decrees of all provincial Councils, and to see that all Bishops paid, at the time required by the Canons, their visits, "ad limina apostolorum," and submitted to the Holy See a report of their dioceses. Benedict XIV., however, appointed a special congregation in connection with the Council, for the purpose of examining the decrees of National and Provincial Synods, and a similar one was constituted by Pius IX., for the special purpose of attending to the visits and reports of Patriarchs, Archbishops, and Bishops.

CONGREGATION OF THE INDEX.

This Congregation was founded by Pius V., and confirmed by Gregory XIII., Sixtus V., and Clement VIII. Its office is to examine books submitted to its judgment by Bishops, or others, and to proscribe those it finds opposed to faith and morals. An Index or catalogue of wicked and dangerous books had already been drawn up at the Council of Trent, and approved by Pope Pius IV. Hence the name.

THE CONGREGATION OF RITES.

This Congregation was instituted by Sixtus V., for the purpose of promoting the observance of the Sacred Rites and Ceremonies of the Church, and of restoring and reforming them when necessary. It was also charged with the process of the Canonization of Saints, and with the regulation of the days to be observed as feasts in the Church, and was bound besides to see that all Kings, Princes, Ambassadors, and other exalted personages, whether lay or clerical, were received with becoming dignity and honour at the Papal Court. These are the duties which it still performs.

CONGREGATION OF BISHOPS AND REGULARS.

This Congregation was founded by Gregory XIII. and Sixtus V., for the arrangement of the rights and privileges of Bishops and of the Regular Orders established in the Church. Hence all cases of appeal against the Bishops' decisions, whether by seculars or regulars, is referred to it. It is also entrusted with the revision and approbation of the rules of religious bodies.

CONGREGATION OF EXTRAORDINARY ECCLESIASTICAL AFFAIRS.

Founded by Pius VII. in 1814, to assist the Cardinal Secretary of State in maintaining proper relations with foreign countries, especially in times of revolution and disturbance. All concordats and relations with foreign governments come under its supervision. It consists of eight Cardinals, one Secretary, and two Consultors.

CONGREGATION OF INDULGENCES AND SACRED RELICS

Founded by Pope Clement IX. in 1669, for the purpose of solving all doubts and difficulties concerning indulgences and relics, correcting abuses relating thereto, forbidding apocryphal, false, or indiscreet indulgences, examining relics newly discovered, &c., &c. General indulgences obtained directly from the Sovereign Pontiff are null and void, unless a copy of such concession be deposited with the Secretary of this Congregation. Decretum Benedicti XIV., 28th Jan., 1756.

CONGREGATION OF RESIDENCE OF BISHOPS.

Many laws exist, differing according to circumstances, obliging bishops to reside in their diocese. Urban VIII. established this Congregation for the purpose of seeing that these laws were observed. The rules to be followed by the Congregation were laid down by Benedict XIV., and are now part of the Canon Law.

CONGREGATION OF ECCLESIASTICAL IMMUNITY.

Instituted by Urban VIII. to protect and defend lawful ecclesiastical immunities against the encroachment and attacks of civil magistrates and secular communities. Most of the cases submitted to this Congregation for examination and judgment arose in the Papal States. Carlicts and controversies regarding concordats with other countries and now generally decided by the Cardinal Secretary of State, assisted by the members of the Congregation of extraordinary ecclesiastical affairs.

CONGREGATION OF REGULAR DISCIPLINE.

This Congregation was established by Innocent XII., to promote the observance of discipline in monasteries and convents; to regulate the time to be spent in novitiates, to grant licences for the reception of postulants, and for their training and profession, etc., etc.

CONGREGATION OF THE STATE OF REGULARS.

Pope Pius IX. restricted the jurisdiction of the preceding Congregation to Italy and the adjacent islands, and established the new Congregation of the State of Regulars to perform similar duties for countries outside of Italy.

CONGREGATION OF THE CONSISTORIAL.

The office of this Congregation is to examine and discuss what are the questions which call for a formal pronouncement of the Pope at a private or public Consistory. It inquires particularly into the applications for the erection of new churches, patriarchal, metropolitan, and eathedral; regulates all about chapters, the number of canonicates, etc., and decides controversies arising therefrom. The Congregation was founded by Sixtus V. in 1588.

CONGREGATION OF THE APOSTOLIC VISIT AND LAURETANÆ.

These two Congregations were established to regulate the visits to the churches and holy places in the City of Rome, and the privileges attached thereto, and to have charge of the Shrine and Sanctuary of Loretto.

CONGREGATION OF CEREMONIAL.

This Congregation arranges all the Pontifical ceremonies, and decides questions of participation and precedence in them. Cardinal Monaco La Valletta is Prefect, and the two Masters of Pontifical Ceremonies at the Vatican are Consultors. The offices of the Congregation are at No. 57 Via della Minerva.

CONGREGATION OF THE FABRIC OF ST. PETER.

This Congregation was founded for the administration and preservation of St. Peter's, and for the realization of pious bequests.

CONGREGATIONS OF EXAMINATION OF BISHOPS AND OF STUDIES.

These two Congregations were established, the former for the examination in Theology and Canon Law of Roman priests named for the Episcopate, and the latter for the advancement of studies and education generally in Rome and the Papal States.

Krish Ecclesiastical Register.

IRELAND is divided, ecclesiatically, into four Provinces, named after the four Archiepiscopal Sees, Armagh, Dublin, Cashel, and Tuam, which are not coincident with the civil Provinces, in which they are respectively situated. The Province of Armagh, containing the Primatial See of All Ireland, embraces, besides the civil Province of Ulster, the whole or portions of the counties of Louth, Meath, Westmeath, King's, and Longford, in Leinster; of Leitrim, Sligo, and Roscommon, in Connaught; the Province of Dublin, under the Primate of Ireland, contains a portion only of the civil Province of Leinster, embracing the whole or portions of the counties of Dublin, Kildare, Wicklow, Queen's, Wexford, Carlow, King's, and Kilkenny; the Province of Cashel is mainly coincident with the civil Province of Munster; whilst the Province of Tuam is smaller than the civil Province of Connaught, and includes the whole or portions of the counties of Galway, Mayo, Sligo, Roscommon, Clare, and King's.

The Province of Armagh includes the Diocese of Armagh, with the Dioceses of Meath, Ardagh, Clogher, Derry, Down and Connor, Dromore, Kilmore, and Raphoe, as Suffragan Sees; total, nine Dioceses.

The Province of Dublin includes the Diocese of Dublin with the Dioceses of Ferns, Kildare and Leighlin, and Ossory, as Suffragan Sees; total, four Dioceses.

The Province of Cashel includes the Diocese of Cashel, with the Diocese of Emly attached, the Diocese of Cork, Cloyne, Killaloe, Kerry, Kilfenora, Limerick, Ross, Waterford and Lismore, as Suffragan Sees; total, nine Dioceses. The Diocese of Kilfenora is assigned to the Bishop of Galway, as its Apostolic Administrator.

The Province of Tuam includes the Diocese of Tuam, with the Dioceses of Achonry, Clonfert, Elphin, Galway and Kilmacduagh, and Killala, as Suffragan Sees; total, six Dioceses.

There are, thus, four Provinces, each presided over by an Archbishop, and twenty-four Suffragan Sees, or a total of twenty-eight Dioceses is Ireland.

Clergy Lists.—In every case the Diocesan Clergy List has been revised by the Bishop or his Secretary, and this is a guarantee, so far as can be secured, of the accuracy of the information supplied.

Chapters.—In many of the Dioceses the Chapters have been revived and organised, the members of which, together with the principal Dignitaries of the Diocese, will be found under the heading of the respective Sees.

Parishes and Benefices.—The number of civil or legal Parishes in Ireland is 2,428, and the number of Catholic Parishes or Benefices marked by territorial jurisdiction 1,087, so that the civil and the Catholic ecclesiastical Parishes are rarely conterminous. The number of Parishes or Benefices in the Dis-Established Church, is 1,510. Catholics have the deepest interest in adhering to the primitive designation and orthography of the several territorial divisions, Diocesan and Parochial, of the Irish Church, as a classified analysis of the derivation, origin, and history of such designations would form a vast and most important body of evidence testifying to the intimate connexion which subsists between the faith of the people and the very topography of the kingdom.

Public Institutions.—All Public Institutions in each Diocese, having Catlolic Chaplaius attached, as Workhouses, Lunatic Asylums, County, City, and Government Prisons, Military Barracks, &c., are published.

Regular Clergy.—The usual Diocesan Returns of the Regular Clergy will be found under each Diocese. Moreover, all the Communities of each Order in Ireland or of Irish branches abroad are set forth under the heading, "List of the Regular Clergy."

Religious Communities of Men and of Women.—Diocesan and other Returns are published of these Orders, with such information respecting each as may be expected in a Registry.

Educational Institutions.—These are fully considered under each Diocese, and are also indicated in a special section devoted to the position of Catholic Education in Ireland.

Charitable Institutions.—Orphanages, Asylums, Refuges, Hospitals, Reformatories, Industrial Schools, &c., will be found under the respective Dioceses in which they exist.

Obituary.—Diocesan Returns, obtained from the Bishops themselves, give an authentic list of the Clergy, &c., who died within the past year.

State and Progress of Religion.—Summaries, under various Heads, supplied by the Bishops, or prepared from their Returns, are given, indicating the state of Religion in the Diocese. We also give the Catholic and non-Catholic population of each diocese for the years 1861, 1871, 1881, and 1891.

Marist Brothers' Institute, Sligo.—Ordinary Day Schools. Pension Day School for Boys. Night School for Commercial and Technical Classes—Superior, Rev. Brother Edmund.

Presentation Brothers, Boyle.—Day Schools and Technical Schools—Superior, Rev. Brother Celsus.

CHRISTIAN BROTHERS.

The Institute of the Christian Brothers, founded in 1802, by the revered Edmond Ignatius Rice, was formally approved and confirmed in 1820, by a Brief of the Sovereign Pontiff Pope Pius VII. of happy memory.

Since that time it has received many special marks of favour from succeeding Popes—Pius VIII., Gregory XVI., Pius IX., and his present Holiness, Leo XIII.

The main object of the Brothers, after their own sanctification, is the Christian education of youth, to which, after due preparation, they entirely and irrevocably devote themselves.

The most suitable age for postulants to enter the novitiate is between 16 and 25; those seeking admission must possess the talents necessary to prosecute the course of studies prescribed by the Institute for its members.

The first novitiate is at Baldoyle, Co. Dublin; here the Postulants are prepared for the reception of the Habit of the Institute, and when sufficiently advanced in their studies they are transferred to the senior novitiate or training college at Marino.

All seeking admission should have letters of recommendation from their spiritual director or parish priest; they should also present their baptismal certificates.

Further particulars may be obtained by applying to the Christian Brothers, at Marino, near Dublin, where the Superior General, Rev. Brother R. A. Maxwell, and his Assistants, Rev. Brothers T. I. O'Neill, J. C. Whitty, and P. J. Hennessy, reside.

This College was erected a.d. 1628, for the education of Irish Ecclesiastical Students. During the dark days of persecution, as in our own day, it sent forth many distinguished scholars and missionaries, amongst whom may be named the Venerable Oliver Plunkett, D.D., Archbishop of Armagh, one of the last of those illustrious Irishmen whose blood was shed for the faith once delivered to the Saints.

It is a special desire of the Holy See and the honour and the interests of the Irish Church render it advisable that the National College in Rome should be enabled to attract young men of talent, who would do honour to their native land in the centre of the Christian world, and be able to avail themselves of the opportunities for improvement afforded by the Eternal City. Such students will enjoy the opportunity of visiting the birth-place of Christianity in the West; of venerating the place sanctified by the preaching and blood of the Apostles; of studying the monuments of sacred and profane antiquity with which the city abounds; of seeing the rites and ceremonies of our holy Church practised with all possible magnificence and solemnity, and of acquiring a knowledge of the practices of the highest ecclesiastical tribunals. Hence the foundation of additional burses is eminently recommended to the piety and patriotism of the Clergy and Faithful.

Attention to the following instructions regarding the admission of students is requested:—

- 1. Each Candidate or at least his father must be Irish by birth. He must have authentic commendations for edifying conduct, sound health, and for talent likely to maintain the honour of the College in competition with other National Colleges in Rome. An examination as to competent talent is held annually at Holy Cross College, Clonliffe, Dublin.
- 2. The latest day for arrival is the 23rd of October, the day immediately preceding the Annual Retreat. For further particulars apply to the Rector.

REGISTER OF ECCLESIASTICAL EVENTS

FOR THE YEAR 1899.

DECEMBER, 1898.

December 4.—The Sisters of Charity who were brought to Dublin by Cardinal Cullen in 1857 started an orphanage in North William Street in the following year. Since then more than 1,200 girls have been trained and educated at the institution, which now has 180 orphans on the funds. Part of the buildings having become insecure, the Sisters are appealing for help to erect a new wing at the cost of about £5,000. At a meeting on behalf of this appeal the Archbishop of Dublin said: "No one indeed can value more highly than I do the services rendered to our poor by those philanthropic agencies which, in Dublin as elsewhere, are at work in so many fields of benevolent activity. But, let it always be remembered, there is far more work, work quite as useful, and far more extensive, being carried on day after day, noiselessly and calmly, in those self-same fields of labour, by many a religious community in this city, than could be compassed by the combined efforts of all the philanthropic societies that we are likely to see in Ireland in our time. One cannot but recall to mind the famous saying, so often quoted of Napoleon. One evening there were at the Tuilleriesit was in the days of his First Consulate—a number of the so-called philosophers of the day, Volney, Cabanis the physicist, Destutt de Tracy the materialist metaphysician and moralist, and others, and they were engaged in a conversation the topic of which was a glorification of their eighteenth century philosophy with its philanthropic teaching and all the benefits which they had claimed it had conferred upon the human race. Napoleon bore it all in patience for a while, but at last he could stand their talk no longer, and so, in his own brusque way, he struck into the conversation. men.' said he. 'I have listened to all you have been saying. Here is a practical test for you. Take all your philosophy, with all its philanthropy that you boast of so loudly. Put it all together and see if it will produce for me even one Sister of Charity." Father Bernard Vaughan, S.J., in speaking on behalf of the fund said: "You can 'switch' a Sister of Charity on She is always there and knows all about it, They have a to anything.

motto in practice which we have in theory, 'The greater glory of God. Mostly where you have orphanages there is a certain amount of good pickings for somebody. But there was nothing of that sort here, they knew where the money went, it was put out to the best advantage. The orphanage was supported by voluntary contributions, and if they could not get it voluntarily they must get it some other way, and some of the contributions were not too voluntary. People went to church and determined only to give a certain amount, and they generally kept that resolution. But they went to a shop with a similar resolution, and came out having spent perhaps double what they intended. Are you going to be beaten by a shop-walker? This was a commercial transaction for the Lord. There were 180 children in the orphanage: he asked them to make that number 200, and God would never be outdone even by Irish generosity."

Dec. 12.—This evening a meeting convened by the Catholic Five-Hundred was held in St. George's Hall, Westminster Bridge-road, for the prupose of supporting the Catholics of Ireland in their demand for a University.

The Very Rev. Canon J. Keatinge, of St. George's Cathedral, moved:—
"The South London Catholic League calls upon Her Majesty's Government to introduce a Bill next Session giving to the Catholics of Ireland the opportunities for University education on terms acceptable to the Bishops and the Catholic leaders of the Irish people. That a copy of this resolution be sent to the members of Her Majesty's Government, and to the members of Parliament representing South London constituencies. That this meeting humbly asks his Eminence the Cardinal, his Lordship the Bishop of Southwark, and his Grace the Duke of Norfolk, as our leaders, to call a public meeting as early as possible, to give the Catholics of London an opportunity of expressing their sympathy with this demand of their brethren in Ireland, who so steadfastly supported us in our agitation for justice to Catholic Elementary Schools."

Among the speakers to this resolution, which was carried, were the Very Rev. Canon Murnane, the Rev. W. F. Brown, M.L.S.B., and Mr. James O'Connor, M.P.

The following letter from the pen of Sir C. Gavan Duffy appears in the Spectator:—

"In enumerating the reasons for establishing a Catholic University in Ireland (Spectator, December 3) you have omitted the most serious and practical. Young Catholics have to run the race of life with Englishmen and Scotchmen, and they run it at a serious disadvantage for want of the training and efficiency which a University education supplies. They are retarded in obtaining professions, and afterwards in procuring employment, from this want. It was my fortune to encounter in Australia hundreds, and indeed thousands, of bright, intelligent young Irishmen whose education had not fitted them for any employment beyond that of a clerk, and who in many cases became waiters in hotels, pound-keepers, railway-porters, and, of course diggers; while better educated, and I will venture to say, not better endowed, Scotchmen occupied superior positions. I have never heard any reason for refusing them this right, which a man of honour and integrity ought not to be ashamed to acknowledge. They are not asking anything new or peculiar; there are two Protestant Universities in Scotland, and one essentially Protestant University for the minority in Ireland. In the name of common-sense and common justice, why should there not be one essentially Catholic University for the majority?"

Dec. 14.—An interesting ceremony took place at the Dominican Convent. Wicklow. when one of the pupils, Miss Georgie Galvin, was presented with a certificate of the Royal Humane Society for saving life. The Rev. Canon O'Donnell presided. The ceremony took place in presence of the members of the community, the pupils of the institution, and a number of friends from outside. Prior to the ceremony of the presentation a very interesting programme of music and song was rendered by the pupils with a capability which reflects great credit on the community to whom their education is entrusted. In presenting Miss Galvin with the parchment certificate of the Royal Humane Society, Colonel Adye Curran, who had been specially deputed for the task, said that the act which the society desired to express their recognition and appreciation of was performed by the recipient of the certificate at Paenmaenmaur, in North Wales. Miss Galvin. with her sisters and a friend, a Miss Drake Burleigh, had been bathing there on the 17th August last. The foreshore at this place was dangerous by reason of its shifting sands and burying depth, and Miss Burleigh, who was but a poor swimmer, was carried out to sea. She called for help, and Miss Galvin at once swam to her, caught her by the hair as she was sinking a third time, and with much difficulty succeeded in bringing her to shore (applause).

Rev. M. Clarke, C.C., on behalf of Miss Galvin, acknowledged the presentation, and expressed the thanks of the community to the Humane Society and to Colonel Adye Curran for their action in the matter.

Dec. 15.—This evening the Most Rev. Dr. Carr, Archbishop of Melbourne, delivered a most eloquent and interesting lecture, illustrated by diagrams and views, in the Aula Maxima, St. Patrick's College, Maynooth, of which famous institution his Grace was such a distinguished alumnus and professor. There was a large attendance, including the College staff, students, and visitors.

The Right Rev. Monsignor Gargan, President, occupied the chair.

A large number of distinguished guests were invited by the President to meet his Grace the Archbishop at dinner, and afterwards to be present at the lecture.

The President introduced his Grace in a graceful and complimentary speech. He referred to the Most Rev. Dr. Carr's connection with the College, and pointed out what a great stimulus to the students it was to see his Grace, who was formerly a distinguished student there, now occupying such an exalted position in the Church.

The Most Rev. Dr. Carr, who was very warmly received, then proceeded to deliver a most interesting lecture on the "Present Condition of the Church in Australia."

Dec. 17.—The following is taken from the Tablet of this date:—

"A correspondent writes to us as follows: 'During a recent visit to Rome I was told by an Italian lady, who is in a position to be well informed, a charming little story about the Holy Father and the Queen of Italy—very much to the honour of both. I don't know whether it has ever been published, but even if it has it will bear repeating. It is to the effect that Queen Margherita, being grieved at the wrong that has been inflicted upon the Church bythe Royal power—a wrong which she is powerless to remove—desired at least to obtain the Holy Father's blessing for herself. She feared however that, as the wife of the King, it would not be granted to her. She therefore disguised herself as a member of a certain sodality, composed of women of the humbler classes, to whom an audience had been granted, and at the close of the audience the Holy Father, in due course, gave them his blessing. Afterwards, being somewhat conscience-stricken, she wrote to his Holiness confessing what she had done and saying that she felt that, like Jacob, she had obtained a blessing by false pretences. Thereupon the Pope replied that he had, at the time, recognised his daughter Margherita amongst the poor women, and that he sent her his blessing with all his heart."

Dec. 22.—On Thursday last a deputation of the priests of the diocese waited upon the Most Rev. Dr. Lyster at the Abbey, Ballaghadereen, to present him with an address and testimonial on the occasion of his Sacerdotal Jubilee. The Very Dean Staunton, Ven. Archdeacon O'Rorke, Very Rev. Canons Stephens and Judge, and the Rev. P. J. M'Donald, P.P., who were to form part of the deputation, wrote expressing their regret at being unable to attend. The Bishop received the Very Rev. Canons Loftus, O'Hara, and Lowry, and the Rev. Fathers Gallagher, Durken, and Burke at 2 p.m. The address was read, in the absence of the Dean, by Canon Lowry, and the testimonial presented by the Rev. Canon Loftus. Besides the formal reply, the Bishop spoke in a way that touched the feelings of all present, of the gratitude he felt for the love and devotion shown him by the priests from the first day he came amongst them.

Dec. 24.—It is with deep regret that we announce the death of the Most Rev. Dr. Nulty, Bishop of Meath, which sad event took place on Christmas Eve at the Palace, Mullingar, after a comparatively short illness. His lordship, who was in his 82nd year, appeared in his usual health on Wednesday last, when he celebrated Mass for the last time in the Cathedral. On Thursday his lordship became ill rather suddenly, and after being seen by Dr. Ledwith, who was his medical attendant, that gentleman announced that death might be expected at any moment. On Friday his lordship was seen by Dr. Little, of Dublin, who confirmed Dr. Ledwith's views, and on Saturday afternoon, at 4.10 p.m., the deceased prelate passed peacefully and painlessly away. There were present at his bedside Mgr. Gaffney, the Rev. Dr. Dooly, Navan; Rev. E. O'Reilly, Adm., Mullingar; Rev. J. Concannon, Diocesan Catechist; the Revs. P. Daly, C.C.; P. Flanagan, C.C.; W. Rooney, C.C., and N. Woods, C.C. Mr. John Wickham, T.C., was also present. On Cirhstmas Day prayers for the repose of his soul were asked at all the Masses in the churches of the town. On Monday the remains were translated from the Palace to the Cathedral.

His lordship's native place was near Oldcastle, Co. Meath, where he was born 81 years ago. His parents belonged to the farming class; and, intending their son Thomas for the Church, sent him at an early period in his life to the Diocesan Seminary at Navan, which bears the name of one of the ancient saints of Meath. St. Finian. Here he showed considerable application, and was a diligent and clever student, and he soon gave promise of a brilliant career. In the National College at Maynooth, which he entered subsequently, he had as colleagues many men who were, like himself, eminent and distinguished prelates, renowned alike for their piety. learning and patriotism, but few of whom now remain. Dr. Nulty's career in Maynooth was marked by ability and scholarly attainments, and his ordination took place in 1846. Two years ago last summer he celebrated his sacerdotal golden jubilee, a ceremony attended with rejoicing in Mullingar. Two years after his ordination he was appointed to the curacy of Trim, and between that parish and Mullingar the chief portion of his missionary labours was performed. In the black days of '48, as a curate in Trim, Father Nulty had to go through some terrible ordeals, but he faced them with courage and heroism. The country was enveloped by famine and fever, and hundreds were being carried off. Father Nulty, fresh to the mission, had to attend the unfortunate people, whose condition made a deep impression on his mind. It was, no doubt, his experiences of this trying time, combined with his strong and ardent love of country and the desire of uplifting the social position of the people, that prompted those vigorous and trenchant writings which afterwards appeared from his pen. For years he acted in the onerous and responsible position of President of St. Mary's College, Mullingar, where his work attracted much notice, and commanded warm admiration. The pastoral charge of Trim parish was afterwards entrusted to him, and it was whilst here that he was selected by the parish priests of the diocese as dignissimus to be Coadjutor-Bishop to the Most Rev Dr. Cantwell, then in his declining years. The consecration ceremony was performed on October 23, 1864, but he still continued to act as parish priest of Trim, and rendered considerable assistance in the administration of the affairs of the diocese. On the death of the saintly Dr. Cantwell, who passed away in December, 1866, the Most Rev. Dr. Nulty succeeded to the bishopric. His occupancy of the episcopate had consequently lasted 34 years, and so far back as 1889 he celebrated his silver jubilee. During all these years he led a most active life, paying close attention to the heavy and responsible duties of his position. Such was the wonderful vigour which characterised him, that his advanced age did not prevent him last summer from paying his visitations to the several parts of the extended diocese, which is one of the largest in Ireland, including, as it does, the entire County Meath, nearly the whole of Westmeath, the greater part of King's County, and portions of Longford and Cavan.

The deceased prelate was a warm and earnest champion of the cause of the Irish tenants, for which his speeches and writings and acts accomplished much. Apart from the studies appertaining to his great office—and he was a learned theologian—he devoted much time to scientific research, and attained skill as a chemist and engineer, mechanical and electrical. Under his rule religion and religious houses flourished and progressed in the diocese, whilst education made vast strides, which bear testimony, eloquent and lasting to his great zeal in the service of his Master and his country. Beautiful sacred edifices dedicated to the worship of God, fine parochial houses, and well equipped and good schools were erected during his episcopate.

Up to last summer the wonderful vigour which he always possessed still remained with his lordship, despite his great age. However, he then received a slight stroke of paralysis, which temporarily incapacitated him, and he went to the South of France to recuperate. Since his return he had not been able to perform his duties with his old-time vigour, but he was always to be seen taking his daily walk. On Friday several of the leading clergymen of the diocese, including the Right Rev. Monsignor Gaffney, P.P., V.G., Clara, visited Mullingar, and his lordship received the last Sacraments. It may be mentioned that the deceased prelate was the second oldest member of the Irish hierarchy, the senior being the Most Rev. Dr. M'Evilly, Archbishop of Tuam, who was consecrated so far back as 1857 Both prelates, however, were born in the same year.

Dec. 25.—The Holy Father has just addressed to the Archbishops and Bishops of Latin America a letter convoking them to hold at Rome a General Synod in the course of the coming year. This letter, dated Christmas Day, has been published in the Osservotore Romano. The following is a translation:—

"LEO XIII., POPE.

[&]quot;VENERABLE BROTHERS,

[&]quot;HEALTH AND APOSTOLIC BENEDICTION.

[&]quot;In going back in thought over the long course of Our Pontificate, it appears to Us that We have omitted nothing which could strengthen and promote amongst your peoples the Kingdom of Christ. That which We have done, God aiding Us, in your favour, remains graven in your grateful memory, Venerable Brothers, and it is not in vain that we have committed to your zeal and to your charity the fructification of the foreseeing acts of Our Ministry.

"Now, We wish to give you a fresh pledge of Our solicitude, in accordance with the desire which We have long since conceived. In truth, since the solemn celebration of the fourth Centenary of the discovery of America, We have been intently preoccupied with the means whereby We might provide for the common interests of Latin America, which represents the greater portion of the New World. We have thought that it would be excellent to this effect to consider that you all, Bishops of these countries. might assemble and consult together on Our invitation and by Our authority.

"We were persuaded, in effect, that by your joint counsels and the lights of your prudence, it would be provided that amongst these peoples, united by affinity of race, the unity of ecclesiastical discipline would be assured at the same time as the sanctity of morals, as befits profession of the Catholic faith, and that thus by the united efforts of all good peoples, the Church could publicly enjoy the desired prosperity. In the realisation of this design, the fact that you yourselves, your advice having been sought, gave thereto your full assent, has largely contributed.

"Then, when the moment came for giving effect to this already mature design, We left to your choice, Venerable Brothers, the designation of the place wherein it would seem preferable for you to hold your assembly.

Now, you have manifested, for the greater part, that, of your own accord, you would choose Rome as the place of reunion—it being apparent also that for many amongst you this choice would be preferable because of the difficulty of communication, and of the distances it would be necessary to traverse if an American city were chosen. manifestation of your opinion, wherein shone a striking indication of your attachment to the Apostolic See, We could not do less than give our full approbation. One thing alone is painful for Us—to know that in the condition wherein We now are it will not be given to Us, during your soiourn in Rome, to treat you as liberally and honourably as We would have wished.

"Nevertheless, We have already given orders to the Sacred Congregation charged with the application of the decrees of the Council of Trent, to convoke at Rome next year, an assembly of all the Bishops of the Republics of Latin America, and to indicate to them the rules under which this assembly will be held. In the meantime, as pledge of celestial favours, and in testimony of our good wishes, We affectionately accord the Apostolic Benediction to you, Venerable Brothers, and to the clergy and people committed to each of you.

"Given at Rome, near St. Peter's, on the day of the Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, in the year 1898, the twenty-first of Our Pontificate.

"LEO XIII., Pope."

Dec. 27.—A terrific hurricane prevailed in Castlebar, and caused serious and regrettable damage to Rev. Father Lyons' new church, now in course The building was nearly completed. Only a few weeks' of erection. work remained to be finished prior to the roof being put on. Happily, the men had ceased work for the Christmas holidays, or the result would have been disastrous in the extreme. The majestic edifice was the pride of the parishioners; but now it is a scene of ruin almost, owing to the terrific nature of the storm, which raged with unexampled fury for several hours Mr. Healy, the contractor, suspended work for a few without abating. days, and looked forward with pride to have in some months the much required new church completed. The hurricane reached its full force at two o'clock, and suddenly a crash was heard throughout the town. On examination it was found that the storm had blown down the principal side walls, arches, and massive granite pillars, the latter having been imported from The loss sustained by the popular and esteemed parish priest. the Rev. Father Lyons, P.P., is considerable, and he has received the sympathy of all sections of the community in the town and district, as the greater part of his beautiful new church has now been reduced to a complete state of debris.

Dec. 28.—A solemn Requiem Office for the repose of the soul of the late Dr. Nulty was commenced shortly after 11 o'clock this morning in the Cathedral, where the remains of the deceased prelate had lain in state since they were transferred from the Palace hard by on St. Stephen's Day. The remains were enclosed in a handsome suite of coffins, the innermost being of cedar, lined with satin. This was encased in a heavy leaden shell, the outer coffin being of polished and panelled mahogany, mounted in sterling silver. It was a beautiful casket. The outer lid was enriched in solid silver with a miniature mitre at the head, and a crucifix at the foot, the burnished breast-plate which was in the form of a shield bearing the following inscription:—

Reverendissimus THOMAS NULTY,
Episcopus Midensis,
Obiit die XXIV Decembris,
MDCCCLXXXXVIII.
Annos Natus LXXXII.
R.I.P.

On the massive coffin or casket, which was surrounded by the unbleached wax lights, were placed the late Bishop's crozier and three mitres—embleactic at once of the Episcopal office and of the arms of the diocese. Around the bier, which rested on a catafalque draped in purple velvet trimmed with silver lace, outside the sanctuary in the centre fronting the high altar, were ranged on either side the large concourse of Bishops, Monsignors, and priests; the secular clergy in their surplices and soutanes, the members of the different orders represented in their respective habits, and the Bishops and Monsignors in their purple robes.

.. His Eminence Cardinal Logue, Primate of All Ireland, robed in full pontificals, and occupying the throne within the sanctuary, presided at the impressive ceremonies.

The other Prelates present were:—Most Rev. Dr. Walsh (Archbishop of Dublin); Most Rev. Dr. Owens (Bishop of Clogher); Most Rev. Dr. M'Cormack (Bishop of Galway); Most Rev. Dr. Foley (Bishop of Kildare and Leighlin); Most Rev. Dr. Henry (Bishop of Down and Connor); Most Rev. Dr. Lyster (Bishop of Achonry); Most Rev. Dr. O'Donnell (Bishop of Raphoe); Most Rev. Dr. Brownrigg (Bishop of Ossory); Most Rev. Dr. Hoare (Bishop of Ardagh); Most Rev. Dr. Clancy (Bishop of Elphin); Most Rev. Dr. O'Doherty (Bishop of Derry).

In addition to His Eminence and the members of the Episcopacy, the following ecclesiastical dignitaries attended:—Right Rev. Monsignor Gargan, President Maynooth College; Right Rev. Monsignor Gaffney, P.P., Clara; Right Rev. Monsignor Gaughran, P.P., Kells. About 160 of the minor clergy, secular and regular, were present, and amongst the laity were Lord Greville, D.L.; Sir W. Nugent, Major Dease; Mrs. Nugent; Donal Sullivan, M.P.; T. D. Sullivan, M.P.; Jasper Tully, M.P.; James Tuite, M.P.

Immediately after the interment a meeting of the parish priests of the diocese, presided over by his Eminence Cardinal Logue, was held in St. Mary's College, Mullingar, for the purpose of electing a Vicar-Capitular. The choice in selection lay between the Right Rev. Monsignor Gaughran, P.P., V.F., Kells, and the Right Rev. Monsignor Gaffney, P.P., Clara, no vote being cast for any other cleric present. The voting resulted in the election of Monsignor Gaffney to the important position in question.

JANUARY, 1899.

January 5.—The following petition to the Government, urging the establishment of a Catholic University in Ireland, is about to be offered by the Bishops for the signatures of the Catholics of England:—

"To the Most Honourable the Marquis of Salisbury, K.G.

"We, the undersigned, beg to invite the earnest attention of your lordship, as head of her Majesty's Government, to the state of things by which the Catholics of Ireland—three-fourths of the people—are, in fact, cut off from the benefits of University education. We are spared the necessity of demonstrating the existence of this national misfortune by the wholly honourable but momentous admissions which have been made within the last year by members of her Majesty's Government. Only last October, the immediate representative of the Queen in Ireland, the Earl of Cadogan, used these words in a public meeting at Belfast:—'I am convinced that as long as you have that question unsettled, as long as you do not intend to render justice to those who are not of the same religion as yourselves, in this high and important matter, so long will Ireland have one grievasce, and one serious grievance, which will be unredressed.' Mr. Balfour, speaking as the leader of the House of Commons last February, declared that it filled him 'with dismay that Parliament should tamely acquiesce in a condition of things which practically and substantially deprives twothirds of the population of Ireland of higher educational advantages.' pray that this admitted inequality of educational opportunities between the Protestants and Catholics of Ireland and the people of Ireland and Great Britain may be redressed without delay. All we ask is that in the matter of higher education the 'policy of the open door' shall be adopted in Ireland, and that something of the considerateness which in the case of the Gordon Memorial College has been so conspicuously shown for the religious feelings of the Mohammedan Soudanese, shall now be extended to the conscientious convictions of Irish Catholics. We would remind your lordship that this subject of Catholic University education in Ireland was made a Cabinet question twenty-five years ago; that in the interval the Catholic Bishops of Ireland, and her representatives in Parliament, have never ceased to urge her Majesty's Government to right an admitted injustice by establishing a University in Ireland which Catholics could attend without doing violence to their religious principles; that the want of such facilities for higher education condemns the young Catholics of Ireland to go into the world robbed of their fair chances of achieving a successful career; that the Catholics of Ireland have eagerly availed themselves of the advantages offered by the intermediate or secondary colleges, as the result of the Royal University examinations year after year abundantly show; and that continued denial of all opportunity to complete their studies in a University course is bitterly resented, not only as a penal disability suffered for conscience sake, but as a most grievous handicapping in the competition of life. Finally, we would recall that the Catholic Bishops of Ireland have done everything in their power to make easy this great act of justice; and they have disclaimed any demand for an endowment for the teaching of religious sciences; that they are willing to see a majority of laymen on the governing board; that they offer every reasonable guarantee for fixity of tenure for the members of the teaching staff, and that the advantages of the new University shall be opened to all irrespective of religious belief. We, therefore, earnestly beg that your lordship will cause a Government Bill to be immediately brought into Parliament, which shall lead to the performance of an act of justice that has for years been demanded by the immense majority of the people of Ireland."

LETTER FROM CARDINAL VAUGHAN.

"Archbishop's House,
"Octave of St. Thomas of Canterbury, 1899.

"REV. DEAR FATHER,—Herewith is enclosed a copy of the petition which the Catholic Bishops of England have agreed to promote in favour of the establishment of a University for the Catholics of Ireland. Be good enough to lay it before the more educated and intelligent members of your flock (men and women), so that by appending to it their signatures they may take part in pressing upon the Government the need of redressing a long-standing wrong. In advocating this petition, you will have the advantage of being able to present a case, the justice of which is self-evident, and the arguments in favour of which are unanswerable. It is known to you, that not only the Catholics of these countries, but all that is most enlightened amongst our non-Catholic fellow-countrymen, have recognised the justice of the claim now put forward; and that the most distinguished amongst the Anglican Bishops have most generously added their testimony to that of leading members of the Government and of the The claim to a University for the Catholics of Ireland has for its foundation the principle of equity and religious equality, by which the State professes to deal out an equal measure of justice to all classes.

"In Trinity College the Protestants of Ireland have all the advantages of a richly-endowed University, in which their sons are fitted to fill the most influential positions that can be open to them. It is equally certain that the Catholics of Ireland, although three-fourths of the population, are left without any such University training, and are thereby handicapped or placed outside the race of national progress. No quibbling can ever alter these concrete facts into anything else than what they are—a national injustice, and a breach of religious equality. The Catholic population of Ireland has clearly the same right to have University education provided for it as the Protestant population. The latter has been provided with all that it needs, and was never called upon to build and endow Trinity College by private subscriptions. It is rightly endowed with every advan-The former has a just claim to an equal provision, and it cannot be called upon to make that provision by private and personal sacrifices. it be said that Trinity College is open to Catholics, the answer has been given by an eminent statesman, who asked whether the Protestants of Ireland would be content to send their sons to Trinity College were it as distinctly Catholic as it is now Protestant? Would they, as Protestants, be satisfied with the assurance that the doors of the Catholic College would be open to them if they would seek the advantages of University education? Every one knows that University training does not consist in mere booklearning, but that a spirit, an atmosphere, genius loci, is essential to its well-being; neither is a University a mere examining board. The Catholic people of Ireland, through their Bishops and members of Parliament, have demanded for generations the establishment of a University in harmony with their conscientious convictions. Now, if the desire of great popular majorities in the matter of education is everywhere conceded, if in England the rights, even of minorities, are respected in such matters, how comes it that a deaf ear has always been turned to this demand of the Irish people? Upon what plea of justice or of sound policy can the demand of the Catholic people of Ireland be spurned, when it is simply for an acceptable system of University education? This is a question which must now receive a definite answer from the Government, and the legislature. In the late summer and in the autumn of the year which has just closed, we read many indignant resolutions and protests passed by certain Nonconformist bodies in this country against the establishment of a Catholic University for I cannot believe but that these protests were passed under a misunderstanding. I will not believe that English Nonconformists wish to deny University education to the Catholics of Ireland unless they accept it in a form and under conditions abhorrent to their national and religious convictions. I will not believe this of any large body of them without further proof. They imagined that there was to be the endowment of the Catholic religion; that the clergy were to receive complete control over education, and that the Pope was to be supreme. They have been mistaken. No such claims have been put forward. In proof of this, I may refer you to an article from the Bishop of Limerick, in the current number of the Nineteenth Century. The Bishop has long since made this question his own, and he writes with authority. In that article he points out that in setting up a University for Irish Catholics there is to be no State endowment of religion, that no public funds will be applied to denominational purposes, and that the Bishops and clergy do not ask to have the control of the University handed over to them. His words are, 'No Dissenter can complain that his money is to be used to teach a religion in which he does not believe. His money, or rather, the public funds, will simply be used to provide secular knowledge, to teach human science, not religion, to the Catholics of Ireland; and one cannot help thinking that if this fundamental condition of the whole case could be brought home to the intelligence of ordinary Englishmen, they would ask with surprise, what, then, is all the row about.' It is not in reality a Catholic University that is asked for, but simply a University which the Catholics of Ireland may use without it being positively offensive to their convictions. To quote again the Bishop of Limerick—'An institution constituted under these conditions (to which the Bishops have agreed) cannot be regarded as a Catholic University in any true sense of the word; and for us, Catholics, it is only too painfully clear how far we have been driven by the exactions of our religious opponents from the attainment of our own ideals. In a Catholic University the authority of the Pope would be supreme, and would reach directly or indirectly to every part of its organisations, and guide and inform its operations. He would grant its charter and appoint its rector, and sanction its decrees, and all its intellectual life would be carried on under ecclesiastical supervision and control.' A very different thing is now asked for, viz.—' The establishment by Parliament of a University for teaching secular knowledge on such conditions as shall render it at least tolerable for Catholics. We simply ask that it shall have a Catholic atmosphere, and not one positively offensive to our belief and sentiments. For this reason the very name "Catholic University" is rather inaccurate. A University for Catholics is a much more correct description of what we now seek.' fact is, that the Catholics in Ireland are asking for far less than they are rightly entitled to receive—they are asking for far less than is contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act of 1877. They have come down to the irreducible minimum. The character of the present Government, and the temper of the present Parliament will be tested by the manner in which they will meet the demand of the Catholics of Ireland for University education. While many enlightened and leading English Protestants are fully prepared to grant the educational claims made by Ireland, it would be strange, indeed, if any lukewarmness could be found among the Catholics of England in forwarding such a cause. We are too closely united by ties of affection and of blood with that ancient Irish Charch, which has maintained the faith, untarnished, through centuries of untold suffering, not to be deeply interested in everything that concerns its welfare; and I have not the slightest doubt, but that our clergy and educated laity will do all that in them lies to bring home to the Government and the Legislature their strong personal desire that this act of justice shall be no longer delayed .- Wishing you every blessing, I am, Rev. and Dear Father, your faithful and devoted servant,

"HERBERT CARDINAL VAUGHAN."

"P.S.—Let the petition be signed at the church doors, or in such other way as may be more suitable, and let it be signed only by such as understand the importance of the subject. The petition may be sent to a member of Parliament to be presented to the Premier, or it may be sent with a letter direct to Lord Salisbury."

Jan. 10.—Last evening, at the monthly meeting of the members of the Catholic League, held at the St. George's Hall, Westminster Bridge road, the following letter was read from the Right Rev. Dr. Lacey, Bishop of Middlesboro':—

Catholic University for Ireland, and thank you for your courtesy in sending them. It is quite needless for me to say that I am strongly of opinion that the Catholics of Great Britain should show their sympathy for their brethren in Ireland by pressing on the attention of her Majesty's Government this measure of justice, which cannot be longer delayed without the collapse of the policy which has refused Home Rule to Ireland. If England is so stupidly bigoted as at the close of the 19th century to refuse to satisfy the just demands of a Catholic people, whom she insists upon governing from Westminster, the sooner her failure is brought home to her the better for all parties. The American Alliance must remain a dream as long as this injustice continues."

Jan. 17.—The death of Sister Mary Evangelist occurred to-day at St. Joseph's Presentation Convent, Lucan. The deceased nun, who was the eldest daughter of the late Mr. James Greer, Inspector of National Schools, was in the eleventh year of her religious profession. Before entering the religious life she was an unceasing and ardent worker in the cause of religion and of charity; and during her short residence at Lucan she endeared herself to those around her by reason of her estimable qualities and by her zeal to better and ennoble those placed under her care.

Jan. 19.-The Dominican Convent of Our Lady of Sion, Eccles Street, was on this evening the scene of an interesting and important function, when the Right Rev. Monsignor Fitzpatrick, P.P., V.G., Rathgar, in the unavoidable absence of his Grace the Archbishop distributed the prizes awarded by the members of the community to the pupils of the establishment who successfully passed last year's Intermediate and South Kensington examinations, as well as the general examinations set by the Convent teaching staff. The reputation of the Dominican Convent, Eccles Street, as a seat of learning and culture, has been established upon a firm and unshakable foundation years since, and the methods of instruction adopted within its class-rooms have long been regarded as synonymous with success. But even were its reputation as a scholastic institution of the highest order of merit still to be made, the record of success, of which a very large section of the public was enabled to take note last evening, would be of itself alone sufficient to make that reputation for all time. To begin with, it should be mentioned that the Convent secured the highly-coveted and muchparked position of first place amongst the Convent Schools of Ireland, whose pupils competed under the Intermediate programme of 1898. Foremost amongst the honours which conduced to this high rank may be mentioned the fact that the establishment succeeded in placing to its credit in those examinations as many as ten exhibitions, the total monetary value of which amounted to £240. To these are to be added a retained exhibition of the value of £10, seven composition prizes, four book prizes, and 145 honours, including several first and second places in classics, mathematics, drawing, and music. This is a highly creditable record, and the many friends and admirers of the Dominican establishment in Dublin and throughout the country, are justly proud of the splendid distinctions to which its pupils have attained.

Jan. 24.—The election of a new Bishop for the Diocese of Meath, in succession to the late lamented Most Rev. Dr. Nulty, took place to-day in the Cathedral, Mullingar, in which most of the parish priests of the extensive diocese assembled to record their votes. His Eminence Cardinal Logue presided.

The election proceedings were preceded by the usual ceremonies, Solema High Mass being celebrated at eleven o'clock, in presence of a large congregation. The celebrant was Rev. P. Flanagan, C.C., Mullingar; deacon, Rev. Nicholas Woods, C.C., do.; sub-deacon, Rev. William Rooney, C.C., do.; Rev. P. Daly, C.C., do., was the master of ceremonies.

The result of the election, which was conducted in private, was made known in the course of the afternoon. It was as follows:—Right Rev. Monsignor Gaffney, V.G., P.P., Clara, Vicar Capitular, 29 votes, dignissimus; Most Rev. Dr. Higgins, Auxiliary Bishop of Sydney, and formerly President of the Diocesan Seminary of Navan, and Parish Priest of Delvin, 15 votes, dignior; and Right Rev. Monsignor Gaughran, V.G., P.P., Kells, 7 votes, dignus.

These names will be sent forward to Rome in due course, and His Holiness the Pope will afterwards decide who is to be the new Bishop.

Jan. 29.—This evening, at seven o'clock, the Convent of St. Louis, Monaghan, was the theatre of a scene of unusual life and commotion, the occasion being the annual distribution of prizes to the children of the institution. What contributed to the event in a very marked degree was the concert which was given prior to the distribution, an entertainment which spoke volumes for the physical and mental cultivation of the children, and which was highly appreciated by the large audience which had assembled on the occasion. The spacious room in which the proceedings were carried through was tastefully and artistically decorated. The walls were draped in crimson and white, with embellishments of gold; the gasaliers were done in evergreens, and handsome pictures were suspended at intervals, the whole presenting a very pleasing and telling effect. At the north end of the room a platform was raised, where the performance was given. On a second dais, to the left, sat the Most Rev. Dr. Owens, Bishop of Clogher, surrounded by a large number of the priests of Clogher.

His Lordship, having distributed the prizes, addressed those present. He said that for himself, and on behalf of his friends, clerical and lay, who had attended in such large numbers that evening, he returned his very hearty and grateful thanks to the children for their interesting and most enjoyable He had rarely, if ever, been present at a performance entertainment. where an interest had been better sustained throughout. (Applause.) He remembered, a long time ago-some twenty-one years-when a very capable and a very experienced official of the National Board had said in that very room that the Convent Schools of St. Louis, Monaghan, were unrivalled north of the Boyne, and that they were surpassed by only one school in Ireland. (Applause.) They knew that since that time great progress had been made in Irish primary education, as well as in more advanced education: but he was sorry to say that the progress made in university and higher grades had not made proportionate progress. He was sure that while that progress was going on all over the country. Monaghan was keeping pace with the times, and that they had kept the distance of all other schools which they held twenty-one years ago. (Applause.) He thought that no one could have witnessed the programme without being struck by the high excellence and character of the education the children were receiving, because there was not a part of the programme that did not afford evidence of this. Education, in its etymological sense, was the drawing out and expanding of the human faculties; but it also taught them of the preparations necessary for the world to come. The physical and mental training afforded by the good Sisters of St. Louis was evidenced by the items on the programme; and while they were grateful to the children for their excellent performance, the children should be more grateful to the good Sisters who had educated them. He knew they would pray for the Sisters of St. Louis, and by their efforts these schools would reflect credit on Monaghan in the future as they had done in the past.

Jan. 31.—The usual January meeting of the Episcopal Standing Committee was held to-day at the Catholic University, Stephen's Green, his Eminence Cardinal Logue presiding. The University question was under consideration, and, in view of important points raised by Mr. Balfour's recent letter, and of his evident desire to bring this long-debated question to a satisfactory issue, it was decided that a general meeting of the Irish Bishops, to consider the proposals now put forward, should be held at the earliest convenient date.

The following resolutions were unanimously agreed to at the meeting:

1. "The Standing Committee of the Irish Bishops, under the presidency of His Eminence Cardinal Logue, in their own name, and in the name of their colleagues, beg to tender their heartselt thanks to His Eminence Cardinal Vaughan, and also the Catholic prelates, clergy, and people of England, for the invaluable assistance they have given, by their recent action, in forwarding, to what we hope to be a successful issue, the great cause of Catholic University Education in Ireland. We feel that the letters written and the meetings organised under their direction will give a strong impulse to the satisfactory settlement of our claims, and will also serve to draw still closer the bonds of union between the clergy and people of Catholic Ireland and their brethren in Great Britain."

2. "That we, the members of the Standing Committee of the Irish Bishops, in our own name and in the name of our colleagues, deem it our duty to make a strong remonstrance against the action of the Irish Executive, in excluding from Industrial Schools, by their recent Circular, numbers of children who are eligible for admission under the terms of the Industrial Schools (Ireland) Act, as universally understood and acted on up to the present."

₩ JOHN, Bishop of Clonfert,

RICHARD ALPHONSUS, Bishop of Waterford Secretaries.

FEBRUARY.

February 5.—The Feast of St. Agatha, Virgin and Martyr, was celebrated with the usual magnificence at the Irish College. The eve was kept on February 4, when, at half-past four p.m., Vespers were pontifically sung by the Most Rev. Mgr. Keane, Archbishop of Damascus and Canon of the Lateran Basilica, the music being rendered by the choir of the College. On the feast, February 5, the first public Mass was said at half-past seven, and was accompanied by the General Communion. At half-past ten, Solemn High Mass was sung by the Hon. and Right Rev. Monsignor Stanley, Prothonotary Apostolic, in the presence of his Eminence Cardinal Steinhuber, the Titular of the Church of Sant' Agata de' Goti. In the afternoon, at half-past four, Pontifical Vespers were sung by the Most Rev. Mgr. Passerini, Vice-Camerlengo of the Holy Roman Church. Half-past twelve was the hour appointed for the annual banquet. Shortly after twelve, the guests began to arrive. They were received within the walls of the College with a warm welcome, and escorted to the Kirby Memorial Hall, where an interesting reception was soon in course. This over, the guests proceeded to the Refectory, where they were entertained with true Irish hospitality by the Rector, the Right Rev. Mgr. Kelly.

Feb. 12.—In his Lenten Pastoral, the Bishop of Southwark refers in the following words to the University question:-

"Catholic Ireland must not be forgotten by us in our prayers this Leat Slowly, tardily, yet no longer, we trust reluctantly, justice is being done to our brethren in that much-loyed land. We are at a moment when there is real hope that a Catholic University, acceptable to the Bishops and clergy and faithful, may at length, after so many refusals, be granted to the people of Ireland. It is a boon which, undoubtedly, will contribute much to the well-being of the Irish people, and, who can doubt it, to the glory of God and of His Church. By every means in our power ought we to further the accomplishment of this act of justice. Already, dear children in Jesus Christ, you have joined with the Bishops of England in petitioning the Legislature to make no further delay. But the minds and hearts of lawgivers are in the hands of God, and you must not forget to beg Him frequently and earnestly to guide them to do justice in this matter of so great importance. To many this prayer will be another means of showing the deep love they feel for their Mother Country; to all it will be an opportunity of making some return for all that the Catholics of England owe to the faithful of the Sister Isle."

Feb. 24.—The Right Rev. Mgr. Chisholm, Rector of Blairs College, was to-day, at the Cathedral, Edinburgh, consecrated Bishop of Aberdeen, by the Most Rev. Angus Macdonald, Archbishop of Edinburgh, assisted by the Right Rev. James Smith, Bishop of Dunkeld, and the Right Rev. William Turner, Bishop of Galloway. There were also present the Right Rev. George J. Smith, Bishop of Argyll and the Isles, and the Right Rev. John A. Maguire, Bishop of Trocanadæ and Bishop Auxiliary of Glasgow. the Lord Abbot of Fort Augustus, Mgr. Clapperton, Dundee, and Mgr. M. Grady, Edinburgh. The Rev. Father Chisholm, St. Peter's, acted as master of ceremonies, and the Rev. Father Macgregor, the Cathedral, as senior assistant priest to the Bishop-elect. There was a large attendance of clergy, practically all the priests of the diocese being present, as also the students, about eighty in number, from Blairs College, who occupied the seats in the front of the nave. The general congregation was also a large one and included many non-Catholics, prominent amongst whom were Mr. P. M. Cran, City Chamberlain, Chief Constable Wyness, the Rev. Dr. Sutherland, late of Turriff Free Church; Mr. J. Badenach Nicolson of Glenbervie, Mr. John Whyte, President of the Society of Advocates, and Professor Dove Wilson.

The Bishop-elect is a native of Inverness, and was born in June, 1836. Early in life he studied at the College of which he is at present rector, and and thence proceeded to the Scots College, Rome, where he attended for seven years the classes of the Gregorian University. After a most distinguished career, he was ordained priest in 1859, and in the following year he returned to Scotland, and laboured very successfully in Glenlivet, Beauly, Aberdeen, Glengairn, and Banff, and in each of these places secured not only the respect and love of his own people, but earned the esteem of all, irrespective of class or creed. Father Chisholm, when occasion offered, threw himself heart and soul into every scheme that promised to promote the good of the community in which he dwelt. During his eighteen years' residence in Banff, he endeared himself to the people

He was very popular in the county town of Banff, and on standing for the School Board of the burgh was returned at the head of the poll with an overwhelming majority. On leaving Banff in 1800 to become rector of Blairs, he was the recipient of a handsome gold watch and chain as a token of the appreciation of his services by that community. For the last eight years the Bishop-elect has been at the head of Blairs College. where his genial rule and energetic administration have done much to popularize and promote the best interests of Catholic education. new Bishop has been at the head of the College extension movement, and has been able to arouse for the Scheme so much general interest that no financial difficulty now stands in the way of the important project being His lordship was made an LLD, of carried to a successful issue. Aberdeen University at the Silver jubilee celebrations. He is a man of wide culture, a deeply-read theologian, and an able and keen dialectician. A few months ago he was nominated a Domestic Prelate, and his selection by his Holiness to succeed the late Bishop Macdonald as head of the diocese is a mark of honour and confidence which, says The Aberdeen Free Piess, "will give much satisfaction and pleasure alike to the Roman Catholic community and to the public at large. Under Bishop Chisholm's wise and kindly rule the best traditions of the office will be well and worthily maintained."

MARCH.

March 1. - On the night preceding the first of March, his Holiness felt a severe pain in the left side. Professor Lapponi, Archiatra Pontificio, examined him in the morning, and discovered that his Holiness was suffering from an old cyst. He recommended a consultation with Professor Mazzoni, a well-known surgeon who had been called in for consultation on other occasions. The meeting of the physicians took place in the afternoon. and the result was the decision that it was necessary to remove the cyst. His Holiness passed the night in relatively good condition, the fever being I w and the inflammation not abnormal. The operation took place on the morning of the following day, March 1. I have the following account of the authority of Professor Mazzoni. Contrary to the statement of the Roman journals there was no suppuration, but merely an inflammation of the cyst-This, when removed, was of the size of the head of a newly born child. It was not judged safe to give chloroform to so aged a patient, so the means of producing painlessness was the use of cocaine and ether spray on the part operated, namely, the crest of the ilium in the left flank. the operation perfectly, or, as a bulletin related, admirably. The excision over, sutures were not put, as the pain of the needle would have been excruciating, but the parts were brought together. The first bulletin was issued at noon; it stated that everything was going forward normally. The second was issued at five p.m., and its tenor was the same. The third announced that the illustrious patient had slept well, passed the night without pain, and taken food at intervals.

The next bulletin, that of six p.m., March 2, served like a pre-announcement of recovery. His Holiness had no pain and he had taken food with He passed the night satisfactorily. The wound was dressed for the second time, and most successfully, on March 3. The bulletin issued at a quarter to six on March 3, stated that the Pope had passed the day very well, and that while having no pain, he declared that he felt splendidly-Professor Mazzoni left the Vatican. The next morning revealed a greater improvement. Professor Mazzoni returned for the tending of the wounded part. The dressing over, the physicians allowed his Holiness to rise from his bed and rest on his couch for a couple of hours during the warmer part of the day. His Holiness rested on the couch without fatigue and returned to bed still further advanced towards complete This happy end has been almost attained, and the fact that he recovery. passed last night in the best possible way is the last proof that the record of the present week will be one of complete recovery.

March 7.—The new chapel of the Convent of Our Lady of Succour which has just been completed at Newtownforbes, was solemnly consecrated by the Most Rev. Dr. Hoare, Bishop of Ardagh and Clonmacnoise. Previous to the dedication ceremony, a solemn Pontifical High Mass was celebrated by his Lordship the Bishop; the other officiating clergymen being Rev. M. Burke, C.C., Carrick-on-Shannon, deacon; Rev. F. Cahill, C.C., sub-deacon; Rev. T. Maguire, P.P., Bornacoola, assistant deacon at the throne; Rev. C. O'Farrell, C.C., Mohill, assistant sub-deacon; Very Rev. Canon F. O'Farrell, Clonbroney, assistant priest; Rev. W. Murray, master of ceremonies.

March 8.—The death of Sister Mary Peter Macdonald occurred at the Presentation Convent, Maynooth. The deceased Sister, who was fifty years of age, was in the 27th year of her religious life. During her long connection with the Presentation Order, her kindly manner, genial disposition, and piety, won for her the esteem of every member of the community, who deeply regret her demise. By her death the Presentation Order has lost one of its most devoted, zealous, and pious members. Sister Mary Peter Macdonald was the eldest daughter of the late Lieutenant-Colonel Macdonald, and was a cousin of the Archbishop of Edinburgh and the Bishop of Aberdeen.

March 12.—Nine o'clock this morning was the time appointed for the consecration as Bishop of Monsignor Brindle. The church of San Gregorio.

was beautifully decorated for the festa with red and white hangings. The side arches of the nave were decked in plentiful draperies of gay colour, while the arch opening upon the sanctuary was more richly decorated, but with hangings of more sober tone. The armorial bearings of the Cardinal Archbishop filled part of the arches of the nave nearest to the sanctuary. The only decoration of the sanctuary was that of the high altar, and the spreading of the church's carpets. The other altars of the church were also spread with carpets; all of these carpets being probably gifts of Pope Gregory XVI., who was at one time Abbot of S. Gregorio. An altar for the consecrandus was reared in the intercolumniation of the sanctuary. It occupied the post where the throne of the Cardinal is placed on ceremonial occasions. Outside the rails were some special places, which were occupied by the Abbot Don Alberto Gibelli, Abbot-General of the Camaldolese and Abbot of San Gregorio; Monsignor Stanley and Monsignor Campbell, Abbot de Hemptine, Abbot Primate of the Benedictines; Monsignor O'Connell, Rector of the American College; Monsignor Fraser, Rector of the Scots College: Monsignor Kelly, Rector of the Irish College; and Monsignor Giles, Rector of the English College. The nave was filled with chairs fixed in rows, according to the custom followed at the Church of San Silvestro in Capite, and nearly every chair was occupied, the nave being filled with the members of the British, Irish. and American colonies in Rome and with visitors, while much of the available space in the side aisles was also occupied. The consecrating prelate was his Eminence Cardinal Satolli, Archpriest of the Lateran Basilica, who was assisted by the Hon. and Most Rev. Monsignor Stonor, Archbishop of Trebizond, and by the Most Rev. Monsignor Sambucetti, Archbishop of Corinth. The service at the altar was rendered by students of the English and Beda Colleges: Monsignor Prior, D.D.: Monsignor Ciocci, Pontifical Master of Ceremonies; Monsignor Pambianco, Secretary of Cardinal Satolli, and the gentiluomo or gentleman-of-honour to the Cardinal. impressive music of the ritual was sung by a choir of students from the English and Beda Colleges, under the direction of the Rev. Charles Cronin, D.D., Vice-Rector of the English College. The choir sang in the organ tribune. A particularly interesting and quite novel feature marked the close of the ceremony, when the prelates having put on their mozettas, the procession went to the famous chapel of St. Gregory and made a halt for prayers. The kissing of the hands of the newly-consecrated Bishop took place in the sacristy. Monsignor Brindle had tears in his eyes. "It was the end of a long battle," some one said to him. "It was the hardest he had ever been in," he replied. After the ceremony a dinner was given in the Monastery of San Gregorio, at which were present to meet the new Bishop, Cardinal Satolli, Archbishops Stonor, Sambucetti, and O'Callaghan, the Rector and Vice-Rector of the English College, the Rectors of the Scotch and Canadian Colleges, Monsignors Nugent, Dum, Prior, Campbell, Tylee, and Stanley; the Abbot of Sant Anselmo; Messrs. Christmas and Spedding, Chamberlains to the Pope; and many members of the English College and the Collegio Beda. After dinner, Archbishop Stonor proposed the health of the new Bishop, the company singing Ad multos annos and giving three cheers. The Bishop was greatly moved in returning thanks, and said he would never forget the kindness he had met with in Rome. The Abbot of Sant Anselmo offered his congratulations, and then the new Bishop proposed the health of Cardinal Satolli, who answered in a long and eloquent speech. The Bishop's ring, a very fine large opal set with diamonds, was the gift of personal friends in Egypt. The Bishop and Monsignor Dunn leave Rome for London next Sunday.

March 19.—On Sunday a letter was read in the churches from the Archbishop of Dublin, in which his Grace said:—The recent spread of influenza in various parts of the diocese renders it necessary to make further use of the power of dispensing in the Lenten abstinence delegated by the Holy Sec. I. The dispensation already granted for the use of meat on so many of the week-days of Lent, is now extended to the Wednesday of next week, and to the Saturday of Holy Week. 2. The obligation of abstinence from milk, butter, cheese, and eggs is removed from the Wednesday of Holy Week (Spy Wednesday) and from Good Friday; those days will therefore be days of abstinence from meat only, like the ordinary Fridays of Lent. 3. In the case of persons bound to fast, the dispensations now granted apply only to the principal meal. For persons who are on any ground exempt from the obligation of fasting, the ordinary principle applies, namely, that they are at liberty to use without restriction, each day, whatever is allowed on that day to the faithful of the diocese generally at the principal meal.

APRIL.

April 2.—The Holy Father last year, by a decree of the Sacred Congregation of Rites, approved the Litanies of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and authorised their being recited or sung in public in the churches and oratories of certain dioceses of France, and of the Order of the Visitation. Thereupon a number of requests from Bishops, religious congregations, and pious associations were addressed to the Holy See to have the privilege extended to other places. By a new decree just published, this desire has been graciously complied with.

The Brief, which bears date 2nd April, says, in part:-

"Our Holy Father, in his tender devotion to the Most Loving Heart of Jesus, and in his ardent desire to apply a remedy to the evils which press upon us more and more; proposes to consecrate the entire world to this Adorable Heart. To give more solemnity to this consecration, he has resolved to prescribe at a date near at hand a Triduum of prayers, of which these pious invocations (the Litanies of the Sacred Heart) will form a part. Upon that account His Holiness has deigned to authorise in perpetuity throughout the whole world the usage, in public as well as in private, of the recitation and singing of the Litanies of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, already approved and enriched with three hundred days' indulgence."

April 6.—The Most Rev. Dr. Carr, Roman Catholic Archbishop of Melbourne, who has been in Ireland visiting friends for the past eight months, sailed to-day on the Teutonic, en route to his diocese. He was seen off by Most Rev. Dr. O'Callaghan, Bishop of Cork; Most Rev. Dr. Browne, Bishop of Cloyne; and Most Rev. Dr. Kelly, Bishop of Ross.

April 9.—It is more than fifty years ago since the project of starting a new cathedral for Ossory was inaugurated by the then Bishop, the Most Rev. Dr. Kinsella. The foundation-stone was laid on Sunday, August 20, 1843. Dr. Kinsella must have had great faith in the piety and generosity of his people or he would not have laid out his work on such noble lines.

He selected for his architect Mr. Butler, of Dublin, and later on Mr. Hague designed the chapter-house and other adjuncts to the Cathedral. The work, which was started by Bishop Kinsella, was carried on by his successor, Dr. Walsh, who consecrated the sacred building on Sunday, October 4, 1857. When Dr. Walsh died in 1872, he was succeeded by the great historian of the Irish Church, and when Cardinal Moran was called away to a new world to consolidate and push forward the work of the Church, the task of bringing to a completion the grand Cathedral of St. Mary's by providing its decoration fell upon the shoulders of the present venerated Bishop of Ossory, the Most Rev. Dr. Brownrigg. Needless to say, it has been a labour of love with Dr. Brownrigg since he became Bishop of Ossory in 1854. A new high altar, pulpit and font have been added, and the sanctuary has been adorned with mural paintings. The additions, decorations, and completion of the noble work involved an expenditure of over £20,000, in addition to the original undertaking.

The opening ceremony took place to-day. His Eminence Cardinal Logue presided. Pontifical High Mass was celebrated by the Most Rev. Dr. Donnelly, Bishop of Canea. The members of the Hierarchy present were: His Grace the Most Rev. Dr. Walsh, Archbishop of Dublin, and the Bishops of Ossory, Cork, Clonfert, Ferns, Achonry, Killaloe, Waterford, Killala, Clogher, Ardagh, Kildare and Leighlin; the Right Rev. Carthage Delany, Abbot of Mount Melleray; the Right Rev. Mgr. Gargan, President of Maynooth; and a large number of clergy. The sermon was preached by the Most Rev. Dr. Healy, Bishop of Clonfert.

April 10.—His Eminence Cardinal Logue, who has been visiting, Kilkenny to attend the re-opening of the Cathedral, was presented with several addresses on behalf of the clergy and people of the city and the diocese of Ossory. The presentation was made in the lecture hall of St. Kieran's College in the presence of the Bishops of Ossory and Achonry. The addresses were presented in the name of the Dean and Chapter of Ossory, the Young Men's Society, the St. Vincent de Paul Society, the Holy Family Confraternity, the Gaelic League, and the Corporation of Kilkenny. His Eminence replied to each address in a separate speech; that in reply to the Young Men's Society being an important pronouncement on the question of University education. In reply to an address in Irish presented to him by the Gaelic League, his Eminence said there was no subject that should interest them more at the present day than the revival and promotion of the grand old tongue of their country. first place, when the language of the country died, very much, if not the whole, of the National spirit died along with it. In the second place, speaking from experience, he should say that the prayers of the people and the addresses of the priests were far more touching, and reached the heart more directly when delivered in Irish than when conveyed through the medium of any other language he knew. Their language was a polished language, though it had been severely criticised of late. He believed there was not in any of the modern languages of Europe, and certainly not in any of the classic languages that he knew, a more regular grammar than the grammar of the Irish language. He was brought up in an Irishspeaking part of the country, and he had never yet heard an unlettered man speak Irish incorrectly—there was nothing vulgar or local in the Irish language, as there was in other languages. It was a most valuable language from a literary and philosophical point of view.

April 20.—The Irish Catholic of this date publishes the following:

"The Right Rev. Dr. Kelly is about to introduce into his diocese a community of Dominican nuns. The foundation will be at Greenough Flats, where, in May, the nuns will open day schools. They are desirous, we understand, to commence their new understand, in the month of Mary, so that it may be placed under the special protection of the Blessed Virgin.

"The Order of the Daughters of St. Dominic has been particularly distinguished by its literary and scholastic successes, which have won for it a leading place in almost every quarter of the globe. In special branches it has gained particular distinction by the skill it has shown in the training of the deaf and dumb. Its institution for such a purpose at Cabra, near Dublin, is of universal fame.

"With regard to the branch of the Order about to send out an offshoot to settle in West Australia, its antecedents bespeak for its undertaking the happiest and most successful future. It is that whose mother house is at Dunedin, New Zealand. It is now more than 28 years since the late Bishop Moran, who had learned the value of the Dominican nuns from his experience of their services in his former diocese of the Cape, South Africa, arrived in Dunedin, bringing with him ten members of the Order from the convent of Sion Hill, at Blackrock, near Dublin. The situation that opened for the Bishop was one of particular difficulty, and he found many obstacles to surmount. His Lordship, to the last day of his life, was wont to recall the debt which, in overcoming his difficulties, as he triumphantly did, he owed to the aid and co-operation of the nuns."—West Australian Record.

April 28.—The following letter has been published:—

"DEAR SIR,—The following resolution of the Standing Committee of the Bishops has been very kindly forwarded to me by his Lordship the Bishop of Waterford:—

"EPISCOPAL STANDING COMMITTEE, April 18th, 1899.

"RESOLVED—That the Standing Committee of the Bishops have had the resolution of the Teachers' Organisation regarding the managerial question before them and recognise that the resolution, as it stands, is quite satisfactory; but, at the same time, they feel called upon to express their regret that certain proceedings of the recent Congress, as well as the spirit manifested during its progress, cannot be regarded as in harmony with the resolution.

" JOHN, Bishop of Clonfert,
" RICHARD ALPHONSUS, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore,

Secretaries.

"It will give great pleasure to the teachers, and especially to the delegates to Limerick Congress, to be informed that their resolution is considered quite satisfactory by the Bishops. They will indeed read with painful concern that any part of their proceedings should be regarded as out of harmony with that resolution. It constitutes, however, the mandate of Congress to the executive committee of the present year, and it is very satisfactory for that committee to be assured that the resolution by which Congress has prescribed their policy is regarded as altogether satisfactory by the Bishops of the Catholic Church.

"The series of resolutions adopted by the committee last Saturday are an earnest of their intention to abide strictly by the mandate subject to which they were elected, and now that their guiding resolution has the sanction of the Bishops they are favoured with a light in following which they can make no mistake.—Your faithfully.

"Terence Clarke"

MAY.

May 1.—At the Dominican Church, Haverstock Hill, London, this morning, the Right Rev. James Bellord was consecrated Bishop of Milevis and Vicar Apostolic of Gibraltar, the consecrating prelates being Bishop Patterson, of Emmaus; Bishop Bourne, of Southwark; and Bishop Mostyn of Menevia. The new Bishop has had a distinguished career as military chaplain, having served through the Zulu, Boer, and Egyptian campaigns being severely wounded at Tel-el-Kebir. He also performed the last rice over the Prince Imperial's body in Zululand.

May 15.—It is announced that His Holiness the Pope has approved of the selection of Right Rev. Monsignor Gaffney, P.P., V.G., Clara, for elevation to the vacant Bishopric of Meath. It will be remembered that at a meeting of Parish Priests of the diocese, held in Mullingar on 24th January best. Monsignor Gaffney was placed dignissimus by a large majority of the votes recorded on the occasion. The Bishopric is now nearly five months wacant, the late Bishop, Most Rev. Dr. Nulty, having died on 24th December, 1898. Monsignor Gaffney is a native of Mountnugent parish, and was formerly a curate in Mullingar. He has been parish priest of Clara for a considerable period. The news has been received with great satisfaction by all creeds and classes, as Monsignor Gaffney has been long very favourably known in this district, and earned the respect and good-will of all with whom he came in contact. On Saturday night! bonfires blazed in Clara, testifying to the delight with which his parishioners heard of the elevation of their beloved pastor to the great and historic See of Meath. The date of his consecration has not yet been fixed.

May 27.—The following is from the Rome correspondent of the Tablet of this date:—

"The Papacy has not been invited to the Conference convoked by the Tsar, and which has begun its sittings in the Dutch Capital. If its deliberations attain any objective result, as it may be hoped they will, they will be no longer secret as at present, and confirmation will most probably be given to the belief now current, viz.,—that it is rather a Peace than a Disarmament Conference. In other words, the question of arbitration seems to have absorbed the attention of the representatives for various practical reasons. Certain it is, that those proposals which most directly concerned the measures to be taken for disarmament, or for the arresting of the growth of armaments, have been subjected to much opposition, and that the proposal which has received the most favourable preliminary treatment is that which concerns arbitration. Yet it is precisely on this point that the Holy See made its answer to Russia in a valuable and exhaustive memorandum. If, therefore, it was stupid in February of the Italian Minister of Foreign Affairs to have opposed the invitation tendered to His Holiness, it has been doubly stupid, as well as iniquitous, to have maintained that opposition up to the last moment. It may be said incidentally that there are many who regard that action as stupid, even when judged from the point of view of the home interest of Italy itself, inasmuch as it gives a sanction and a reality to the protests of the Holy See against its own present condition. But the exclusion of a Papal representation by Italy must be most severely judged from the point of view of the general good of humanity. It almost wrecked the plan of the Conference in formation, and it may destroy its practical utility, now that the Conference has The Italian delegates will retire at the first mention of the words: Papacy, Pope, Holy See, etc. These are not hopeful conditions for an international discussion about arbitration."

May 28.—The first plenary Latin-American Council was solemnly inaugurated to-day in the Chapel of the South American College by Cardinal di Pietro. Fifty-three Bishops were present, wearing the cope and mitre. After electing Mgr. Casanova, Archbishop of Santiago de Chile, as president, the Archbishop of Bahia celebrated Mass. The Sistine choir sang, and Don Perosi conducted for the first time.

There is a rumour of the future creation of a South American Cardinal.

JUNE.

June 9.—To day was the festival of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. The Pope, wishing to dedicate a Holy or Jubilee Year, announced on Assumption Day that he instituted a Triduum, or three days' prayers, in the Capella Paulina at the Vatican. To enhance the significance of this Church function, Pope Leo celebrated to-day the first Mass at half-past seven in the morning. He was carried in his Sedan chair to the Chapel, surrounded by the whole of his gorgeous Court, and escorted by the Swiss and Noble Guards in full-dress uniform, while the unique Papal choir, habited in violet and white, sang as only they know how. At the entrance, the Pope descended from the chair, while the Dean of the chapel handed him the aspersory, with which he sprinkled the assembly. Although very bowed, the Pope walked without assistance to the altar for Mass, after which he remained for another Mass, celebrated by his Private Chamberlain. Then the Head of the Church pronounced in a surprisingly firm voice the verses appropriate to the festival of the Sacred Heart. The ceremony ended at nine o'clock, when the Pope, whose powers of endurance were admired by all, returned as he came to his private apartments.

June 15.—The laying of the foundation stone of the new Convent and Girls' Home, in the course of erection, in honour of St. Paul of the Cross, took place at Ballymacarrett. The good Sisters of the Most Holy Cross and Passion have undertaken a tremendous task, and deserve the support of all true Christians in its accomplishment. In Lancashire and Yorkshire the Nuns have been a most successful teaching Order, and we have every confidence that they will justify their very high reputation in Belfast, as every Nun will have a University certificate of efficiency as a teacher. The only other Convent of the Order in Ireland is situated at Kilcullen, County Kildare. The Sisters are coming to Belfast on the invitation of the Very Rev. John Macaulay, P.P., with the hearty and earnest approval of his Lordship, the revered Bishop of the diocese. About twenty-five years ago, the Order towhich these good Sisters belong, was affiliated with the renowned Passionist Order, which has a house at Ardoyne, by the Very Rev. Father O'Neill, C.P., a name dear to Belfast Catholics as that of one of the most zealous priests and brilliant preachers the Order can boast of. to conducting and teaching parochial schools and establishing high-class day schools, and boarding schools, the Sisters, by the tenor of their rule.

evisit the sick and minister to their wants wherever necessary. But their good work does not end here, for with the advice and under the guidance of the parish paiest, the Sisters search out families who may be negligent in the discharge of their religious duties, and to whom they impart the comforts and consolations of their religion. A distinctive work of the Congregation, however, is to found homes or refuges for female operatives in large towns and manufacturing districts, where the faith and morals of this class, separated from the protection of home by pressure of poverty, are often exposed to the greatest dangers from association in common lodginghouses. The Sisters receive into these homes the above-mentioned young women, where, besides living at moderate expense, they enjoy all the spiritual advantages which such a protection affords. They are also taught domestic industries, such as sewing, dressmaking, cooking, baking, etc.; in fact, they are educated and trained in the knowledge and practice of those duties which so largely contribute to the happiness and prosperity of their after lives. The experience of the good accomplished in this field of their labours in Manchester, Bolton, Bradford, and in other manufacturing towns, where there are so many good and virtuous Irish girls, leads the Sisters to look forward with great confidence to the results of their first home in Ireland, which is now being established in Belfast under the patronage of St. Paul of the Cross. His Lordship Most Rev. Dr. Henry performed the ceremony of blessing and laying the foundation stone. A large number of the priests of Belfast, and of the Diocese of Down and Connor generally, together with the leading Catholic laymen of Belfast, were present at the interesting ceremony.

June 18.—The annual ordination took place at Maynooth College. His Grace the Archbishop of Dublin was the ordaining prelate. On the previous day the Archbishop raised 83 students of the College to the dignity of the diaconate; and to-day his Grace ordained 82 priests, the largest number that for many years was raised to the dignity of the priesthood at the close of the Academic Term. The tribune and organ gallery were crowded with visitors, relatives of the young priests, who had come from all parts of the. country to assist at the ceremony, and to receive the first blessings of the newly ordained. The Chaplains to his Grace were the Rev. T. P. Gilmartin and the Rev. James M'Ginley, Deans of the College. The Rev. Patrick Morrisroe, Dean, was Master of Ceremonies. The new priests will be distributed through the dioceses as follows: Armagh, 6; Clogher, 6; Down and Connor, 6; Dublin, 5; Kerry, 5; Derry, 5; Ardagh and Clonmacnoise, 5; Cloyne, 5; Tuam, 4; Killala, 4; Meath, 4; Cashel, 3; Killaloe, 3; Clonfert, 3; Achonry, 2; Elphin, 2; Limerick, 2; Ross, 2; Cork, 1; Raphoe. 1: Waterford, I.; Kilmore, I. To the diocese of Perth, South Australia, go two priests, and one goes to the diocese of Sacramento, California.

A meeting of the Visiting Bishops of Maynooth was held on Saturday in the College, and was continued on Sunday. The following prelates were present: His Eminence Cardinal Logue, Archbishop of Armagh and Primate of All Ireland; His Grace the Most Rev. Dr. Walsh, Archbishop of Dublin and Primate of Ireland; His Grace the Most Rev. Dr. M'Evilly, Archbishop of Tuam; the Most Rev. Dr. MacCormack, Bishop of Galway; the Most Rev. Dr. O'Callaghan, Bishop of Cork; the Most Rev. Dr. Browne, Bishop of Ferns; the Most Rev. Dr. O'Donnell, Bishop of Raphoe.

June 19 .- The Rev. Patrick Sexton sustained the defence in Sacred Scripture, Universal Theology, Canon Law, and Ecclesiastical History. which is the final examination for the degree of Doctor of Divinity, in Maynooth College. Father Sexton is a native of Cork city. His is the second defence in Maynooth College. Last year the Rev. Dr. Dineen was the candidate. Father Sexton belongs to the diocese of Cork, and he sustained his thesis in a brilliant manner. At last year's examinations he was one of the candidates for the Licentiate of Divinity, and the Faculty had no hesitation in selecting him for the Defence for the Doctorate this year. The Defence lasted four hours and a half, and was conducted in the Aula Maxima, in presence of Cardinal Logue and several bishops. The objectors were seven The six selected objectors were: The Most Rev. Dr. in number. O'Donnell, Bishop of Raphoe; the Very Rev. Canon O'Mahony, P.P.; the Rev. Father M'Kenna, S.J., Milltown Park; the Rev. Father Donegan. O.P.; the Rev. Father Murphy, O.S.A.; and the Rev. Dr. Coghlan, Professor of Theology, Maynooth. The Rev. Reginald Walsh, Professor of Higher Biblical Criticism and Oriental Languages, Maynooth, was the objector from amongst the public.

Jame 20.—This was degree day at Maynooth, and the degrees were conferred by Cardinal Logue in presence of most of the members of the Irish hierarchy assembled at the College for their annual meeting. The Doctorate went to the Cork diocese in the person of the Rev. Patrick Sexton; seven candidates received the Licentiate, and thirteen the Baccalaureate of Divinity. Monsignor Gargan, the President, in the course of a short address, announced that the College had received extended powers and privileges from Rome. When he last addressed them, the College of Maynooth had the faculty of conferring degrees in divinity and the bachelorship only in philosophy. However, upon becoming more fully acquainted with the studies in the College, and advised by the highest authorities in Rome, the illustrious Pontiff who filled the chair of Peter had extended the privileges and given the College power of conferring all the degrees in theology, philosophy, and canon law. He wished to avail of that occasion to call attention to the College chapel. After twenty-five years of long expectancy they had now commenced to build the tower, and he was confident that old students would help to finish it within the least possible time. In conclusion, he was glad to say that the missionary spirit of Maynooth still continued, and that they were sending some of their body out to preach the Gospel in Africa and Australia, not to speak of those who were rendering service to their fellow-countrymen in the crowded cities of England and Scotland. Cardinal Logue then passed a glowing encomium on the work of the College, and made a strong demand for University education for the Catholics of Ireland.

June 21.—At the meeting of the Irish Bishops held to-day in Maynooth College, Cardinal Logue presiding, the following resolutions were passed:—

Resolved:  That we feel it our duty to protest once more, on our own part and on behalf of our flocks, against the continued refusal of the Government to do justice to the Catholics of Ireland in the matter of University education. The fairness and moderation of our claims have been admitted both within and without the House of Commons by the most eminent statesmen of all political parties; and we feel it our duty to recognize, with gratitude, that the ablest vindication of the justice of the Catholic claim, supported by unanswerable arguments, has been put forward by distinguished members of her Majesty's Government, and pre-eminent amongst them, the present First Lord of her Majesty's Treasury.

"Still it would seem that the cries of bigotry have, once more, been allowed to stifle the voice of justice, and that the Unionist Party is prevented by the bigotry of a number of its own members from remedying this long-standing grievance of the Catholics of Ireland. It is, in fact, a virtual confession that where religious prejudices intervene, Unionism has failed to do justice to the Catholics of Ireland, simply and solely because they are Catholics.

"But we cannot give up the struggle. We have had to fight for all our rights, civil and religious, in the past, and we mean to continue to fight for this. Turning to our own countrymen, we appeal to fair-minded Irishmen of every creed and party to aid us in compelling the predominant partner to remedy this admitted grievance. If the Catholics of Ireland would hope to overcome the stolid prejudices of religious bigotry, whether English or Irish, they have to show that they are in earnest, and they should exclude from every representative position in their gift, every man who will not put this question of educational equality for Catholics in the forefront of his political programme, and labour honestly to secure it. No one will then venture to repeat the calumny that this is more of a clerical question than of a national grievance. It will convince the British Parliament that justice must be done.

"There are only two possible courses—to level up or to level down. Not a shred of ascendancy must be allowed to remain in Ireland. It is high time that the whole country should acknowledge, with one voice, by what moral right one hundred thousand acres of the soil of Ireland are reserved for the education of a small section of the community in Trinity College. Whatever it may be in theory, in its practical working that establishment is now, what it has always been, anti-Catholic and anti-Isish. It is true, that if justice cannot otherwise be done, its ample revenues should be used for the good of the nation."

June 22.—The fourth annual meeting of the Maynooth Union was a gratifying success.

The Secretary, Rev. D. Mannix, D.D., and the Treasurer, Rev. D. O'Loan, D.D., having read their reports of the working of the Society for the year,

Rev. Dr. O'Dea, Vice-President of the College, said that from what had been said by the Secretary of the Union, it would be the feeling, he had no doubt, of every member that they should not allow this occasion to pass without formally offering their congratulations to the Most Rev. Dr. Gaffney on the dignity to which he had just been raised by the Holy Father. (Applause.) They had now known him for three years as acting President of the Association. In the absence of his Eminence he had always taken the chair at their meetings, and they were all the witnesses of the tact and the ability that he had brought to the discharge of his presidential duties. It was, therefore, obviously fitting that on this, the most solemn occasion of his life, when, taking upon himself the responsibility of the episcopacy, that they should put on record their warmest and fullest appreciation for the services that he had rendered to this Association (applause), and that they should assure him of their conviction that to his obvious exertions was in a great measure due the success to which they had so far achieved. (Applause.) They felt grateful to know that in his new sphere of life they would enjoy his patronage and support, and that as their first acting-President he would always manifest the deepest interest in their work. (Applause.) He had much pleasure in proposing:-"That the Maynooth Union offers its warmest congratulations to the Most Rev. Dr. Gaffney on his elevation to the Bishopric of Meath, and earnestly prays that he may long rule his diocese to the advantage of both religious and national interests." (Applause.)

The Right Rev. Monsignor Byrne, P.P. (Dungannon), said he had very great pleasure in seconding the vote of congratulation so ably and eloquently proposed by Dr. O'Dea to the Most Rev. Dr. Gaffney for his invaluable services to this Union. As a fellow-student of Dr. Gaffney in that House, and as one who had followed carefully his missionary career from the time he left the House to the present, he had many opportunities of knowing his extraordinary ability and distinguished services to the Church; and, therefore, he had every reason to believe that he would fill with great credit to himself, and with fruit to the Church in Ireland, the exalted position to which he had been recently called. (Applause.)

His Eminence Cardinal Logue—My Lords, Right Reverend, and Rev. Gentlemen,—It affords me the greatest pleasure to put to this distinguished meeting the resolution of congratulation which has been so eloquently proposed by the Vice-President, Dr. O'Dea, and seconded by my own Dean, Monsignor Byrne. I am sure both gentlemen spoke from their hearts in proposing this resolution of congratulation to Dr. Gaffney; and I think I may say upon behalf of my venerable colleagues who are present, and the greater number of those who are absent, that we are all delighted to receive into the ranks of the Irish Episcopacy an ecclesiastic who has proved himself by his virtue, by his zeal, and by his learning so worthy of the high place to which it has pleased Almighty God to call him. (Applause.) I, therefore, propose this resolution to the meeting, and I am sure it will be received with acclamation. (Applause.)

At ten o'clock, Solemn High Mass for the living and deceased benefactors of the Union was celebrated in the beautiful College Chapel, a sacred edifice which is admittedly one of the loveliest in Christendom. When tower and spire, which will rise to a height of 250 feet, is completed to which end Monsignor Gargan is labouring with commendable zeal at present—the harmonious external outlines will be a spectacle as intensely absorbing as the unobtrusive grandeur of the interior decoration. His Eminence Cardinal Logue presided at the Mass, and the following prelates occupied stalls on either side of the chancel:—

His Eminence Cardinal Logue, Archbishop of Armagh and Primate of all Ireland; his Grace the Most Rev. Dr. M'Evilly, Archbishop of Tuam; Most Rev. Dr. M'Cormack, Bishop of Galway and Kilmacduagh; Most Rev. Dr. Healy, Bishop of Clonfert; Most Rev. Dr. Browne, Bishop of Ferns; Most Rev. Dr. Brownrigg, Bishop of Ossory; Most Rev. Dr. O'Donnell, Bishop of Raphoe; Most Rev. Dr. Lyster, Bishop of Achonry; Most Rev. Dr. M'Gennis, Bishop of Kilmore; Most Rev. Dr. M'Redmond, Bishop of Killaloe; Most Rev. Dr. O'Doherty, Bishop of Derry; Most Rev. Dr. Sheehan, Bishop of Waterford; Most Rev. Dr. Conmy, Bishop of Killala; Most Rev. Dr. Browne, Bishop of Cloyne; Most Rev. Dr. Owens, Bishop of Clogher; Most Rev. Dr. Clancy, Bishop of Elphin; Most Rev. Dr. Foley, Bishop of Kildare and Leighlin; Most Rev. Dr. Kelly, Bishop of Ross.

The celebrant of the Mass was Rev. M. Fogarty, D.D., Professor, Maynooth; the deacon, Rev. E. Fitzgerald, Kerry; the sub-deacon, Rev. D. Maloney; and the master of ceremonies, Rev. M. Owens, Tuam. The music of the Mass was as follows:—Introit, Kyrie, Gloria, Gradual and Communion, in plain chant; offertorium, Halle's "O! Sacrum;" Sanctus, Benedictus, and Agnus (Palestrina), for five male voices, by Rev. H. Bewerunge. Father Bewerunge presided at the organ, and conducted the concerted pieces. The voluntaries at the beginning and end of the service were the opening and final movements in Rheinberger's organ sonata in "D" flat. The music of the Mass was rendered by the College choir, assisted by a number of distinguished priests from various parts of Ireland, but principally from the diocese of Dublin.

After the celebration of High Mass, a public meeting was held in the Auls Maxima, with Cardinal Logue in the chair, and a large number of Bishops supporting him on the platform. After a short inaugural address from his Eminence, who explained the utility of the Union in giving the right turn and direction to the movements of the times, Father Finlay, S.J., read a paper on the Church and the co-operative movement, in which he urged the plan of co-operation as the effective remedy for the evils involved in the conflict between labour and capital. "It does not touch private property, while it realizes what would be the advantages of socialism, if socialism were not an impossibility. It combines the resources of the community for the help of the individual. It abolishes the rivalry between labour and capital by the simple expedient of making the labourers their own capitalists. The distinction between wages and profits disappears, the total value created by the labourer belongs to him in the measure in which his labour and capital have contributed to create it." Such a plan had been carried out in accordance with the advice of the Pope in Luxembourg and Belgium, and he thought the extension of the system to Ireland was not only possible but necessary as a means to retain the control for Irishmen of "the only industry which is still left to Ireland. That is in the balance. For myself, I should regard the loss of our industrial supremacy at home as more fatal to the existence of an Irish nation than the loss of our political supremacy. The nation that lives industrially can retrieve any mere political disaster—the nation that loses its place in the field of industry has no strength left for any struggle. How the issue will ultimately be decided we cannot foresee. We have lost so often that we may But from defeat in this struggle we cannot hope to rise: the nation that cannot maintain, in this age, its industrial independence, is doomed to death." In the discussion that followed, the Bishop of Clonfert expressed serious doubts whether co-operation, valuable as it is, as a means of obtaining higher prices for produce or for goods, no matter of what kind, and for raising the quality of produce, would be helpful in obtaining the produce itself in an agricultural country like Ireland. "The question for Ireland is how to get most produce out of the soil for the benefit of the people of Ireland. Will co-operation do that for us or what will it do in that direction? In my opinion, little or nothing. Will it feed the hungry men along the western coast, or what will they co-operate for? Will it stay the depletion of the population? Will it bring comfort to the homes of our struggling farming population? I do not see that it is likely to do these things." The discussion was continued by Dr. Delaney, S.J., the Bishop of Raphoe, and Canon O'Mahony, of Kilmurry. After luncheon, an important paper was read by the learned Dr. O'Riordan, of Limerick, advocating the establishment of a Catholic Truth Society for Ireland. The gist of this paper lies in the following passages: "We gather that education is made perfect, not in knowledge, but in the formation of character; that the purpose of the Church in her teaching has been to create a Catholic spirit and to preserve it. Now, the Church has been keeping pace with the world in providing for the education of her children up to the requirements of the time. We gather into the schools every one we can. They learn and get an appetite for knowledge. It is the result sought, and a most desirable one. But we must not forget that they carry from school into the world, where good and evil get confused, besides thoughtlessness and inexperience, a lively fancy, an awakened intelligence, a mental activity to keep employed, and a curiosity to satisfy. This curiosity, as it cannot be quenched, must be satisfied somehow; and if they cannot easily find wholesome reading, they will take up whatever they conveniently get. What, as a matter of fact, they do read, and how much, may be estimated from the enormous quantity of literature of a questionably good and of an unquestionably bad character, sent over here from England week by week to supply the demand. I shall do no more than refer to the evil for it was dealt with at considerable length and with great power by Dr. Hickie in a paper read at the Union last year. All classes of youth are exposed to such literature as this. But those who pass through the Intermediate and University course are exposed to a special danger of their own. Their higher training, like all good gifts, carries its own danger; for their awakened intelligences, acting upon a knowledge naturally incomplete and ill-regulated, are sure to play with difficulties which they find scattered here and there in the text-books they have to read, or come across in connection with their studies, and which, for the most part, are at least un-Catholic. And, as I have already observed, once a disposition of thought is formed, and an idea has fixed itself in one's mind, it takes a long and tedious process to get it thoroughly out. It is inevitable that un-Catholic ideas will filter unnoticeably into the minds of youth from readings such as these-Again, it is inevitable that Irish sympathies are unconsciously estranged by the habitual reading of a light literature, in which are pictured scenes, men, manners, ways of thought and action which are foreign to our national feelings. Prevention is, proverbially, better than cure; and the only remedy which seems likely to have any possibility of effecting prevention is to keep a supply of reading, at once suitable and attractive, constantly before the eves of the young. Unless the reading is brought to them they will not look for it. The system of the Catholic Truth Society is, I think, admirably arranged to effect that. Many of the Society's publications would be useful in Ireland, and these might be supplemented by others dealing especially with Irish subjects." The discussion was started by the Bishop of Waterford, who thought that they were strong and numerous enough in Ireland to stand alone and start a Catholic Truth Society of their own. This proposal was welcomed by Dr. M'Donald and Father Russell, S.J. The Very Rev. Dean Lynch, Manchester, said the English Catholic Truth Society had been started by his Eminence Cardinal Vaughan. He (the Dean) was one of the four members of the committee who first started it. He would give them the benefit of the experience he gained in connection with the originating of the English Society. They started it without a single penny in their pocket, and appealed for subscriptions, with the result, that in about six months they obtained two hundred subscribers, who promised to subscribe ten shillings a year each. That enabled them to commence printing penny pamphlets, which had an enormous sale, and they also printed cheap prayer books. He pointed out that in starting the Catholic Truth Society in this country they should begin with penny publications and cheap prayer books, and if they were carried by hawkers from place to place they would disseminate truths of religion, and at the same time bring in an amount of revenue. In reference to what Dr. Riordan had said, he wished to express his opinion that the works must be religious. and must not, except on rare occasions, be of a controversial character. He thought there was a great necessity for cheap prayer books in Ireland. A resolution was carried authorizing the formation of a provisional committee for the establishment of a Truth Society. The remaining papers read included one by the Rev. Peter Yorke, of San Francisco, on "Certain Aspects of Clerical Education," and another by the Rev. Reginald Walsh, O.P., of Maynooth, on "The non-Universality of the Deluge."

The proceedings were brought to a close by the usual dinner.

June 25.—To-day, under circumstances of great solemnity, the Most Rev. Dr. Gaffney was consecrated Bishop of Meath in the Cathedral, Mullingar. His Eminence Cardinal Logue was the consecrating prelate, and the assistant Bishops were the Most Rev. Dr. O'Donnell, Bishop of Raphoe, and the Most Rev. Dr. O'Doherty, Bishop of Derry.

The following Bishops were also present—Most Rev. Dr. Owens, Bishop of Clogher; Most Rev. Dr. Magennis, Bishop of Kilmore; Most Rev. Dr. Foley, Bishop of Kildare and Leighlin; Most Rev. Dr. Donnelly, Bishop of Canea; Most Rev. Dr. Browne, Bishop of Cloyne; Most Rev. Dr. O'Callaghan, Bishop of Cork; Most Dr. O'Dwyer, Bishop of Limerick;

Most Rev. Dr. M'Redmond, Bishop of Killaloe: Most Rev. Dr. M'Cormack. Bishop of Galway; Most Rev. Dr. Lyster, Bishop of Achonry; Most Rev. Dr. Healy, Bishop of Clonfert; Most Rev. Dr. Clancy, Bishop of Elphin; Most Rev. Dr. Conmy, Bishop of Killala. Considerably over 100 priests were present. After the Communion of the Mass the consecration sermon was preached by the Rev. Robert Kane, S.J., from Isaias xl. 11-13. "Born," said the preacher, "in the parish of Mount Nugent, Dr. Gaffney learned in his boyhood, by the lovely shores of Lough Sheelan, that taste for the classic authors which he afterwards taught, as successor to Dr. Nulty, in St. Mary's College at Mullingar. At Maynooth Dr. Gaffney, like his predecessor, Dr. Nulty, obtained a 'solus' on the Dunboyne—that is to say, among the brilliant and the studious he was so far first as to be not only foremost, but in honour quite alone. He began his career at Tullamore. What high place he held even then in the esteem and reverence of people and of priests is shown by the fact, which I state on the authority of a venerable Jesuit Father who at the time was stationed at Tullabeg, that it was even then commonly said: 'Father Gaffney will one day wear the mitre of Meath.' Tullamore was his first and only curacy: Clara was his first and only parish. Another fact, one which makes all praise superfluous, because it is an evidence of the admiration and esteem entertained for Dr. Gaffney's talent and character by the entire priesthood of Ireland. is the fact that the Union of former students of Maynooth unanimously elected him as their first president. A mind of rare intellectual power: a character always kind, never compromising, nobly shaped by noble selfcontrol to noble aim; an appreciation quickened by wide sympathies, balanced by watchful prudence; a generosity genial in courteous hospitality. so as to draw his brother priests within the circle of sacred friendship; an administrative ability which has left in the church of Clara imperishable proofs of what wise management can do for good with little money; these are some few of many statements made by many who have known your Bishop long and loved him well." After the consecration ceremony addresses were presented to Dr. Gaffney from his native parish, Mount Nugent, from Clara, where he has so long ministered, from the clergy of the diocese, and from the various public bodies whose sphere of influence lies within the boundaries of the historic diocese of Meath. His Eminence Cardinal Logue, was also the recipient of several addresses of welcome. Besides the addresses, his lordship has received numerous tokens of esteem from the clergy and people of the diocese.

June 25.—This morning the Most Rev. Dr. Verdon, Lord Bishop of Dunedin, New Zealand, conferred the order of deaconship on eighteen students in the beautiful chapel of All Hallows' College, and ordained fourteen priests for the foreign missions. The sacred ceremonies com menced at seven o'clock, there being a large number of the friends of the young clergymen and other visitors present. His Lordship was assisted by the College dignitaries, Rev. Father Brosnan, C.M., being master of ceremonies. The ordaining Prelate, Most Rev. Dr. Verdon, was, twenty years ago, President of Clonliffe College, and subsequently became Rector of the Irish College, Rome. In the course of time he was transferred to the great ecclesiastical college established by his Eminence Cardinal Moran at Sydney. Soon afterwards he was selected for the flourishing See of Dunedin. In his lordship's diocese, there are a great number of Irishmea who are comfortably circumstanced, and are a credit to the old country in their zeal for the Church and education.

JULY.

July 9.—The Lafin-American Council was closed to-day. Cardinal di Pietro presided at the ceremonies, assisted by Mgr. Tani, Pontifical Master of ceremonies: Don Vincenso Santoro, his Secretary, and Cav. Antonio Mariani, his Gentiluomo. His Eminence was received by the Rector, the Father Minister and the Students of the College. Accompanied by these, and by Cardinal Vivessy Tuto, who had just arrived at the College, the Cardinal Delegate went to the Conciliar Hall where all the Archbishops and Bishops awaited him. His Eminence was then pontifically vested at the throne, beside which the second Cardinal took up his position: in front of the throne, was a faldstool occupied by Mgr. Tovar, Archbishop of Lima, the last President of the Council. The Cardinal sang some ritual prayers, after which one of the officials of the Council called upon the President for the signing of the decrees. The volume containing the decrees was signed at the right side of the altar after the President had given his consent to the proposal, and after the decree formulated for this purpose had been read by Mgr. Montes de Oca, Bishop of San Luis Potosi. The volume was formerly carried to Mgr. Jara, Bishop of Ancud, who was prevented by illness from being present. The signing over, one of the officials called upon the President to close the Council: the President assented in case the placet of the members were obtained: the Secretary mounted a tribune and obtained an answer from each one and reported the result to the President The Pax was then given, and a Te Deum sung. During the singing of this, two inscriptions were uncovered in the Hall. The first bears the names and titles of the fifty-three Archbishops and Bishops who joined in the work of the Council; the second is as follows: Concilium Primum Magnum-Ex Universa America Latina-Omnibus Volentibus Ac Rogantibus Episcopis-Earum Regionum-Annuente Et Auspice-Leone XIII. The concluding formalities Procedamus in Pace and In Nomine Christi were preceded by a collect sung by the President, and the solemn blessing given by the Cardinal-Delegate.

July 15.—The following interesting Report is copied from the Irish Catholic of this date:—

ANNUAL REPORT OF ST. BRIGID'S MISSIONARY SCHOOL,

Under the Care of the Sisters of Mercy, Callan, Co. Kilkenny.

Patron-Most Rev. Dr. Brownrigg, Lord Bishop of Ossory.

work accomplished for the Foreign Missions since the report published last year. Those records go far to prove that this school is capable of a high degree of development—in fact, that the work is only now in its very beginning.

Between 40 and 50 have been on the roll this year, but the number varies from month to month, arrivals and departures are so frequent. In last year's report it was stated that from the opening of the school in 1884, 103 postulants had gone forth to convents. Since then the number has reached 123. This does not include 24 young missionaries who are to sail within the next few weeks for the various scenes of their labours. Nine start for America, five for South Africa, the Australian missioners also number five, while two are bound for Java, two for Holland, and one for France, making a total of 147. A few others will probably follow before the close of '99. Truly a wonderful result to be attained within the short period of fifteen years.

"So far three only have not persevered. All the rest who have been trained within the walls of St. Brigid's are working well and happily in their convent homes, as is abundantly proved by the correspondence which St. Brigid's children keep up with their Alma Mater in Callan, as well as by the almost incessant appeals from their superiors for fresh subjects from the same source.

"Besides reinforcements to the old missions, many postulants have gone to new fields of labour. These new missions are now opening up in great numbers; and, on the other hand, promising candidates are constantly presenting themselves who cannot afford a pension of £22 a year. Unfortunately, the Callan Convent has no funds available for the purpose, so these aspirants have to be regretfully refused. A few of the foreign dioceses, no doubt, bear the cost of training and travelling, but by far the greater number of pupils defray their own expenses."

July 17.—To-day in St. Joseph's Hall, Lisburn, under the presidency of his lordship Most Rev. Dr. Henry, the annual distribution of prizes to the pupils of the Convent of the Sacred Heart of Mary took place. The excellent reputation which the convent enjoys amongst our Northern educational establishments is indicated in the steadily increasing number of pupils who pass through its walls yearly, and in this regard last year's record stands forth prominently. On these pleasant annual functions we have had occasion to refer to the distinctions in musical studies gained by pupils of the convent in the Royal Academy examinations. Through the patient teaching of their gifted instructresses these talented young ladies are imparted accomplishments which serve to brighten the home circles in which they figure in after-life. And more notable in this study of the principles and expression of vocal and instrumental tone-poetry is the prominence given to proficiency in the playing of our national instrument, the harp. Last year Father M'Cashin, the esteemed parish priest of Lisburn, made a promise that to the playing of the harp would be added the singing of Irish music in the melodious Gaelic tongue and in the charming entertainment provided by the pupils yesterday this promise was fulfilled. As on previous similar occasions there was a display of painting and art needlework executed by the dest hands of the young ladies; and these, which have won high recognition from South Kensington, were the admiration of one and all of the visitors. In addition to his lordship, who was loudly applauded on entering the half, escorted by Father M'Cashin and the Rev. Mother, a large number of the clergy and laity were present.

July 29.—The following appears in several of our weekly papers of this date:—

"Dr. O'Leary, the distinguished Dean of St. Patrick's College, Maynooth, has been on a visit to Australia for some time past, and everywhere has been accorded a cordial reception by the Catholic priests and people of Australia. At Ballarat especially, he was the recipient of magnificent hospitality at the hands of the Most Rev. Dr. Moore, who is one of the most commanding personalities Ireland has sent out to Australia. In Ballarat he is certainly the most conspicuous figure. Ballarat was little more than a mining camp when he first set foot there; the Catholic Church had scarcely any existence there. He has been a great Churchman, yet all the while he has been a universal favourite among his fellow-citizens of all denominations. In all his undertakings, Dr. Moore can count on the sympathy and co-operation of both Catholics and Protestants, and it is his boast that he has built up the magnificent institutions throughout his diocese quite as much through the liberality of his Protestant fellow-citizens as of his own Catholic people. His welcome to the distinguished Dean of Maynooth was, therefore, in a sense a public welcome, the city of Ballarat joining with him in paying a mark of honour to Catholic Ireland, and to Maynooth College in particular, in the person of one of its prominent gons.

"The Bishop received his visitor at a grand banquet at the episcopal palace. A large number of the clergy of Ballarat and Melbourne diocess, and all the most eminent laymen of Ballarat city, Catholic and Protestant, were present. His Lordship presided. There were also present—The Mayor of the City of Ballarat; the Mayor of Ballarat Town, James Coghlan, K.S.G., and several members of the Victorian Legislature. Among the clergy were—The Rev. Dr. McManamory, the Rev. Fathers Devane, Rogers, Foley, Barry, Costelloe-Murphy, Carroll, McCanley, O'Kane, and Cain. After dinner, his lordship presented his guest with a purse of one hundred sovereigns, as a token of esteem from the priests of Victoria; and Father Devane, in their name, read an address of welcome.

"Dr. O'Leary, who on rising was greeted with prolonged cheers, replied: My Lord and Brothers in the Ministry,—The people of Australia are famed for their hospitality throughout the world. I was, therefore, prenared to be received with kindness in this country, especially by my many esteemed friends in the sacred ministry; but I could not have entertained the faintest hope that I deserved to receive such a singular token of favour as you honour me with this evening. Your flattering address, and the generous gift that accompanies it, are an honour of which any man in this land may justly feel proud. In so far as the presentation is a personal compliment to myself, I assure you I thoroughly appreciate it. It ought and does, bring joy to any heart to know that for the twenty years during which I have been entrusted with the training of the young Levites of the great College of Maynooth, I have succeeded in enforcing strict ecclesiastical discipline without forfeiting the goodwill of those over whom I have From my long experience I ought to have a fair knowledge of the character of those young men who flock to our ecclesiastical Colleges. I have always entertained a very high idea of their solid worth. But the practical proof you give this evening of your love for that strict system of discipline under which you have been trained to meet the world, convinces me that I must raise my estimate of their character in the future. But your presentation is intended also as a tribute of honour to the great national College of Maynooth, the Alma Mater of many among you. regret that I cannot claim for our College the principal part in the establishment of the Church in Australia. The credit of that must, I think, be conceded to the noble College of All Hallows, which was founded for the express purpose of spreading the Gospel in lands far distant from home. The object of Maynooth College is to preserve the faith among the sons of Erin in the old land. Still, many of the Alumni of Maynooth, animated with the spirit of Apostolic zeal, have, year after year, lest home and friends and come to this land to aid in extending the Kingdom of Christ, and have become bright lights in the Church. The students and superiors of Maynooth College will be delighted at the honour you show her this evening, and still more at the assurance I shall be able to give that the devotion and self-sacrifice of her children reflect credit on her training. have no hesitation in expressing my opinion as to the progress of the Church in Australia.

"Without actual experience I could not have conceived it possible that such progress could have been made in only half a century. On all sides I see churches, colleges, monasteries, convents, homes for the penitent, the infirm and the orphan—institutions not excelled by the fruits of centuries of labour in older lands. I am convinced that religion is established on a solid basis in Australia. I may be permitted to say a word about the material prosperity of the country. Those who have had the management of public affairs in Australia seem to have selected everything good from the systems of government at home, and rejected everything bad. The land is ruled, not for the benefit of a class, but for the general welfare of the people. Hence, as far as I have been able to see, reasonable comfort at least is universal, and the eye is never pained by squalid poverty and destitution. I pray that it may be ever so.

"Mr. G. G. Morton, a large Protestant landowner, proposed the health of the illustrious host. His Lordship, Dr. Moore, Mr. Morton said, has always been noted for his splendid hospitality, a hospitality which knows no distinction of Catholic or Protestant, but is extended to all without restriction, who are deserving of it. I am a Protestant, but I think I can speak with the sanction of all my co-religionists, when I say that among the Protestants of Ballarat there is no name more respected than that of Dr. Moore. I will not call him Roman Catholic Bishop, I will call him our common Bishop, for he rules over us all by the silent, but nevertheless, effective, force of his noble character. We thoroughly appreciate his worth. We admire him, we wish him a hearty success in all his undertakings in furtherance of the interests of his Church. Nay, we will come forward if he needs us, as we did in the past. If he appeals for support we will give it to him freely. We will join with him in attaining any noble end that he desires. As for myself personally, I may say that I respect and love his lordship as one of my dearest friends. I have been often the object of his kindness. When I was sick, and the doctors despaired of my life, it was he who stood by my bedside and offered me consolation. I will say it, it was Dr. Moore, and not my own parson, nor my own Bishop, who came to me in my hour of need. Hence, I respect him more than I respect the Ministers of my own Church, for I feel he is entitled to that respect. May he long reign over us all, Catholics and Protestants. May he long live to exercise that influence, which he has so deservedly acquired in all that concerns the interests of Ballarat.

"Dr. Moore, in replying, said: Rev. Fathers and Gentlemen,-Mr. Morton has put me to shame by the many kind, but I fear extravagant, things he has said about me. There is one thing, however, he has said that I will freely accept, and that is my joining in the spirit of common brotherhood with all good men among my fellow-citizens, whether Catholic or Protestant. I have never made a distinction between them. held out the hand of friendship to them all alike. I have invited them all to sit at my board; and to-night I am proud to say the majority of my guests are distinguished Protestant citizens of Ballarat. It has been so all my life, since I came to Australia, and it will be so, I trust, to the end. Protestants have been, and are, and will be, I hope, among my best and dearest friends. And why should it not be so? Shall we transplant across twelve thousand miles of ocean, to new lands, the narrow bigotry and rancorous sectarian spirit that have been the cause of countless miseries in the lands of our birth, that have caused blood to flow in rivers through the fairest countries in God's earth, and sown incurable dissensions among the noblest people in the world? No, my friends, we are in a new country, and we will work as brothers to make that country grand and noble. will do our utmost to crush out the spirit of dissension. We will, when we can, combine for laudable objects. (Applause.) Hence, my friends, when we can at all meet on common ground I recognize in no way the distinction of Protestant and Catholic. I have always, as I said, acted according to that spirit. When I was in Melbourne, distinguished members of the Legislature sat at my board.

"After the Bishop's response, a very enjoyable time was spent, during which songs were contributed by many of the guests."

AUGUST.

August 26 .- The Irish Catholic of this date says :-

"The Most Rev. Dr. Lyster, the distinguished and revered Bishop of Achenry, has just completed a visitation of his diocese, in which he has been engaged for the past couple of months. To enlist the sympathy and ask the co-operation of his faithful people in his effort to complete the Cathedral, his lordship visited every parish, and the enthusiastic welcome he everywhere received from the crowds who flocked to meet him was a striking evidence of the earnest desire of the people to cordially co-operate with their Bishop in the endeavour to make the Cathedral Church worthy of its position, 'For nearly fifty years,' as his lordship describes in his circular letter to his exiled people in the United States, the Cathedral 'has remained unfinished,' but he had to be content owing to the poverty of his people and to the periodic famines which have sapped their very life-blood. Now, however, as a better condition of things exists, hope is above the horizon, and Dr. Lyster, urged by the desire of his people, and the prospects of a prosperous year, is making the attempt to complete the work which was begun by the Most Rev. Dr. Durcan, late Bishop of the Diocese. That he will receive generous aid, not only from the zealous priests and faithful people over whom he rules, but also from the exiled children of the diocese throughout the world, is already assured, for the beloved Bishop, through his Administrator, Rev. J. O'Connor, is constantly the recipient of messages of sympathy and encouragement from abroad, as well as at home, in the important work in which his lordship is engaged. From our knowledge of the kindly generous Irish people beyond the seas, as well as at home, we are not surprised that they should give this evidence of their love 'for the beauty of God's house, and the place where His glory dwelleth,' for in every age and in every nation where the Irishman has found a home, he has at all times given proof of the Faith that is in him, and helped, as far as his means would allow, to raise up temples to the honour of his Maker, and suitable for the celebration of the Divine Mysteries. To assist their beloved Bishop in providing the necessary funds for the much needed work, two zealous and energetic priests of the diocese. Father Henry, P.P., Attymass, and Father Cawley, C.C., Collooney, have volunteered to visit the United States, where we are confident they will receive a cordial welcome, and find the exiled children of Achonry ready to supply generous assistance towards the completion of the mother Church of their native diocese."

Aug. 28.—The immense statue of Our Lady erected on the Rocciamelone peak of the Cottian Alps was blessed on August 28, by Canon Tonda, after the celebration of Mass, on the space around the pedestal. Near the altar were a representative of the Sub-Prefect of Susa, a representative of the Municipality of the same place, several syndics of the neighbourhood, of Piedmont, and Lombardy, representatives of the Archdiocese of Turin, and of the eighteen Sub-Alpine dioceses, and of various Catholic associations, a group of infants representing the children of Italy, and bearing a banner, and a number of visitors. The sides of the mountain were also covered with people. After the Mass, Professor Ghirardi delivered a short address, speaking of the religious significance of the monument, to which 130,000 Italian children had contributed, and among them the Royal children of Italy, and which augured peace for the coming century. Other addresses followed, one of them being delivered by Canon Pescarmona on the part of the Bishop of Asti. The medals were then blessed, and among the others, one with the busts of the Italian Sovereigns, who had it specially struck for the occasion. The authorities then put their signatures to a document on parchment, which stated that: "In the year of the Lord, 1899, the 22nd of the Pontificate of his Holiness Leo XIII., and the 22nd of the reign of his Majesty Humbert I. of Savoy, Mgr. Edward Joseph Rozas being Bishop of Susa; at five o'clock on the morning of August 28, after the celebration of Mass on the summit, this monument to Our Lady of Rocciamelone, erected by the contributions of about 130,000 Italian infants, was solemnly inaugurated in the presence of the undersigned authorities and deputations. The initiator and promoter of this monument was Professor G. B. Ghirardi, efficiently seconded by the Canon Dom Antonio Tonda, Provost of the Cathedral of St. Justus in Susa, who superintended the works on the summit; the sculptor, Cav. G. A. Stuardi, modelled the statue; the soldiers of the Alpine Battalion, Susa, accomplished its difficult transport. Lustre was given to the work by His Holiness our Lord Pope Leo XIII., who wrote the dedicatory inscription; by her Majesty Queen Margherita of Savoy, who gave her august patronage to the endeavour; by many most eminent Cardinals, Archbishops and Bishops of Italy, with dedications and offerings. Let the people of Valdi Susa affectionately guard the precious deposit of the faith and love of the childhood of Italy, and may Our Lady of Rocciamelone continue and increase her protection of this people most devout to her glories." The signatories were the ecclesiastical and lay authorities, some ladies, and the members of the infant deputation. The parchment, the medals, and the names of the infant contributors were placed in a box in the pedestal, before it had been sealed by the authorities. On the pedestal was fixed a bronze slab bearing the happy prayer of the Pope:

Alma Dei Mater
Nive Candidior
Maria
Lumine Benigno Susiam Respice Tuam
Ausoniae Tuere Fines
Cœlestis Patrona
Leo XIII.

The infant Luigina Chirardi declaimed the verses written for the occasion by Fogazzaro. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was given, and carrier-pigeons were despatched from the mountain peak, and messages announcing the happy completion of the ceremony sent to the Pope, the King, the Queen, the Cardinal-Archbishop of Turin, and General Besozzi, the Commander of the First Army Corps.

SEPTEMBER.

September 2. - The following is from the Irish Weekly of this date :-

"The Catholics of Ulster will be pleased to learn that, after inspection and report by the secretary, the Senate of the Royal University of Ireland, with the approval of his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, have placed the Mater Infirmorum Hospital on the list of teaching institutions, from which certificates will be received for degrees in medicine and surgery."

Sept. 10.—His Lordship the Most Rev. Dr. Henry preached in the Church of St Mary, Cushendall, for the purpose of raising funds to liquidate the debt incurred in the purchase of a site enclosing the gravevard at Red Bay; the erection of parochial houses in Cushendall and Red Bay; the erection of a new school in Glenann; and the renovation and repair of the churches in Cushendall and Red Bay, and the schools in Cushendall, Glenariffe, and Ballyemon. The appeal has been a great success, more than realising the expectations of the zealous and energetic parish priest of Layde and Ardelinis, Very Rev. Patrick Convery, V.F. The series of works, carried out in a very short space of time, entailed the expense of £4,000. This was a large sum—a heavy debt for a country parish—but with his characteristic energy, Father Convery exerted himself to find funds to meet it, and with the whole-hearted support and practical encouragement extended by his Lordship, he has practically wiped the debt off. From Irish Catholics living in countries far removed from their native land as from his own people, and his hosts of friends in this city, and from the priests of Down and Connor, numerous and handsome subscriptions came to his aid. In all, £2,820 has been collected, £260 of which was contributed in the church yesterday. This is gratifying, and reflects additional lustre on the Catholics of Down and Connor, who set such a splendid example in their unselfish support of works of a religious or educational character.

Sept. 14.—The Scottish Pilgrimage to Lourdes started from Edinburgh on Monday, September 4. The pilgrims were accompanied by the Most Rev. Archbishop MacDonald, Bishops Smith, Dunkeld; Chisholm, Aberdeen; Canons MacFarlane, V.G., Glasgow; Donlevy, Morris and O'Neill, Edinburgh; Turner and Phelan, Dundee; and nearly thirty priests and 100 lay ladies and gentlemen from all parts of Scotland. A piper in full dress, formed a striking figure in the different functions at Paris and Lourdes. At Paris, the Shrine of Montmartre was first visited, and here the Archbishop of Edinburgh said Mass, after which hymns and the Rosary were sung and said. The Cathedral of Notre Dame was next the scene of devotions, and here, by special permission, the Crown of Thorns, the nail and piece of the true Cross were exposed and venerated, Canons Donlevy, Morris, and Father Lavelle officiating. Afterwards they visited the churches of Our Lady of Victories, St. Augustine, and the Madeline, and the day ended with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The same evening the pilgrims set out for Lourdes, and to all credit is given for the cheerful manner in which they bore the great fatigue of the twenty hours' journey. The first glimpse of the church of Lourdes, as its bright lights broke through the darkness of night, was hailed with an enthusiastic singing of "Hail, Queen of Heaven." During the five days' stay at Lourdes the pilgrims from Scotland occupied the place of honour in the various processions. On the Feast of the Nativity, the Archbishop carried the Blessed Sacrament in a procession which had a congregation of 50,000. The thrilling hymns, the long line of invalids on couches, the living faith and the stirring sermons, all combined to produce a scene of religious splendour never to be forgotten by those privileged to witness it.

On the last day of the pilgrimage, Pontifical High Mass was sung by the Archbishop, the sanctuary being filled with a crowd of Scottish, Belgian, Irish, American, German and French priests; the Bishops of Aberdeen and Dunkeld occupied prominent places, and his Grace was assisted by the Very Rev. Canon MacFarlane, V.G., Canon Turner, and Father Lavelle. Canon Donlevy conducted the ceremonial, and the pilgrims rendered in excellent style the music of the Mass. At the end of the Mass, the magnificent banner of St. Andrew, with the Royal Arms of Scotland, was laid on the steps before the high altar, and thus Scotland's tribute of devotion to the Mother of Jesus takes its place among the standards of the world, which fulfil the words, "Behold, all nations shall call me Blessed."

At the immense torch-light procession, the Scots again led the procession with their three Bishops in front. The scene baffled all description. The Aves of so many different nations, said by their tens of thousands, as they moved round the beautifully illuminated buildings, rendered it impossible to restrain the tears of joy. Particularly impressive was the moment when Archbishop MacDonald was called upon to bless the immense multitude. His voice rang through the air as the kneeling crowd responded, and then in fervent faith, prayers were said for the conversion of Scotland and the welfare of France. Cries were raised by the Belgians for God's blessing on the brave Scots, and this was most heartily responded to by ringing cheers for France and Belgium. Never will the Scottish pilgrims forget the hospitable reception accorded them. It was the pride of these faithful friends of Scotland to prove that they still remembered that both nations once recognised the same faith, and were the subjects of the beautiful and beloved Sovereign, Mary Queen of Scots.

Headed again by the piper, as he played his lament, the pilgrims bade farewell to Lourdes, each repeating, "If God spares me, I shall visit Lourdes again."

The sermon at the dedication of the banner was delivered by Bishop Chisholm, of Aberdeen, whose text was, "Lord, it is good for us to be here." In an eloquent sermon, his lordship dwelt on the glory and power of our Lord, and in beautiful words pointed out that miracles were in reality but manifestations of the Divinity dwelling in the Humanity of our Redeemer, or in those whom He chose to be the exponents of His Glory. What seemed miracles to us were the natural workings of God, and the rays of His Glory as they burst forth through His Humanity.

Sept. 20.—Cardinal Logue, in the name of the Archbishops and Bishops of Ireland, has addressed the following letter to the President of Maynooth College on the subject of the College chapel: "The Irish Bishops, at the time of the celebration of the College Centenary in the year 1895, in a public letter to their flocks, expressed their earnest wish that the tower and spire of our beautiful College Chapel should be completed as a fitting memorial of that great celebration, and at the same time as an enduring testimony of our thanksgiving to God for all that He has done for the Irish Church during the past one hundred years through the instrumentality of the College of Maynooth. Many generous contributions have since been given for the building of the tower, but still the total amount so contributed is scarcely enough to pay for the first or lowest section of the tower. At the same time the Bishops have duly authorised you to proceed with the work; and in accordance with that resolution, we now rejoice to see that the work is actually in progress. But, if the work is to continue, money must be found to pay the builder. We are fully sensible of the generous spirit of selfsacrifice in which you have undertaken to collect money for this purpose, and we rejoice at the success that has hitherto attended your devoted labours. But we feel it our duty to help your efforts so far as we can at present, and we hereby formally sanction your holding, with the consent of the parish priest. a collection in each parish of our respective dioceses. We earnestly exhort both the clergy and the people to help you by their generous contributions to carry out your noble purpose, and we pray God to bless your efforts and to reward all those who will contribute to complete this national memorial to the glory of God, and the noble work that has been accomplished by the College of Maynooth for the Irish Church and the Irish people during the century now closing.

Sept. 22.—The Most Rev. Dr. Gaffney, Bishop of Meath, has addressed the following letter to the President of Maynooth, enclosing a subscription of £100: "Though I have already sent my subscription and parochial contributions from the parishes with which I have been connected to the Church Fund of Maynooth, the appeal for help made by the Cardinal and you is to me irresistible. I have many special ties with the College, and your venerable person and office are not the least binding. But its advocacy does not require special ties or special pleading. Blot out Maynooth and its work, by an effort of imagination, from the ecclesiastical system of Ireland, and what remains? To us who have been its students, and dwell on memories of the past, what a blank it would leave in our lives. It has given Ireland an abundant supply of faithful, devoted, zealous priests from among her own sons, and if between priests and people the church is left unfinished, or the College unequipped for its great work, it would be a national disgrace. I send you a further subscription, and I hope all the priests and people of the diocese of Meath, who have not already done their part, will come to the rescue and help you to finish this great work, and thus crown your long and useful career."

Sept. 26.—His Eminence Cardinal Logue has protested in a most emphatic manner against the tactics adopted by a certain section of the English Press in accusing the Jesuit priests of France of being responsible for the Dreyfus verdict. A correspondent in London called the attention of His Eminence to the disgraceful charges levelled against the Catholic Church in France by the newspapers of England, and has received the following letter in reply: "Having read very little of the evidence in the Dreyfus case, I do not find myself in a position to give an opinion on its merits without exposing myself to a risk which so many seem to have assumed so lightly of doing injustice to one side or the other. Even were I in a position to form an opinion I would think it useless to give expression to it. It is a hopeless task to attempt to reason with, or impress, madmen, and an amount of madness has developed on this question among English writers and English speakers, which time, and perhaps the cold weather, may alleviate, but which facts or reasoning on facts may only aggravate."

OCTOBER.

October 12.—The Catholic Truth Society of Ireland has been successfully launched. The General Committee met to-day and chose an Executive. Though the Catholic propaganda in Ireland is not so urgent a necessity as in Great Britain, the needs of a Catholic defence have been recognised in Ulster and elsewhere in face of a sustained attack. Furthermore, the foundations of Irish loyalty to the old Church can be strengthened by the story of past sacrifices and past conquests. We are glad to see, too, that the Society aims at influencing the current of general literature. That is an even more urgent necessity in Ireland than a systematized Catholic apologetic. Irish Catholics will wish the Society "God speed!" It will be remembered that at the last meeting of the Maynooth College Union, an admirable paper on the subject was read by the Very Rev. Dr. O'Riordan, of Limerick. Dr. O'Riordan advocated the establishment in Ireland of a Catholic Truth Society on lines similar to the Society which has been doing such excellent work in England. The project, so strongly advocated by Dr. O'Riordan, was taken up enthusiastically by the Union, and it also received the sanction and approval of the Hierarchy. The Society, it may be said, will not confine itself to the production and dissemination of literature on purely religious subjects. It will devote itself to Catholic literature in the widest sense, to all literature breathing the Catholic spirit. Since the last meeting of the Maynooth Union inquiries were made extensively as to the desirability of establishing such a Society, and everywhere the project was warmly welcomed. The proposed organization received special commendation from the Hierarchy, and their lordships were most generous in contributing to the funds necessary for the starting of the Society. At the meeting of the Organizing Committee, the Most Rev. Dr. Sheehan. Bishou of Waterford and Lismore, was called to the chair. Amongst those present were:-The Bishops of Cloyne, Derry, Elphin, Canea, Down and Connor; Colonel Ross, of Bladensburg; the Rev. J. F. Hogan, D.D., Maynooth College; Rev. D. Mannix, D.D., Maynooth College; Mr. Charles Dawson, Sir Francis Cruise, Count Moore, M.P.; the Rev. Matthew Russell, S.J.; Count Plunkett, Mgr. Murphy, P.P., Kildare: the Rev. Dr. O'Riordan, Limerick; Sir Henry Bellingham, and a large number of Several letters of regret at inability to be present and expressions of approval of the new Society were read. On the motion of the Most Rev. Dr. Browne, seconded by the Most Rev. Dr. Donnelly, the Rev. Dr. Mannix, Maynooth College, was appointed honorary secretary at the meeting. The Most Rev. Chairman then delivered a short address explanatory of the objects of the Society, and the meeting then proceeded to deliberate for some time on the adoption of the constitution and rules of the organization, as well as the officers to be appointed. The Most Rev. Dr. Healy, Bishop of Clonfert, was selected as the first president, and the vicepresidents selected were—the Most Rev. Dr. Donnelly, the Right Rev. Mgr. Murphy, P.P., V.G., Kildare; W. R. Molloy, J.P., and Count Moore. A general committee was appointed, to consist of the entire Hierarchy of the country and all present, with power to add to their numbers. Sir Francis Cruise and the Rev. Daniel Downing, Adm., Pro-Cathedral, were appointed honorary treasurers. The appointment of the two secretaries of the Society—one to be a clergyman and the other a layman—was left in the hands of the Executive Committee. An Executive Committee was appointed, to consist of the president, vice-presidents, treasurers and secretaries, as ex-officio members, and of the following:—The Rev. T. A. Finlay, S.J.; the Very Rev. Canon Fricker, P.P.; the Very Rev. Canon Ryan, P.P.; the Very Rev. Canon O'Hanlon, P.P.; the Rev. Dr. Mannix, the Rev. Dr. Hogan, Count Plunkett, Charles Dawson, John Rochford, J. B. Cullen, Judge Carton, the Rev. Dr. Hickey, the Rev. T. M'Cotter, Belfast; the Rev. Father O'Doherty, P.P., Longtower, Derry; Colonel Ross, of Bladensburg; Sir Henry Bellingham, the Rev. P. A. Sheehan, P.P., Doneraile; the Rev. Dr. O'Riordan, Limerick; Lord Emly, Stanley Harrington, J.P., Cork; the Very Rev. Dr. Fahy, P.P., Gort; the Right Rev. Mgr. Kelly, P.P., Athlone; The O'Connor Don, and R. Kelly, Castlebar.

Oct. 15.—Week by week almost we have to record the progress made in Church building up and down the country. On Sunday the Bishop of Meath laid the foundation stone of a new church at Oldcastle. church, as its title indicates, will be a memorial—a noble and enduring memorial-to the martyred Primate, Oliver Plunkett, who was born in the parish of Oldcastle. The cost is estimated at £13,000. The Most Rev. Dr. Clancy, Bishop of Elphin, preached an eloquent sermon, taking his text from the 21st chapter of the Apocalypse: "And I beheld the holy city, the New Jerusalem, coming down from Heaven from God, and I heard a great voice from the throne saying: Behold, the Tabernacle of God with men: and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people, and God Himself with them shall be their God." The collection realized the sum of £500. In the afternoon an address was presented to the Bishop of Meath, who, in the course of his reply, dealt with the land question, denouncing the present system which was depopulating the country. At Burtonport, the Bishop of Raphoe dedicated the church of St. Columba. The ceremony was presided over by Cardinal Logue, and was the occasion of great rejoicing throughout the district. His Eminence preached the sermon.

The Archbishop of Dublin solemnly dedicated the Church of the Assumption at Howth, a building in the Romanesque style of architecture, which has been raised under the rule of Canon Flanagan, P.P., at a cost falling little short of £11,000, over £9,000 of which has been already paid. The sermon was preached by the Rev. T. Finlay, S.J. After the High Mass a public meeting was held, at which the Archbishop, who presided, delivered an address. He paid a high tribute of praise to the energy of Canon Flanagan, and the hearty co-operation of his parishioners, as well as to the generosity of Lord Howth, who had given so splendid a site. His Grace undertook to be responsible for one-half of the debt remaining upon the building, an undertaking which encouraged many others to generous contributions.

Oct. 18.—The third annual meeting of the Castleknock College Union was held under the presidency of the Most Rev. Dr. Donnelly, Bishop of To the lot of his lordship fell the interesting function of opening the proceedings by unveiling a magnificent life-sized portrait of Lord Russell of Kilowen, which has been presented to the College by the members of the Union. The portrait, which is from the brush of Mr. Charles Russell, a talented Dublin artist, is a remarkably striking one, and a true likeness of the eminent Irishman and jurist, the memory of whose early and long connection with this old-established seat of education it is intended to perpetuate. An eloquent address on the subject of Lord Russell of Kilowen was delivered by Mr. M. C. Macinerney, Q.C., in the course of which he alluded to what Lord Russell had done, both by his speeches in Parliament and his contributions to the press, for Catholic education and for the self-government of his native land. In the conclusion of his interesting address, the speaker said that in reviewing the life of Lord Russell of Kilowen they would see his ardent love of creed and country running through the warp and west of his magnificent career like the woollen thread through the golden texture which the witch's daughter is ever weaving in the German fairy tale! After an address from the President of St. Vincent's College, a meeting was held for the transaction of business affairs and the appointment of officers, when Mr. H. A. Gill, M.A., was elected Vice-President of the Union in the room of Dr. Nedley. The proceedings closed with a most enjoyable concert contributed by past and present students and members of St. Vincent's teaching staff.

There will be general regret amongst all students of the Irish Language at the news received in Dublin to-day of the death of Rev. Eugene O'Growney. The sad event, which occurred at Los Angeles, California, was notified by cablegram to the Gaelic League.

Eugene O'Growney was born in 1863 at Ballyfallon, Athboy, County Meath, near the famous hill of Tlachtca, so often mentioned in the early annals. Neither of his parents knew Irish, nor was there any Irish spoken in the district. Indeed, Father O'Growney relates that he did not know there was an Irish Language until he went to St. Finian's Seminary, Navan, in 1879. It was not, however, taught in that college, but as soon as the young student learned there was a national tongue he set about at once to learn it, his first texts being a series of lessons which Young Ireland commenced publishing in January, 1879, the writers being John Flemming, and Rev. John E. Nolan. During the vacations he picked up odd words and phrases from the old people he could find in his district who could speak Irish, but there being no suitable elementary books, and, of course teachers being out of the question, his progress was not very rapid at first.

In the summer of 1882 he entered Maynooth, where he studied for six years, devoting all of his leisure time to Irish subjects. During the latter part of his course in Maynooth he taught Irish privately to several students. He was ordained in 1889, and was sent as curate to the parish of Ballynacargy, near Mullingar. While here Dr. O'Growney became treasurer and co-editor with the late John Flemming of the Gaelic Journal, and henceforth became one of the leading spirits of the Gaelic movement. Here he also commenced publishing modern Irish versions of some old Irish masterpieces, such as Imram Maele Duin and Imram mic Snedgus. The latter, as a penny pamphlet, went through two editions.

In 1891 Father O'Growney became sole editor of the Gaelic Journal, and in the same year he was appointed Professor of Gaelic at Maynooth. Feeling the want of text-books, he wrote and had printed for the students an Irish Grammar, Irish Texts, and the beginning of a hand-book of Irish Composition. In 1893, at the suggestion of the Archbishop of Dublin, he commenced in the Weekly Freeman and Gaelic Journal the now famous Simple Lessons in Irish, which have gone through three large editions in book form, in five parts, and are recognised as the best elementary Irish text-books written. Their sale has been enormous, and they are practically the only books now used by beginners.

Father O'Growney was a vice-president of the Gaelic League since the organization of that body. He was also a member of the Society for the Preservation of the Irish Language and of the Royal Irish Academy, and an associate member of other learned societies.

Oct. 19.—The following appeal has been issued by his Eminence Cardinal Logue:—

THE NATIONAL CATHEDRAL BAZAAR, ARMAGH.

APPEAL TO THE CHILDREN OF ST. PATRICK.

In soliciting aid to complete St. Patrick's Cathedral at Armagh I feel, that, to Irish Catholics, wherever their lot may be cast, the object in view will justify the appeal. The most hallowed associations, the brightest memories, the most cherished traditions of our race centre in this old See of our National Apostle. It is the cradle of Irish faith; in brighter and more prosperous times it was the seat of Irish culture; in dark and evil days it became the scene of Irish heroism. No one. therefore, who is proud to claim Ireland as the land of his birth or origin, and who tenderly cherishes that pearl without price, the faith preserved by the sufferings of his forefathers, can fail to regard Armagh with feelings of affection.

True, for a time, her glories were dimmed; an alien creed usurped her sanctuaries; the chief shrine at which her saints ministered and her children prayed became the spoil of conquerors who detested her faith and spurned St. Patrick himself would seem to have foreseen the eclipse her worship. and foretold the outburst of a new light. We are told, in the Book of Armagh, that when, accompanied by Daire, he went to mark out the site of his first Cathedral he found a roe and a fawn resting on the spot where the altar afterwards stood. Moved by that tenderness for God's dumb creatures which has ever characterised the saints, he stayed the hand which was raised to strike them. "He even took up the fawn himself and carried it on his shoulders, the roe following like a pet sheep, until he laid the fawn down upon another eminence at the north side of Armagh." eminence to the north is now crowned by the magnificent new Cathedral. Whatever may be thought of the story, it is not a prophecy after the event: for the latest transcript of the Book of Armagh was made in the eighth century: neither has the event been made to fit in with the prophecy: for the book was inaccessible and the story unknown to those who selected the present site.

All. I think, will admit that Armagh has a strong claim to such a Cathedral as will bear fit testimony to the faith of the Irish race, reflect their affection for their National Apostle and proclaim their veneration for a spot which is hallowed by such sacred memories. This claim has already received a splendid acknowledgment. Scarcely had Irish Catholics begun to breathe the air, if not of freedom, at least of toleration, in their own land. when they determined to replace the venerable church which had been wrested from them, by another still more splendid and imposing. We have the fruit of their zeal, generosity and self-sacrificing spirit in the noble pile which now stands forth in all its beauty and magnificence on the site marked out for it by St. Patrick. Three Primates wore themselves out in this labour of love. The third, when obliged by the needs of the people to open the church before it was completed, reaped a rich reward of joy and consolation on the opening day. Never, since Erin's Kings assembled their hosts did such crowds rally around a chief as those which, on that day, overflowed the Cathedral Hill and the entire City of Armagh. Ireland's sweetest living singer, Mr. Aubrey de Vere, caught and embalmed the spirit of the scene in glowing verses which will be printed for the first time, in the Bazaar History of Armagh.

Now a fourth Primate, without personal claims, but with implicit confidence in the love of the scattered sons of St. Patrick for faith and fatherland, appeals for the means to crown a work which greater minds have planned and more energetic wills have executed. The appeal has been made in the form of a Bazaar, with the express purpose that even those who are least blessed with this world's goods may be able to co-operate by purchasing and disposing of tickets. Though I am already overwhelmed with gratitude for the princely gifts which have been contributed to our fund, still I think it would be after St. Patrick's own heart, were he still on earth, certainly it is after the heart of his unworthy successor, that this great work in his honour should be promoted more by the modest gifts of the poor than by the lavish donations of the rich. For the success of the work I rely on the faith, zeal and open-handed generosity of the children of St. Patrick, wherever they may be found. There is, too, another augury of success which we Catholics never doubt, however others may scoff at our confidence. I have just had a second intimation from Rome that the Great Pontiff, who is such an ardent lover of the faithful Irish, has specially blessed the work, and all who may co-operate in it. It only remains for me to add my poor blessing to that of the Vicar of Christ, and to pray earnestly that God and His servant Patrick may repay by rich spiritual and temporal blessings all who may co-operate in a work undertaken for the glory of God and the honour of our Natioual Apostle.

MICHAEL CARD. LOGUE.

Armagh, 19th October, 1899.

Oct. 22.—His Eminence Cardinal Logue received a hearty welcome from the people of "old Donegal" on his visit to dedicate yet another church to St. Columba, on Sunday last. Ties of the closest affection unite the Cardinal with his native Tyrconnell. He took advantage of the opportunity again to commend the cause of the old tongue to the people who have not vet lost it. At the termination of the solemn ceremonies in the new church at Burtonport, a number of eloquent and patriotic addresses were presented to Dr. Logue, amongst others an address in Irish on behalf of the Lower Rosses Branch of the Gaelic League. His Eminence, in reply. expressed the great pleasure which it gave him to visit the people of this ancient diocese over which he formerly ruled. The proceedings terminated with a speech from the Most Rev. Dr. O'Donnell, Bishop of Raphoe. who said that it gave him much satisfaction to see that the priests and people were able to show the Cardinal such a noble monument of their piety, earnestness and zeal, and the truly Catholic spirit that flourishes in the Rosses.

Oct. 23.—The Pope received, in the Clementine Hall, at noon to-day about a hundred English pilgrims, who were accompanied by various members of the British colony. Monsignori Stonor and Bannin presented the pilgrims to the Pope, who caused a short speech to be read, to the effect that the Holy See rejoiced at seeing an assemblage of English Catholics. This was the third pilgrimage in the present Pontificate, and there would shortly be a fourth led by the Duke of Norfolk. The speech then referred to the pilgrims from Catholic Ireland, and the continual proofs which reach the Vatican from her sons, and concluded with the blessing. The pilgrims made an offering of Peter's Pence. The Pope appeared in good health.

Oct. 28.—The following is from the Tablet of this date:—

"SISTERS OF NAZARETH IN THE TRANSVAAL.

"The latest news cabled from Johannesburg and Kimberley was, 'All safe here.' The Sisters had the option to remain or return to England. Without fear and without exception, they all preferred to remain at their post. They then received notice to render all assistance possible to the British Soldiers, and to tend the wounded on both sides. Since their residence in South Africa they have been treated with kindness and considerateness by the Boers, who have been generous to the institute. 'Terrible,' wrote the Sisters, 'as it was to be in the midst of the war they preferred to be there than out of it, because of the orphans and old people under their care. In Johannesburg and Kimberley alone they have 700 orphans, as well as many old men and women, all British subjects.' Just before communications were cut off with Kimberley, the Superior telegraphed for the Sisters who were out to return, and they had only just time to catch the last train from outlying districts. They had to wait a day and a night at the station, and when they got a train it was only with standing room. In this way they travelled for two nights and one day. They saw several poor women crushed to death in trying to get to the train. houses of the Sisters at Durban, Port Elizabeth, and Cape Town are crowded with refugees."

NOVEMBER.

November 12.—The veneration with which the Catholic clergy of Ireland have been held by their flocks from the time when our National Saint first planted the seeds of the Faith in the island has often been a matter of comment among those of opposite religious opinions. To such an extent has the love of our ministers been ingrained in the Irish people from generation to generation, that a bond of friendship, inseparable in its intensity, has ever existed between them. In the past, when the clouds of tyranny and religious oppression hung like a pall over the Church in Ireland, and when it was treason for a Catholic to make open profession of his faith, the clergy were active amongst their flock, and risked their very lives in endeavouring under untoward difficulties to minister to the people. The principles then inculcated have not been lost, and to-day, as in the past, the good priests and people are ready to suffer like their ancestors in the cause of Holy Faith. and no matter what their vilifiers may attempt, the relations between priests and people are at present as strong as ever, and the chain of love and friendship which exists between them appears to be only becoming more firmly welded together. The truth of this assertion has been borne out on innumerable occasions, and the parish of Banbridge has afforded the latest instance. Over 41 years ago the Very Rev. J. O'Brien, P.P., V.F., came to the parish to preside over its spiritual welfare. Previously he had been ten years in Newry, where he was C.C. and chaplain to the Convent of the Poor Clares. Since his advent in the parish of Banbridge the Rev. gentleman has laboured with zeal and perseverance in the cause of the people. and he never failed to work for their spiritual wants and to urge their temporal welfare. His labours have carried their reward in the advancement of Catholicity in the parish, and the improved status of his parishioners, who have always evinced an esteem and regard for their beloved pastor which it would have been difficult to excel. The venerable priest celebrated his sacerdotal golden jubilee last year, and the parishioners at the time approached him with a view to his acceptance of a testimonial as a token of the high place he held in their estimation. Father O'Brien, however, would not then give his consent to have the testimonial promoted, but, after a delay of some months, the generosity and good will of the parishioners took another shape, and they decided to commemorate Father O'Brien's jubilee by presenting a beautiful organ to the church.

On a brass plate in front of the organ is inscribed—"Erected as a memorial of the golden sacerdotal jubilee of Very Rev. John O'Brien, P.P., V.F., by the present and former parishioners of the Banbridge parish, 1898."

The organ was formally opened on Sunday. There was a very large attendance of the faithful of Banbridge and Newry and surrounding district. The admission to the church was by ticket, no collection being made.

At 11.30 a.m. Missa Cantata was celebrated. The celebrant of the Mass was Rev. Edward M'Givern, C.C., Newry.

After the first Gospel,

The Rev. Father O'Neill preached an eloquent and extremely touching sermon.

Nov. 19.—The Archbishop of Dublin paid a visit to Our Lady's Hospice, Harold's Cross, to the Sodality of the Children of Mary, of which he is president, attached to the Hospice. The Sodality is one of the largest of the kind in the country, and it is conducted by the Sisters of Charity, who have charge of the Hospice, the Rev. Father Kinsella acting as Chaplain. His Grace, who was accompanied by the President of Maynooth, addressing the members of the Sodality, said: "I always regard it as a duty to come here at the close of your annual retreat. On that day, as it comes round in the course of the year, the Sodality, with unswerving fidelity to the noblest of the good works with which it has charged itself, sends forth, year after year, a band of zealous missionaries, aspirants to the religious life in distant fields of missionary labour, in many of which, as they have the happiness of knowing, former companions of theirs in this Sodality, now devoted members of religious communities, have already become the instruments of grace in bringing many souls to God. The Sodality then also renews its life and vigour through the solemn ceremonial of the admission to its ranks of those who are deemed worthy of being selected out of the many who seek the privilege, so highly prized, of being admitted to this Sodality. That ceremonial of receiving the new members into the Sodality, is one which I feel called upon to perform myself whenever it is possible for me to do so. To-day, as you know, my visit to you is not for any of the purposes for which I usually come here. When I was last here, a couple of months ago. you made my visit the occasion of one of those acts of pious self-sacrificing generosity, which I cannot but think are in great measure the secret of the success which, through the blessing of God, so manifestly attends every good work to which the Sodality puts its hand. You took the opportunity of making an offering, a truly generous offering, to a work in which you rightly assumed that I was deeply interested—the building of the tower and spire which, when completed, will amply remove from us the reproach of leaving so long unfinished the beautiful Chapel of our National Ecclesiastical College of Maynooth. It is a work the success of which the Bishops, as, well as the clergy and laity, of Ireland have very deeply at heart. My interest in it is naturally more than a common one. It seemed to me that so generous a gift was worthy of some better acknowledgment than a mere passing word of thanks. Rightly or wrongly, I judged that I could more fittingly show you how fully I appreciated what you had done by coming here some Sunday, as I have now come, especially for the purpose of thanking you. I consider, too, that the venerated President of the College would gladly avail himself of such a special occasion as this to express to you the feelings with which he received your splendid gift. That gift of £20, as I told him when I had the pleasure of handing it to him at Mavnooth, should be worth many times £20 to him in the arduous work in which he has so zealously engaged himself."

Nov. 20.—The following address from the Most Rev. Dr. Healy, Lord Bishop of Clonfert, and President of the Catholic Truth Society for Ireland, has been issued:—

"DEAR FRIENDS IN CHRIST,—At a meeting of the Maynooth Union in last June, the need of a Catholic Truth Society for this country, and the great advantages likely to result from its establishment, were clearly set forth in a paper read by the Rev. Dr. O'Riordan, of Limerick. On the suggestion of his Eminence Cardinal Logue, steps were at once taken to prepare the way for the establishment of the Society. The Bishops of Ireland gave their approbation and blessing to the project, and at their last meeting in Maynooth gave practical proof of their sympathy by a liberal contribution to the funds of the young Society, as well as by undertaking to nominate a diocesan secretary in every diocese to aid in carrying out its programme. At a meeting in Dublin on the 12th October, the Society was formally constituted and its staff organised.

"The main object of the Society is, as its name implies, the diffusion by means of cheap publications of sound Catholic literature in popular form, so as to give instruction and edification in a manner most likely to interest and attract the general reader. It is well known that various printing presses in Great Britain daily pour out a flood of infidel and immoral publications, some of which overflows to this country. We have a confident hope that the Society's publications will remove the temptation of having recourse to such filthy garbage, will create a taste for a pure and wholesome literature, and will also serve as an antidote against the poison of dangerous or immoral writings.

"The Catholic Truth Society of England has, for several years past, been doing excellent work of this character, not only in Great Britain, but in this country also—a fact which we gratefully recognise. We intend to co-operate cordially with its members, who have already given us valuable guidance and assistance. But in literature as in other things every people has its own national needs and tastes, for which native sources alone can make adequate provision.

"In undertaking to carry on the work of this Catholic Truth Society of Ireland, the Managing Committee most earnestly solicit the cordial cooperation of all their tellow-countrymen, but particularly of the clergy and of the influential Catholic laymen, without whose assistance we could never hope to make this project a permanent success. First of all, money is necessary to give the Society a fair start, and provide some working capital. The initial expenses will be considerable, and for some time the returns will be small. Hence the committee invite subscriptions from all the clergy and laity who take an interest in carrying out this great work for the glory of God and for the general diffusion of Catholic truth, the most effectual barrier against the rising tide of immoral and infidel literature.

"The annual subscription for membership of the Society has been fixed at the small sum of five shillings, which entitles the member to receive the Society's publications on specially favourable terms. A subscription of five pounds entitles the donor to life membership, with the same privileges in regard to the Society's publications. But for the initial fund special donations are necessary, and we most earnestly appeal both to the clergy and to the laity for a sum of money that will enable us not only to start the good work, put also to invest some small capital for future contingencies. For this purpose a number of life subscriptions at the present time would be most desirable. The members may rest satisfied that everything will be done with the utmost regard to economy; and at the same time we shall seek to issue our publications at the smallest possible cost, so that they may find their way into the homes of the poorest people.

"A number of well-known writers have already promised their cooperation, with whose assistance we hope to be able, in a very short time, to issue booklets that will be at once interesting and instructive, truly National and truly Catholic.

"Subscriptions and donations may be sent to the honorary secretaries, Catholic Truth Society of Ireland, 2 Lower Abbey Street, Dublin.

"(Signed), Урони, Bishop of Clonfert, President. "November, 1899."

Nov. 24.—NEW TRAINING COLLEGE IN BELFAST.—The Bishop of Down and Connor laid the memorial stone of St. Mary's Training College for Female Teachers at Belfast. The building is rapidly approaching completion. In the course of an address his lordship said: "We postponed the ceremony until we should be in a position to announce when it would be opened for the admission of students. As you may perceive, the buildings are far advanced towards completion, being roofed and partially plastered; we, therefore, see our way to have the College opened in the second week of September, 1900. We are empowered by the National Board to admit eighty Queen's scholars into the institution for one or two years, according to circumstances. They receive during their period of training free board and education. The College will be under the care of the Dominican nuns here. The Mother Prioress has arranged to place at our disposal three Sisters-a principal, vice-principal, and bursar. Their duties will be chiefly to give religious instruction and to look after the discipline and finances of the College. In the preparation of the students for examination they will be assisted by highly qualified lay professors, male and female The necessity for a training college in the North of Ireland, at least for female teachers, is apparent from the fact that not more than 25 per cent. of female teachers in this diocese are trained. The same is true. I understand, throughout the province of Ulster. The time, I believe, is not far distant when the Commissioners of National Education will refuse to sanction the appointment of untrained teachers, at least as principals of schools. In future appointments we at least will give preference to trained teachers."

Nov. 25.—The Tablet writes as follows:—

[&]quot;There has been newspaper talk from time to time of a correspondence between Mr. Kruger and the Queen. If that exists, then there are two women in England who have been in communication with the President of the South African Republic. The other is the Rev. Mother-General of the Sisters of Nazareth. That religious lady has communities under her rule, not within the Three Kingdoms or Queendoms, only, but in another hemisphere even; and her heart went out to Johannesburg and to Kimberley, where are convents of her Order, as soon as hostilities began. From Nazareth House, Hammersmith, she sent to Pretoria the appeal for President Kruger's protection of the Sisters; and this in a letter which, it seems, went home to his heart. He took steps at once to assure the Sisters of their safety—these Sisters of whom we have already read that they stayed at their posts when the Salvation Army women fled. Moreover, President Kruger instructed the Secretary of State, Dr. Reitz, to write a etter of reassurance to the Mother-General. Nor was he a man of words merely. Every Boer man is wanted for the Boer war. But a party of men was specially told off for the protection of Nazareth House, Johannesburg, from—'Outlanders.' Not all Outlanders are millionaires; not all are able to be of the company, described lately in a daily paper as filling the expensive hotels in Cape Town, and mingling maudlin tears with their champagne. Some fallen angels of Outlanders, it seems, there are, who stayed in Johannesburg because they had no money to carry them thence, and also, perhaps, because under the circumstances of a town emptied of its fighting folk, something might turn up for the advantage of a class of ne'er-do-wells that needed daily and nightly control. Against all such possible intruders strict watch is kept by these guardian Boers, of whom the English and Irish Sisters they defend speak in tones of kindness that may, through this paragraph, find echoes here that will not be drowned by the clamour of the streets.

Nov. 26.—Speaking at a meeting of the friends and supporters of the Sacred Heart Home at Drumcondra to-day, his Grace the Most Rev. Dr. Walsh, Archbishop of Dublin, referred at length to the special work of that institution in the receiving of little Catholic children and the combating of that hateful traffic in souls which it was specially established to oppose. He feared we should be over-sanguine if we expected that this disgraceful trade will ever come to an end, either for want of sellers or for want of buyers in the time of any of us here. Let us hope that it would come to an end. If, through any influence, those who have the lead in collecting funds for it and carrying it on could be made to realise how grievously they are setting at naught the maxims of the Gospels, those, especially, that proclaim words that may one day confront them in letters of fire—the awful sinfulness of the work in which they are engaged. For what is that work? What else is it but the work, not merely sinful, but shocking to contemplate in its sinfulness, the work of tempting poor degraded women to the committing of what, as those very tempters of theirs must know as well as we do. even the most degraded and most callous of those who yield to that temptation, must, at least in moments of sober reflection, recognise to be for them a deadly sin. After vigorously denouncing this "devil's work." his Grace asked was there no one of authority in the Protestant Church in Dublin or in Ireland who could point out to the proselytisers the discredit they were bringing upon the Protestant name in the eyes of their fellowcitizens; but, altogether apart from this question of discredit, which after all affects only the human aspect of the case, was there no one to teach them with a voice which they will listen to that the traffic which they are carrying on under the name of philanthropy stands hopelessly condemned by those two moral truths which he had already stated, truths both of them unquestionable—first, that it is grievously sinful in a mother to hand over her child to be brought up in another creed which her faith teaches her to be untrue, or to cut off her child from those practices of religion and those religious rites and observances which that faith also teaches her are the means appointed by God for that child's salvation; and secondly, that this act of an unhappy mother, being a sin of the deepest dye, those who tempt her to it thereby become partakers in that deadly sin and in the punishment that awaits it?

To-day the old historic city of the Confederation witnessed an interesting religious ceremonial when the recently-erected Church of St. Patrick was solemnly opened and dedicated, in the presence of a large congregation, the officiating prelate being the Most Rev. Dr. Brownrigg, Bishop of Ossory. The parish of St. Patrick's is one of the oldest in Kilkenny, the late parish church dating back to the year 1781. The new church, which lends an additional beauty to the city, is one of the last undertaken by the late distinguished architect, Mr. William Hague of Dublin, and had almost approached completion about the date of his lamented death, some time back. The new church, which has been built from designs in the Gothic style, is one of strikingly beautiful proportions.

The ceremony commenced at 12 o'clock, and his lordship, the Bishop of Ossory, was assisted by the following clergymen—Rev. W. Cassin, Adm., St. Mary's; Rev. M. White, St. John's; Rev. M. Holohan, Professor St. Kieran's College, Kilkenny; Rev. T. Bowe, Diocesan Inspector; Very Rev. Dean Kelly, P.P., V.F., St. Canice's; Rev. M. Canon Howley, P.P., Callan, etc., etc.

The dedication ceremony having been concluded, High Mass coram Pontifice was celebrated. The celebrant was Rev. W. Cassin, Adm., St. Mary's; Rev. M. White, St. John's, deacon; Rev. M. Holohan, St. Kieran's, sub-deacon.

The Very Rev. Robert Kane, S.J., ascended the pulpit, and delivered a very eloquent and impressive sermon.

Nov. 26.—The annual Cecilian Festival of strictly ecclesiastical and liturgical music was celebrated during the twelve o'clock High Mass in St. Saviour's Church, Dominick-street, under the most gratifying circumstances. The recurrence of the event has now come to be looked forward to with the greatest interest in Dublin, not only by professional musicians and lovers of music, but by the great bulk of the people, many of whom, unfortunately, can lay little claim to anything in the nature of a technical acquaintance with the art. The choir was the prize boys' choir of the Christian Brothers' Schools, St. Mary's Place, assisted by a few extra tenor and bass voices. The music of the Mass was Palestrina's celebrated "Missa Papae Marcelli"

(soprano, alto, two tenors, two basses), except the "Agnus Dei," which was from the Mass "Ascendo ad Patrem" (soprano, alto, two tenors, bass)-both by Palestrina. During the Offertory the boys sang Vittoria's beautiful motet for two soprani, two alti, "Duo Seraphim Clamabant." At the benediction subsequently, the "O Sacrum Convivium" sung, was by Via Dana, and the "Tantum Ergo" by Vittoria. Of all Church music there is undoubtedly none so popular as that of Palestrina and the Sixteenth Century School, and evidence of that fact was afforded by the immense congregation which assembled in St. Saviour's vesterday. The sacred building was perfectly packed in every part, all the passages even being quite thronged. The "Missa Papae Marcelli" had been heard here, of course, on several previous occasions, but never to such splendid advantage. The performance of the distinguished choir, consisting of fifty-eight voices. the talented organist of the Church, Mr. Vincent O'Brien, conducting, was by far the finest they had ever achieved before. That was the general verdict. It certainly attained to an exceptionally high level of excellence. There was no organ or instrumental accompaniment whatever, and a good thing, too. The voices formed their own harmony, and the employment of an instrumental accompaniment would only have resulted in completely spoiling the magnificent effect. The vocal combination was so massive. rich, and varied that it might, perhaps, be described as an orchestra of voices. As it was rendered yesterday, at all events, it is no wonder that this grand, inspiring music should be so immensely popular.

The celebrant of the High Mass was Rev. Father Moore, O.P.: deacon. Rev. Father Powell, O.P.; and sub-deacon, Rev. Father Glendon, O.P. The Most Rev. Dr. Flood, O.P., Bishop of Trinidad, presided. Amongst those in the sanctuary, in addition to the members of the community, were: -The Very Rev. Archdeacon Brady, P.P., and the Very Rev. Canon Fricker, P.P. The Most Rev. Dr. Donnelly, Bishop of Canea; Rev. H. Bewerunge, Professor, Maynooth College, and the Very Rev. J. Botrel. Provincial, C.S.Sp., were present in the choir, as was also Mr. Edward Martyn, who takes such a lively practical interest in this musical movement. as well as in other movements connected with the development of art in this country; and in the overflowing congregation were to be found many ardent lovers of music, both clerical and lay. The handsome altar and sanctuary, it should be mentioned, were most tastefully decorated with flowers and palms, and when the numerous wax lights, which were very artistically arranged, were ignited, the general effect was extremely impressive. At the conclusion of the High Mass, the Most Rev. Dr. Flood gave Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. When the entire function had terminated, and the people were dispersing, Mr. Vincent O'Brien played an appropriate voluntary on the organ, consisting of Bach's "B" minor prelude.

When will the twentieth century begin? Why there should be different answers to this question is a little puzzling to know. fundamental facts disposed of ought easily to settle the controversy. Of course the first century began with the year 1, and closed with the year 100. The second century, then, began with the year 101, and closed with the year 200. Now following this method to the present time, there can be but one answer to the above question. The nineteenth century closes with the year 1900, and the year 1900 closes December 31. Immediately after midnight, therefore, of December 31, 1900, is when the twentieth century begins. In other words, it begins with the first second of the first hour of the first day of January, 1901.

Just at the very nick of time when the twentieth century begins at the international date line, the nineteenth will still be enveloping, as it were, the entire globe; but twelve hours afterward, it will be the twentieth century on half the earth and the nineteenth on the other half; twelve hours later the nineteenth will have entirely passed, and the twentieth will have made its first circuit round this ball on which Thus it takes a century a full day's time to get complete possession of affairs, and from the time of its very beginning to the point where its last trace disappears occupies just 100 years and one day. This is evident from the fact that after a new century has begun on the earth it still takes the preceding century full twenty-four hours to give way entirely to the new. The twentieth century will open on Tuesday and close on Sunday. 1t will have the greatest number of leap years possible for a centurytwenty-four. The year 1904 will be the first one; then every fourth year after that to, and including, the year 2000. February will three times have five Sundays—in 1920, 1948, and 1979. In 1901, Decoration Day, Fourth of July, and Thanksgiving Day will occur the same day in the week. Then, after that, the same thing will happen at the following intervals: 6, 11, 11, 6, 11, 11, and so on, years; or in 1907, 1918, 1929. 1935, and so on. In the years 1912, 1940, 1969, and 1996 there are four holidays that will fall on the same day in the week-the three already mentioned, and Washington's Birthday Anniversary, as also February 29. Thanksgiving Day and Christmas Day will occur on the same day in the week in 1906, and then at successive intervals of 11, 6, 11, 11, 6, 11 years, and so on; also in 1928, 1956, and 1984. March 4 will fall on Sunday in the inaugural years 1917, 1945, and 1973.

The same yearly calendar that was used in 1895 can be used again in 1901, after which at successive intervals of 6, 11, 11 years throughout the century; that for 1890 again in 1902, and at intervals of 11, 6, 11 years; 1891, again in 1903, and at intervals of 11, 11, 6 years; 1892, in 1904, and at intervals of 28 years; 1899, in 1905, and at intervals of 6, 11, 11 years; 1894, in 1906, and at intervals of 11, 6, 11 years; 1896, in 1908, and every 28th year thereafter; 1897, in 1909, and at intervals of 6, 11, 11 years; 1898, in 1910, and at intervals of 11, 6, 11 years; 1872, in 1912, and every 28th year thereafter; 1876, in 1916; 1880, in 1920; 1884, in 1924; 1888, in 1928; in the last four cases, also at intervals of 28 years.

The following are, in order, beginning with 1901, the dates of Easter for the first twenty-five years of the century: April 7, March 30, April 12, 3, 23, 15, March 31, April 19, 11, March 27, April 16, 7, March 23, April 12, 4, 23, 8, March 31, April 20, 4, March 27, April 16, 1, 20, 12. The earliest possible date on which Easter can occur is March 22. The last time it occurred on this date was in 1818, but it will not occur again till after the twentieth century. The latest Easter can occur is April 25, and it will thus occur but once in the coming century. in 1943. Whenever Easter occurs on March 27, or April 3, 10, 17, or 24, Christmas also occurs on Sunday. Though one of the objects aimed at by the Church authorities who fixed upon the method of determining the date of Easter was to prevent its occurrence on the same day as the Jewish Passover, nevertheless the two events will occur together four times in the twentieth century, April 22, 1903, April 1, 1923, April 17, 1927, and April 19, 1981.

The twentieth century will contain 36,525 days, which lacks but one day of being exactly 5,218 weeks. The middle day of the century will be January 1, 1951. The day of the week that will not occur so often as each of the others is Monday. Fifteen out of the hundred years will begin on Wednesday and the same number on Friday. Fourteen will begin on each of the other days in the week begin on each of the other days in the week. . . .

As to eclipses in the coming century, there will be about 380 of them, the number of solar being to the number of lunar in about the ratio of 4 to 3. What is of very rare occurrence in a calendar year will happen in 1935, the first time since 1823—viz., seven eclipses, the largest possible number that can happen in a year. There are eight total solar eclipses predicted to occur, visible in the United States, in 1918, 1923, 1925, 1945, 1954, 1979, 1984, 1994. There will also occur twelve transits of Mercury on the following dates:—November 12, 1907; November 6, 1914; May 7, 1924; November 8, 1927; May 10, 1937; November 12, 1940; November 13, 1953; November 6, 1960; May 9, 1970; November 9, 1973; November 12, 1986; November 14, 1999. The first, second, ninth, and tenth will be wholly visible in the United States; the seventh and eighth only partially so. A transit of Venus, however, which is of much more consequence, will not occur within the next century. The earliest date predicted is June 8, 2004.—B. J. Yanney, in the Scientific American.

RECORD OF DOCUMENTS.

UNIVERSAL JUBILEE OF THE HOLY YEAR.

BULL OF PROMULGATION.

THE following is the full translation of the Papal Bull:— LEO, BISHOP, SERVANT OF THE SERVANTS OF GOD.

To all the Faithful of Christ who shall Read these Letters Health and Apostolic Benediction.

As the present century almost the full length of which has been, by God's goodness, covered by Our own life, is now hastening to its close, We have gladly determined, in accordance with the custom of Our predecessors, to pass a decree which may be a source of salvation to Christian people, and may, as it were, mark the last step of the solicitade with which We have exercised the supreme Pontificate. We refer to the Great Jubilee, long ago made a part of Christian custom, and sanctioned by the forethought of Our predecessors. Handed down to us from our fathers it has come to be called the Holy Year, on account of the extraordinary sacred Ceremonies with which it is accustomed to be celebrated, but especially because it affords more abundant help for the correction of morals and for that renewal of mind and heart which leads We Ourselves were witness in Our youth how helpful to salvation was the last jubilee, decreed in solemn form during the Pontificate of Leo XII. at a time when Rome was the greatest and safest theatre for a public act of religion. We remember, and We ever yet seem to see in Our mind's eye the crowds of pilgrims, the multitudes who, in processional order, went from church to church—the holiest in Christendom, the apostolic men who preached in the public streets, the most sacred places in the city resounding with the praises of God, and the Pontiff with his College of Cardinals setting an example of piety and charity before the eyes of all. From the memory of those times the mind is recalled with some bitterness to the sad reality of the present day. For demonstrations of which We speak, and which, when carried out without hindrance, in the full light of the city, are accustomed wonderfully to foster and arouse the piety of the people, there is now, in the changed state of Rome, either no opportunity of organising, or the permission depends on a will other than Our own.

THE NEED FOR PRAYER.

Nevertheless, We trust that God, who helps all good designs, will vouchsafe a prosperous and inoffensive course to this Our design, which We have undertaken for His honour and glory. For whither do We look, and what is it we desire? This thing only, that We may by Our efforts put as many men as may be in possession of the glory everlasting, and that we may to this end apply to the diseases that afflictthe souls of men those remedies which Jesus Christ has wished should be in Our hands to dispense. Not only does Our apostolic charge call for this action from Us, but the very circumstances of our time seem also to demand it. Not that our age is sterile in good works and Christian glory; on the contrary, by God's help, splendid examples abound, nor is there any kind of virtue, however high or arduous it may be, in which we do not see many souls excelling, for the Christian religion has a certain divinely implanted force, inexhaustible and ever active. which arouses and fosters goodness. But, looking around, a man turns to the other side, and oh! the darkness, the error, and the mighty multitude of those rushing to endless ruin! We are especially troubled with sadness as often as We think of the great number of Christian people, who, captivated by a false licence in thought and judgment, and eagerly draining the poison of false doctrine, daily squander the great gift of divine faith. It is from this that comes the distaste for the Christian life and the wide-spread lapse of morality; hence, too, that eager and insatiable appetite for the things which strike the senses, and all the thoughts and pre-occupations which, turned from God, are fixed on the things of earth alone. It can scarcely be estimated what ruin has already issued from this dark source, and invaded the principles upon Which States are founded. For the spirit of revolt so widely spread. the stormy outbursts of popular discontent, the perils that no one can foresee, and the crimes of tragic horror are discerned by those who look into their causes, to be nothing else than a sort of lawless and unbridled endeavour to gain and enjoy the things of this world.

It is therefore a matter of private and public benefit to admonish men of their duty, to rouse their hearts, sunk in lethargy, and to recall to the thought of their salvation all those who, hour by hour, rashly run the risk of perishing and of losing, through carelessness or pride, the heavenly and unchangeable happiness for which alone we were born. This is the great object of the devotion of the Holy Year. During its months our Holy Mother the Church, mindful alone of mercy and forgiveness, strives with all her zeal and strength to turn the minds of men to better things, and that penitence, the great source of amendment of life, may wash out the faults which each one has committed. With this object in view, multiplying her prayers and increasing her devotion, she endeavours to appease the outraged divinity of God, and to call down from heaven an abundance of divine blessings. Throwing wide open the treasures of grace, the dispensing of which has been entrusted to her, she calls all Christian people to the hope of pardon, in order that she may vanquish the most unwilling by her abounding and indulgent love. And so, please God, from all this what rich and timely blessings may we not expect!

THE SOLEMN HOMAGE.

The opportuneness of the matter is increased by certain extraordinary ceremonies, news of which has already, We think, spread abroad, for the consecration in some sort of the end of the nineteenth century and the beginning of the twentieth. We refer to the solemn homage which is to be paid all the world over on the confines of two centuries to Jesus Christ, our Saviour. Willingly have We praised and approved of the designs formed in this regard by the piety of private persons, for what could be more holy or more salutary? All that the human race can desire, love, hope for, and seek, all is in the only-begotten Son of God, for He is our Salvation, our Life, and our Resurrection. To wish to leave Him is to will our utter perishing for ever. Wherefore, though the voice of adoration, praise, honour, and thanksgiving which are due to our Lord Jesus Christ is never silent, but is ever heard in every place—nevertheless no thanks, no honour can be so great that more and greater are not due to Him. Besides, are the men of unmindful and thankless hearts who are accustomed to repay their Saviour's love with contempt, and His benefits with injuries, few in number at the present time? At any rate the lives of very many passed in opposition to His laws and precepts are evidences of a wicked and ungrateful disposition. And what are we to say of our age having seen the renewal more than once of the awful heresy of Arius concerning the divinity of Jesus? Well, therefore, have you done who by this new and splendid design have given to the piety of the people an incentive which ought to be carried out in such a way that nothing may befall or hinder the course of the Jubilee and its appointed solemnities. This forthcoming manifestation on the part of Catholics of their faith and piety will also have the further object of expressing their detestation of the impieties which have been uttered or perpetrated during our time, and of making reparation for the insults offered to the sacred divinity of Jesus Christ.

especially those committed in public. And now, if we are really in earnest, the form of satisfaction most to be desired, and at the same the most real and manifest and the most plainly marked as genuine, is true repentance for sin; and then, having implored peace and pardon of God, to fulfil with great zeal the duties necessary to virtue, or to resume those that have been neglected. As since the Holy Year offers such favourable opportunities for this object as We pointed out at the outset, it is equally clear that it is desirable and even necessary that all Christian people should gird themselves for the task full of hope and courage.

Wherefore, with eyes raised to heaven and with heartfelt prayers to God who is rich in mercy that He would graciously vouchsafe to hear our petitions and favour our enterprise to enlighten men's minds by His power, and to move their hearts in accordance with His goodness; following in the footsteps of the Roman Pontiffs, Our predecessors, and with the assent of Our venerable brethren, the Cardinals of the Holy Roman Church, by this letter, in virtue of the authority of Almighty God, of the Blessed Apostles Peter and Paul, and Our own, We order and promulgate, and will that it should be regarded as ordered and promulgated, a great and Universal Jubilee in this holy City, beginning from the first Vespers on Christmas Day in the year 1899, and ending with the first Vespers on Christmas Day in the year 1900, in the hope that it may happily work for the glory of God, the salvation of souls, and the increase of the Church.

THE CONDITIONS FOR GAINING THE JUBILEE.

During this year of Jubilee We grant and concede mercifully in the Lord a plenary indulgence, remission, and pardon for sin, to all the faithful of either sex who, truly penitent and having confessed and communicated, shall piously visit the basilicas of the Blessed Peter and Paul, also of St. John Lateran and Saint Mary Major, at least once a day for twenty days, consecutively or at intervals, according to natural or ecclesiastical computation—i.e., reckoning from the first Vespers of one day till night-fall on the following day. These are the conditions for those who are living in Rome, whether they are citizens or visitors. But those who come from a distance shall devoutly visit the same basilicas on at least ten days reckoned as indicated above, and shall there pour forth their pious prayers to God for the exaltation of the Church, the extirpation of heresies, concord among Catholic princes, and the salvation of Christian people.

Since, however, it may happen that some, in spite of the best of intentions, may be unable either to fulfil the conditions above laid down, in whole or in part, being prevented by sickness or other legitimate cause whilst in the city or on the way hither, We, in consideration of their good will, as far as We may in the Lord grant that, provided they be truly contrite, purified by confession and strengthened by the Holy Communion, they shall share in the above-mentioned indulgence and pardon as if they had actually visited the basilicas indicated on the days appointed by Us.

ROME'S PLACE IN THE WORLD.

Wherefore, beloved children, however many, and wherever you may be, if you are able to visit her, Rome invites you most lovingly to her In this holy time it is becoming that a Catholic, if he would be consistent with himself, should make his stay in Rome with Christian faith as his companion. He ought, therefore, especially to renounce all idle or profane sight-seeing as unsuited to the time, rather keeping his mind bent on the things that may assist his faith and piety. It will be especially helpful if he seriously ponder the peculiar spirit of this city. and the character which has been divinely impressed upon it, a character which no thought or violence of man can change or destroy. Alone from amongst all others, Jesus Christ, the Saviour of mankind, chose the city of Rome for a most high destiny above all human thought. and hallowed it to Himself. Here, not without much long and mysterious preparation, He placed the seat of His empire; here He commanded that the throne of His Vicar should stand for all time; here He has willed that the light of heavenly doctrine should be piously and inviolably kept, and hence, as from a most sacred centre, should be shed abroad over every land; so that the man who shall senarate himself from the faith of Rome shall separate from Christ Himself. sanctity is increased by its ancient religious monuments, the singular majesty of its churches, the shrines of the Princes of the Apostles, and the tombs of the bravest martyrs. He who rightly understands how to listen to the voices of all these will assuredly feel that he is here not so much a traveller in a strange city as a citizen in his own, and by God's help will leave it better than he entered.

In order that this present Letter may come more easily to the know-ledge of all the faithful, We desire that printed copies of it, signed by the hand of a notary public and attested by the seal of some duly constituted ecclesiastical personage, may meet with the same credence as this Letter itself if it were shown and presented. No one, therefore, may change the terms of this Our declaration, promulgation, concession and will, or rashly oppose it. But if anyone shall have presumed to attempt it. let him be aware that he will thus incur the anger of God and of the Blessed Apostles Peter and Paul.

PASTORAL LETTER

OF

HIS EMINENCE THE CARDINAL PRIMATE, ARMAGH,

COMPLETION OF ST. PATRICK'S CATHEDRAL, ARMAGH.

MICHAEL CARDINAL LOGUE, BY THE GRACE OF GOD AND FAVOUR OF THE APOSTOLIC SEE, ARCHBISHOP OF ARMAGE AND PRIMATE OF ALL IRELAND, TO THE CLERGY AND FAITHFUL OF HIS ARCHDIOGESE.

VERY REV. AND REV. FATHERS AND DEARLY BELOVED BRETHREN,

I venture to direct your attention to a project which cannot fail to enlist your warmest sympathies. To the zeal of former Primates and the magnificent generosity of our people, at home and abroad, we owe a splendid inheritance; but it is an inheritance which brings its obligations as well as its advantages. Those who have gone before us have spared no toil, shrank from no sacrifice in their endeavour to raise the noble Cathedral which crowns a site said to have been prophetically marked out for it by St. Patrick himself. In the grandeur of its proportions and the beauty of its architecture it still stands unrivalled among the many imposing structures which have sprung up over the land since the blight of 0 of persecution has ceased to dwarf the taste and mar the zeal of Catholics. With this grand inheritance has been bequeathed to us the duty of filling in the outlines and giving the last touches to the work. Though the part assigned to us is light compared to what has been already done, still it requires a very serious effort. It appears to me that the time has come when that effort should be made. It has been long deferred in order to leave the field clear for works of more pressing need; but to defer it longer would argue indifference to the dignity of our holy religion and the glory of our national Apostle. The unfinished ONL condition of the interior is a standing appeal to our zeal, if it be not a standing reproof of our negligence. I know this is how the matter strikes strangers who come to visit the church. The admiration which is excited by the majesty and beauty of the exterior receives a rude shock when they pass its portals and see the almost neglected condition of the interior.

No doubt much has been done even for the interior, though what has been done falls far short of what is still required. Within the past few years I appealed to the clergy and people for the means to build a sacristy, so that we could remove the temporary sacristy which occupied one of the transepts, disfiguring the church and effectually barring the way to its completion. The response to this appeal was generous beyond expectation. By parochial collections, with a little help from friends outside, a sum was raised which enabled us to erect a sacristy in perfect keeping with the Cathedral. Then, through the munificence of individuals, all the windows, except nine, have been filled with stained glass at considerable expense, one good lady having expended over seven hundred pounds on a large transept window. But these things have done little more than clear the way for the real work of completion. Altars, pulpit, flooring, heating, vaulting aisles, interior decoration, and the many other details necessary to finish the church would require a sum which the people of the Archdiocese could hardly hope to raise within a reasonable time. Hence the need of appealing for aid to the children of St. Patrick outside the Archdiocese. I have a well-grounded hope that this appeal will not be made in vain. I think I may say, without presumption, that the Cathedral of St. Patrick's See has a claim on Irish Catholics wherever they are found. Their earnest piety and unshaken attachment to the faith of their fathers will inspire them with feelings of affection for the centre whence that faith has spread abroad over so many lands and with solicitude for the honour of the great Apostle to whom, under God, the gift is due. If Armagh may be called, as it sometimes has been, the Rome of Ireland, its Cathedral should have, in the esteem and affection of Irish Catholics, some such place as the Lateran Basilica holds in the estimation of the entire Catholic world. Could we find the means of touching the hearts and awakening the active sympathies of our Catholic fellow-countrymen, we might rest assured that our noble Cathedral would soon become, in every respect, worthy of the hallowed memories and glorious traditions which cluster around the old Primatial City. There is not a sod of her green fields nor a spot of her venerable streets which has not, at some time, been pressed by the footsteps of saints. She has not only been the home, but the fruitful mother of saints and scholars, sending forth, in full tide, into the darkness of early ages the mingled light of faith and science. Her children have multiplied, even as the promised seed of Abraham. It was the late Cardinal Manning, I think, who said, that, at the Vatican Council, no single founder of a Church, after St. Peter, was so largely represented as the Apostle of Ireland. I believe the assertion was justified by the fact. Wherever the English tongue is spoken, and even in lands where its accents are seldom heard, churches are ruled by distinguished prelates who, if not born on Irish soil, have gathered the first truths of faith from an Irish mother's lips, and caught up the first inspirations of piety as they sprang, fresh, warm and strong from an Irish mother's heart. Crowded congregations, almost beyond number, assemble in splendid churches raised by their own piety, listen to the voice of pastors who are Irish either by birth or descent, and who, with the spirit and zeal of our early missionaries, cherish the fervour and guide the lives of their scattered countrymen and of many other Catholics as well. these, looking back with loving affection to the land of their birth or their origin, gratefully acknowledge the debt which they owe her for the precious jewel of faith. I have often witnessed the strength of these feelings, when I have had the pleasure of conducting some returned exile through our Cathedral, and learned from him the joy and consolation which his pilgrimage to Armagh inspired. I have often, too, wished that he could have borne away with him, to the home of his adoption, a more glowing picture of the church which embodied for him the memories, associations and traditions of the place. That a like thought was often uppermost in the minds of my visitors, I could easily infer from the many promises of assistance spontaneously given, when the time should come for giving to the building those last touches which should bring the details into more complete harmony with the imposing outlines.

Hence, when I became impressed with the conviction that for me it has become a sacred duty to complete the Cathedral, fitting it for the last solemn act of consecration, and knowing that the work would overtax the resources of the people of the Archdiocese, who have already been generous even beyond their means, I naturally thought of how I muld furnish the devout clients of St. Patrick, at home and abroad, with an opportunity of assisting in a way which they would least feel. On consultation with the clergy, I came to the conclusion that a Bazaar, to be held early next summer, would furnish such a means. For several reasons, apart from the labour and trouble, it is not the means I would prefer, did any other equally promising offer; but it seems to be the only one available by which, with a little individual help given by large numbers, a great result could be achieved. It was, therefore, decided that a Bazaar, for the purpose of raising funds to complete the Cathedral, should be opened on the 15th July, 1900. It is with a view to make arrangements for this important work that I trouble you with this letter. The work is a large and arduous one; and the time within which it must be done is very short. Hence, the necessity of starting it without a moment's delay. Since it has been suggested, I have given much thought to the means by which it may be made a success. One conviction which has impressed itself very clearly upon my mind is that, whatever help we may receive from without, the whole work of organisation must be done in the Archdiocese and by the people of the Archdiocese, availing themselves, of course, of any help which may be freely tendered by their friends outside. It is a work, too, which must be taken up warmly in every parish, under the guidance of the Priests, chiefly by the ladies of the several parishes, who never spare themselves when a work of charity or piety is in question. It is not likely, nor perhaps desirable—owing to their number—that each parish should be represented by a distinct table; but as many as possible should be represented. Those parishes which cannot have a table of their own, should group themselves with others, and thus a number of centres could be formed from which the efforts of each district could be inspired and directed. Of course, there will be no restriction or exclusion. Any parish which finds itself in a position to establish a table will be quite free to do so. Room can easily be found for all; and laudable emulation will contribute to success. I feel that, with the very little experience I have, I could not pretend to draw up a complete plan. I can only be peak the good-will of those who may charitably engage in the work, well knowing that, if they throw themselves into it with zeal and energy, as I feel confident they will, the whole organisation shall soon be brought into perfect shape. It is almost needless to remind the ladies attached to the tables that success will depend much more on their exertions between the present and the time of opening the Bazaar, than any efforts they can make during the days of its progress.

In order that no further time may be lost, I shall feel obliged if the parish priest of each parish, immediately on receipt of this letter, would call together such of his parishioners as would be most likely to take up and give themselves generously to the work. With them he can concert the best means to secure the success of the project. I should be glad to visit in person the committees of each parish; but as this is hardly practicable, I shall take an early opportunity of visiting some of the principal centres, for the purpose of giving a word of encouragement to the ladies who may kindly offer their co-operation. What I cannot do in person will be done by one or more of the committee of priests who have been charged with the organisation of the Bazaar.

There is one department of the Bazaar for which I shall make myself personally responsible: the general drawing. I shall take care that the prizes be, as far as possible, useful and valuable; above all, I shall take take care that, when the value of a prize is mentioned, it shall be the real, not a fictitious value. I shall see, moreover, that such objects of Irish manufacture as are suitable for the purpose will be well repre-So far, I have only a general idea of the chief prizes. I believe I can take it for granted that there will be a gift from the Holv Father well worthy of the first place which it must, by right, hold. From the deep interest which His Holiness has already shown in the suitable completion of our Cathedral, I feel that we can count upon his sanction, his blessing, and his co-operation. When our late architect. Mr. Hague, whose loss we feel so keenly, went to Italy for the purpose of selecting marbles for the Cathedral, the Holy Father not only deigned to give him a private audience, but imposed upon him an injunction to make such choice as would be worthy of the Cathedral of St. Patrick's See, an injunction which would certainly have been carried out faithfully, had it pleased God to grant longer life to the distinguished architect.

The second prize, for which I intend to be responsible myself, will be a landau and pair of well-bred chestnut carriage horses. I shall also give a gold watch, which cost £28. It is a double-cased skeleton lever, made by Mr. Donegan, of Dublin; and, as I have worn and tested it for some years, I can certify that it does credit to the maker.

Hardly had the notice of our intended Bazaar appeared in the papers, when his Lordship the Bishop of Ossory sent me a cheque for £25. This munificent gift, freely and spontaneously given, will be employed in purchasing a prize worthy of the generous donor.

There will be a complete dinner set of Belleek porcelain, of a value not less than £30. We shall probably have to draw on those far-famed pottery works for many other prizes. I have also made arrangements to get from Rome a number of large oil-paintings, copies of good Romea artists of some of the Old Masters, such as Raphael's Transfiguration and Madonna of Foligno, Dominichino's Communion of St. Jerome, Carlo Dolce's Madonna, Murillo's Immaculate Conception, a Holy Family, etc.

By the kindness of the Most Rev. Dr. M'Sharry, we are enabled to offer a unique prize: a magnificent pair of Cobalt vases of Sevres porcelain, beautifully painted by a master-hand. They were the gift from the late Emperor of the French to Dr. Dixon for a former bazaar; and they have fortunately been preserved to serve the Cathedral a second time.

The Mother Provincial of the Sisters of the Good Shepherd, Limerick, has kindly promised an alb of the far-famed Limerick lace. It is the first offering of a piece of Irish manufacture; and I trust it is an earnest of many others.

These, of course, are a mere sample of the prizes which will be offered. Hundreds will still be necessary to make the general drawing a success. I need not say how grateful I will be to any charitable friends who, by contributing prizes, will enable me to complete the list.

Another project has occurred to me which, besides serving the Bazaar, may confer a benefit on Irish historical literature. "Stewart's History of Armagh," a deeply interesting book, and a reliable authority on the ecclesiastical and civil history of Armagh, has been so long out of print that a copy can very rarely be secured, even at a fancy price. I intend to have it reprinted in such style and with such illustrations as will make it a handsome present for all who may dispose of tickets to an amount hereafter to be fixed. Rev. Ambrose Coleman, O.P., Newry, has kindly consented to undertake the editing. His long and enthusiastic devotion to historical studies is the best guarantee that the work will be carefully and skilfully done. Father Gallogly's interesting History of the Cathedral is also, I think, out of print. A reprint, brought up to the present date by the Very Rev. Canon MacNeece, will be used for a similar purpose.

I have thought it well to enter into these details in order to give the work a practical start. I feel confident that, through the zeal of the clergy and the generous effort of the people of the Archdiocese, the project will be put on a perfect footing within the shortest space of time. As there is no time to be lost, the prompter the help given the more valuable will it become. I naturally have a deep personal interest in the undertaking. There is no wish dearer to me than that of seeing our grand Cathedral brought to such a state of completion that I could have the consolation of solemnly consecrating it to the service of God. Could any efforts of mine further an object so important, I would hope that it might be some little plea to be urged in extenuation of my many shortcomings, when I am called to give an account of my stewardship. It is for this reason I appeal, I trust without presumption, to the children of St. Patrick, who, wherever they are found, never fail to unite to a love of Ireland, an entire devotion to our grand old faith, and a barning zeal for the honour of our National Apostle.

Praying that God may specially bless you and all who unite with you in promoting a work which tends so directly to God's glory, the credit of our holy religion, and the honour of St. Patrick,

I am, Very Rev. and Rev. Fathers and Dearly Beloved Brethren,
Your devoted Servant in Christ,

His Grace, the Archbishop, anxious to extend the blessings of the Devotion to the Most Holy Eucharist as widely as possible through the Diocese, will receive with pleasure, applications from Priests, Heads of Religious Institutes, and others in charge of Chapels and Oratories, for the appointment of days for the Devotion of the Forty Hours. Furthermore, in order that the attention of the Devout Faithful may by every means be turned towards this great Devotion to the Most Holy Sacrament, and to the opportunities offered for practising it, His Grace directs that the List be placed in the Porch, or some other conspicuous position in all Churches, where it may be seen by the people, and that it be hung suitably framed, in the Reception or Waiting Rooms of all Colleges, Convents, and Religious Institutions.

In order that persons wishing to visit the Blessed Sacrament during the Forty Hours' Exposition may not be disappointed, the Parish Priests, Administrators, and Heads of Religious Institutes, are requested to observe accurately the order set down in the foregoing List.

References to the parents of former and present Pupils in England, Ireland, France, and Germany.

The Convent of the Visitation is a centre for the Oxford Local Examinations, and for those of the Royal Academy and Royal College of Music

The following extract from the "Tablet" was written by Lady Georgians Fullerton, shortly after the installation of the community in England:—

"At Upper Walmer, in Kent, the Nuns of the Visitation have opened a School in a charming country house, which they have converted into a Convent. With its monastic buildings, its pretty chapel, and picturesque belifty, Roselands looks like a bit of Germany, transplanted amidst English village scenery. Of the merits of St. Francis of Sales' daughters, whether as nuns or teachers, little need be said. In his day, they were called by the common people, 'the Holy Maries,' and the spirit bequeathed to them by their founder, and their first Mother, St. Jane Frances de Chantal, has not departed from amongst them. The little hive, as St. Francis would have styled it, which has settled in Walmer, came over from Hanover, when the Kulturkampf drove away the religious orders. If parents want for their children bracing sea-air and the knowledge of the purest German, joined to all the other advantages of a good convent school, they could not find them better supplied than at Roselands."

In 1898 when the portion of the Church destined for the use of the pupils was being enlarged, the picturesque belfry alluded to by Ledy Georgiana Fullerton was replaced by an artistic tower designed by Messs Pugin and Pugin, Architects, who built the Church in 1881.

St. Kieran's College is a beautiful spacious Gothic building erected on an elevated site in the midst of extensive grounds. The situation is exceedingly salubrious, and the health record of the Students has always been eminently satisfactory.

In the Ecclesiastical Department, Candidates for the Sacred Ministry are educated for the Home and Foreign Missions, and several Burses are available every year for both classes of Students.

The Lay Students are prepared for the Intermediate, University, Civil Service, and other Public Examinations; and their zeal is stimulated by Weekly Revisions, and by the public distribution of marks and premiums.

Parents are earnestly requested to send their children at an early age, as success in the Intermediate Course cannot otherwise be hoped for. Special arrangements have been made to provide for the wants of the younger boys.

Great care is bestowed upon the training of the Students in Élocution, and the services of the distinguished Elocutionist, Mr. Burke, have been secured.

While the Moral and Religious training of the Students holds the first place in the hearts of the Superiors, great attention is paid to the fostering of orderly and gentlemanly habits, to the dietary, and to the sanitary arrangements of the College.

COUNTY KILDARE.

LONGOWES WOOD COLLEGE is conducted by the JESUIT FATHERS, and aims at giving its Pupils a complete and thorough education—Primary, Intermediate, Commercial, and University. Boys may now, without leaving Clongowes, advance from the most elementary stage to the attainment of a University Degree, while enjoying the advantages and safeguards of country life in a healthy district.

COURSE OF STUDIES.

To secure effective teaching and management, the College is divided into four distinct departments—PREPARATORY, INTERMEDIATE, UNIVERSITY, and COMMERCIAL.

I. THE PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.

This department is intended for Children from seven to eleven. They are kept apart from the rest of the boys, having their own Play and Study Rooms, and their Dormitories in a separate wing. They have the benefit of female attendance, and such modifications of the Dietary, Discipline, and Studies as suit their tender years, while they are being prepared effectively for the higher departments.

II. THE INTERMEDIATE DEPARTMENT.

This Department is mainly intended for those following the course prescribed by the Board of Intermediate Education, which includes, among other subjects, Greek, Latin, English, French, German, Celtic, Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, Book-keeping, Drawing, and Music.

III. THE UNIVERSITY DEPARTMENT.

This Department is in connection with the Royal University, and enables Boys to Matriculate and pass all the Examinations up to and including the B.A. Degree.

The Students of the University department have a separate table and better fare, and whilst subordinate to College discipline, are treated with a liberality their maturer years would seem to call for.

IV. THE COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT.

In the Commercial Classes Boys specially trained for business pursuits, etc., are taught Shorthand, Type-writing, etc.

The Religious training of the Boys in Doctrine and Morals forms the main feature of the Jesuit educational system. A course of religious instruction, comprising Scripture, Church History, and Christian Doctrine is obligatory on all. ST. JOSEPH'S APOSTOLICAL COLLEGE

THE SOCIETY OF AFRICAN MISSIONS, CORK, IRELAND.

Founded under the special blessing of the Severeign Postiff and the Bishop of Cork,
And supported by Voluntary Contributions.

Superior-VERY REV. JOSEPH ZIMMERMAN.

THE SOCIETY OF AFRICAN MISSIONS comprises Priests, Brothers, and Nuns. It was founded at the urgent request and with the special benediction of Pius IX. Its end is the education of Missionaries for Africa.

Fathers of this Society have laboured above twenty-five years with much success in many parts of Africa. The most abandoned and most savage tribes get their preference; so they work with the greatest self-sacrifice among the idolaters of Dahomey, Ashanti, Yoruba, Nagos. Niger, &c., where human sacrifices are sull so frequent.

The object of the Apostolic College at Cork is to train students in classics; and, when ready for philosophy, they are sent to the Mother house at Lyons, France.

Every Christian who takes to heart the honour of God, and the extension of His heavenly kingdom on earth, the Holy Church, will recognise the importance of this College.

Leo XIII. has graciously bestowed his Apostolic Benediction upon the College, and upon all those who support it.

Those who cannot leave father and mother, and their native home, to offer their lives for their unhappy brethren in Africa, may partake of the labours and merits of the Missioners by supplying material aid. The expenses are great, and the missioners. like the Apostles of old, are poor.

A Burse of £500 will be sufficient to educate perpetually a young missionary in the College at Cork.

Great spiritual advantages are granted by the Holy See to founders of Burses, and to all benefactors; and the Fathers of the Society will offer in perpetuity the Holy Sacrifice twice-a-week for founders of Burses.

There is a large Sisterhood attached to this Missionary Society. These Sisters are especially for the education of poor children bought in the slave-markets, or sent into the schools by their Christian or pagan parents. Young ladies are most willingly received.

For admission of Students and Nuns, apply to the very Rev 56

Superior, as above.

CONGREGATION OF THE BROTHERS OF OUR LADY OF MERCY.

Novitiate.

This Religious Institute was founded by the late Monsignor Canon Scheppers, at Malines, Belgium.

Its chief object is the Christian education of youth. The favourable testimonials received from the Bishops, not only of Belgium, but also of England and of the Papal States (to which the Congregation has been extended), and, above all, the recommendation of His Eminence Cardinal Pecci (our present Sovereign Pontiff, Leo XIII.),—were motives which induced the late Holy Pontiff, Pius IX., to give his approval to the Congregation and to its rules. Cardinal Wiseman invited the Brothers of Mercy to the Archdiocese of Westminster in 1855, where they have the management of five very large and important establishments. The late Cardinal Manning also was pleased on several ocasions to give them the most satisfactory testimonials.

The Congregation has several English and Irish members. Youths who feel themselves called by God to this religious Institute may obtain all necessary information on application to the Director of St. Aloysius's Boarding School, Highgate, London;

DEAR FRIENDS AND BENEFACTORS, PLEASE READ THIS CAREFULLY.

I. There are now in the Homes over 400 children.

2. These children are rescued from poverty, misery, and vice.

3. This number is but a fraction compared to the number applying for admission.

4. The number we are able to accept depends entirely upon the means at our disposal.

5. There is no greater charity than to help those who cannot help themselves.

6. These poor children cannot help themselves; they are the most helpless, the most innocent, the most defenceless of all.

Gibe them a Chance.

DEAR FRIENDS AND BENEFACTORS,
You cannot do a more noble, a more meritorious work, than to help in rescuing our poor Waifs and Strays.
How can you help me? I will tell you:

1. The larger the fund at my disposal, the greater the number of children that can be saved. 2. £13 a year will keep one child.

8. £6 10s. will keep one child for six months.

- 4. £8 5s. will keep one child for three months. 5. Those who cannot afford this, will not miss £1, or 10s., or 5s., or 2s. 6d., or 1s. once or twice a year.
- 6. Both those who can and those who cannot send me money, can send me a parcel.

 7. These parcels may contain—new clothes, cast-off clothing, i.e., coats, waistcoats, trousers, dresses, and underlinen of every description. Sheeting, sheets, blankets, stockings, sooks, books (old and new), periodicals, old newspapers, old stamps, pictures of all kinds, jewellery, etc., etc.

 8. Furniture will be most acceptable.

s. Furniture will be most acceptable.

9. No contribution in money or kind, however small, is despised.

10. Collecting boxes and cards may be had on application.

No one can say—"I would like to help, but I don't know how."

Out of the various ways mentioned above, everybody can choose at least one.

Remember this—There is no fund, no endowment.

All donations in money or kind will be thankfully received and promptly acknowledged by—Vours (stithully.

Providence (Row) Night Refuge and Home, ORISPIN STREET, and RAVEN ROW, Bishopsgate Street Without, LONDON, E.

ESTABLISHED A.D. 1860

By the late Right Rev. Monsignor Provost GILBERT, D.D., V.G.

The late Cardinal Manning speaking of the Charity said: "It is a living realisation of the 25th Chapter of St. Matthew, 'I was hungry and you gave Me to eat, I was thirsty and you gave Me to drink, I was a stranger and you took Me in."

The Charity now maintains-

The Night Refuge for destitute men, women, and children, which provides every day in the winter nearly 300 night's lodgings, suppers and breakfasts, free of cost, and which helps Inmates as far as possible to start in life again by aid with clothes, tools, food, situations, or the liké.

A Free Soup Kitchen, which distributes over 1,200 quarts of Soup every week in severe weather.

A Servants' Home for training 20 young girls for service, who partially support themselves by laundry work.

A Boarders' Home for women out of work, who pay a small sum for board and lodging.

A Home of Rest for women at St. Albans with accommodation for 25 at a moderate charge.

Since 1860 the Refuge has provided free of cost to the destitute poor nearly 1,400,000 night's lodgings, suppers and breakfasts.

There are no distinctions of creed, and every effort is made to secure the benefits of the Charity for the deserving.

Bankers: The London Joint Stock Bank, Princes St., London, E.C. Treasurer: Alderman Sir John Knill, Bart.

Secretary: J. W. Gilbert, Esq., B.A.

Hon. Manager: F. W. Purssell, Esq., C.C., Jamaica Buildings, Cornhill, London, E.C., who earnestly solicits, and will gratefully acknowledge contributions.

"An Important Work."

(His Lordship's Letter.)

"If you have much, give abundantly; if you have little, take care even so to bestow willingly a little."—Top. iv. 9.

PLEASE GIVE A LOOK THROUGH THIS.

Why I Appeal.—

- 1. His Lordship the Bishop has twice written to me about it.
- 2. In the interest of the children committed to my guidance.
- 3. A Catholic School here is an urgent necessity.
- 4. We are too poor to help ourselves.

what England Does.—Great is the food-produce of our land, nevertheless, it is insufficient to keep alive its teeming populations. How does England meet this deficiency? From her docks and harbours she sends her ships and merchant men across the oceans to every point of the compass. She commissions them to bring in from more favoured climes what she of herself cannot produce.

A similar reason obliges me, on behalf of our Catholic children, to send out from Sudbury, in Suffolk, this appeal.

PLEASE BE INTERESTED IN US.

Facts.—

 The Government may, at any time, condemn the small room used as a School capable of seating a dozen children only.

2. I ought to accommodate at this moment thirty children.
3. There is no Catholic School within a radius of 15 miles.

- 4. The average collection for the past ten months works out at 5/61.

 5. My people, I assure you, do their best, and they cannot do more
- 6. I am appealing to build a small School which will cost about £525.
- 7. A site will be purchased as soon as there is money in hand.

Present Disadvantages .-

I. No Catholic training possible for the young.

2. No place for a Xmas tree or a Catholic social gathering.

No place to teach and recreate by means of magic lanterns, lectures, or readings.

 No place to welcome, in the evening, those who have worked through the day.

5. No evening classes of any kind at present possible.

FR. PEACOCK, B.D., Sudbury, Suffolk, England, therefore earnestly and urgently appeals.

OBJECTS.

The Society has two distinct objects.—First, the rescuing of Catholic children from proselytising homes and refuges, more commonly known as Birdnests. Second, to provide homes for those who, through the desertion or death of a non-Catholic parent, would be compelled to enter the workhouse, or institutions dangerous to their faith, and thus be brought up in the loss of their faith.

Donations and Subscriptions are most earnestly solicited. Unless they are forthcoming, many little souls will be lost.

HOW ALL CAN HELP THE SOCIETY.

A FEW HINTS TO BE PUT INTO PRACTICE.

- 1. Undertake to maintain a child. £10 a year will do this.
- 2 £12 will pay for complete outfit and passage-money of any child emigrated.
- 3. Become hon members of the Society—by subscription of £1, 1s. a year.
- Keep all cast-off clothing for our children.
 Adopt our orphan boys and girls.
- 6. Help us to find situations for our waifs and strays.
- 7. Subscribe to The Harvest, 1/6 a year, the monthly organ of the Society.

Patrick's Refuge,

(UNDER THE CARE OF THE 818TERS OF MERCY,)

ROAD, KINGSTOWN. CROFTON

IRELAND.

A SHARE in your CHARITY is earnestly solicited for this poor Magdalen Asylum, which was founded in Bow Street in the year 1796. The Institution was subsequently transferred to Dominick Street, and in 1857 to Glasthule. Finally the penitents were removed, in 1880, to the present spacious building erected for them in Kingstown; and amongst them are still living a few inmates of their first homes in Bow Street and Dominick Street.

Some of these poor, destitute members of society have grown grey in their persevering efforts to cling, like Magdalen, to the Cross, and never to return to that world which shaded their young days with sorrow. Others are only entering on a career of penance—that dreary way which mercy seeks to brighten—with the bitterness of disappointed hopes, which mercy strives to sweeten; and with the renouncement of those earthly joys, the falsity of which mercy endeavours to pourtray.

This is the good work for which an appeal is now made to those generous hearts ever found ready to aid the suffering.

The Sisters of Mercy would also remind a liberal public that this is by no means a local charity.

Pravers are daily offered for the spiritual and temporal welfare of living benefactors and for the repose of the souls of deceased benefactors.

A debt of some thousands of pounds, incurred by the erection of the new Refuge, still hangs over the Asylum, and it is to relieve the Sisters of Mercy from part of this heavy responsibility and to aid them in maintaining the poor penitents that your assistance is now asked.

Surely they who contribute according to their means, to make the asylum a comfortable and happy home for these poor penitents, are performing a great act of charity, and may expect a magnificent reward, for "Mercy exalteth itself above Judgment."

Donations will be gratefully received by his Grace the Most Rev. Dr. Walsh, Archbishop of Dublin; the Right Rev. Monsignor Walsh, P.P., Kingstown; at the Convent of the Sisters of Mercy. Baggot Street, Dublin; and at St. Patrick's Refuge, Crofton Road. Kingstown, Ireland.

UNDER THE PATRONAGE OF

His Grace the Most Rev. Dr. Walsh, Archbishop of Dublin. Right Rev. Dr. Foley, Bishop of Kildare and Leighlin. Rev. M. Brennan, P.P.

This Institute maintains and educates girls in everything necessary to fit them for Domestic Service, such as Cooking, Washing, Needlework, Housework, etc.

The girls who wish to be instructed in these duties must remain at least two years in training, at the expiration of which time they thoroughly understand their business, and are then provided with good situations and necessary outfit.

As the Orphanage has no Government grant or emoluments from any source, the Bishop, in consideration of the amount of good done, has authorized a Collector to receive subscriptions towards the support of the Institute.

In addition to the Orphanage and Training Department, the Sisters also receive a limited number of respectable children, whose parents are unable to meet the expenses of a High Class Boarding School.

The course of Instruction comprises English in all its branches, French, also Plain and Ornamental Needlework.

Pension, £12 per annum. Music is the only extra.

The Pupils are afterwards provided with various positions as Teachers, Governesses, etc., either at home or in foreign countries

This Establishment is situated about five miles from the town of Maryborough. The extensive grounds attached, and the pure invigorating air of the surrounding hills, render it a most healthy and desirable place for children.

For full particulars apply to the Superioress.

THE SECULAR CLERGY FUND

FOR THE

DIOCESE OF HEXHAM AND NEWCASTLE,

CALLED

THE NORTHERN BRETHREN'S FUND.

Established 250 Years.

SUPERIORS:

Very Rev. H. Canon WRENNALL, Stella, Blaydon-on-Tyne. Very Rev. J. A. Canon Cooke, St. Mary's, Hexham. Very Rev. J. Provost Watson, Tudhoe, Spennymoor.

Treasurer and Secretary:

Rev. W. A. RIGBY, St. Clare's Abbey, Darlington.

This Fund has for its objects the relief and maintenance of Secular Priests belonging to the Diocese of Hexham and Newcastle, who, from sickness, age, or infirmity have become incapable of continuing their Missionary labours.

It is supported partly by the subscriptions of its Members, the Olergy, and partly by the benefactions of the charitable.

Each Member says one Mass mouthly for its living and deceased Benefactors, so that upwards of 1,400 Masses are offered up each year for this intention.

Persons may become Benefactors by a donation or bequest free of legacy duty of £10 or more; thus helping to make provision for those "who have borne the burden of the day and the heats" in their service, and at the same time availing themselves of the benefits of the Holy Sacrifice of the Altar. For every £10, in addition to the 1,400 Masses said each year, 40 Masses will be offered specially for the donor on his or her decease. Benefactions may also be made in behalf of the deceased.

Our holy Father Pope Leo XIII., by a Rescript dated 8th June, 1890, has granted:-

1.—His Apostolic Blessing to all the Members and Benefactors of the Fund.

To the Members and Benefactors, for ever, a Plenary Indulgence at the hour of death, provided they invoke, at least in their heart, the Holy Name of Jesus.

3.—On behalf of all deceased Members and Benefactors for ever, the favour of the "Privileged Altar" for every Mass offered up for them according to the Rules of the Fund.

As the Administrators have been obliged to diminish considerably the allowance to Sick Members, they earnestly appeal to the faithful on behalf of this Charity, which preserves their devoted Clergy from want in sickness and old age, after they have spent their health in their apostolic labours.

SHREWSBURY SECULAR CLERGY FUND.

HIS FUND has been established for the support of the infirm and superannuated Clergy of the diocese of Shrewsbury, and hence it commends itself to the charity of the Catholic Public. In return, Mass is said monthly by each of the Clergy who are Members of the Fund for the benefactors both living and dead. Any person may become a Benefactor by a donation of £10, for which forty Special Masses will be said; or by a donation of £5, for which twenty Special Masses will be said; or by a smaller contribution (not less, however, than £1), which will entitle the donor to share in the monthly Masses for ever. The Special Masses will be said at once, or deferred until the death of the donor, as he or she may direct.

Other particulars may be had by application to the Treasurer, Rev. C. GILES, Bishop's House, Shrewsbury; or to the Secretary, Rev. JAMES ROBINSON, St. Alban's Church, Macclesfield.

Form of Legacy to the Fund.

Treasurer of the Society called the 'Shrewsbury Secular Clergy Fund,' or to the Treasurer of the same for the time being, the sum of £, free of legacy duty, for the benefit of that Fund; and I earnestly hope that the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for the repose of my soul: but I do declare that this expression of my hope shall not be construed as a condition or trust attached to the same Legacy; and that the compliance with this my hope shall not be deemed necessary to give effect to the same Legacy.

THE

FOUNDED 1895.

Blessed by the Diocesan, the Lord Bishop of Southwark, and by the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster.

Assimilated to the Franciscan Capuchin Order by the Minister-General, so that Guild Members share in all Masses, Prayers and Good Works done by the Order throughout the world; and enriched by the Holy See with Plenary and Partial Indulgences.

The object of the Guild is to spread devotion to St. Anthony, and to distribute Bread to the poor. The condition of Membership is to send name and address for official registration to the Guild Centre at Crawley. A Card of Membership, with Rules and Indulgences, sent on receipt of two stamps. No other subscription, annual or otherwise, of any kind whatever.

Though the Fathers willingly receive money for Bread for the poor, it is to be distinctly understood that such bread-money is no charity to the Monastery, for every penny is spent on the real poor, and an account kept, which is yearly inspected by the Minister Provincial. Hence the Fathers recommend to Members the practice of spending such monies in their own locality.

The Official Organ of the Guild is The Franciscan Annals, edited from Crawley, and published at the Monastery, Pantasaph, Holywell, North Wales, and Messrs. R. & T. Washbourne, 18 Paternoster Row, London, E.C.

CATECHISM:

DOCTRINAL, MORAL, HISTORICAL, AND LITURGICAL. BY THE REV. PATRICK POWER.

In Two Volumes, price 7s. 6d., bound in fancy cloth. "Catechism of Christian Doctrine." FAMILIARLY EXPLAINED.

BY THE REV. PATRICK POWER, P.P., Cappoquin. With the "Imprimatur" of CARDINAL MANNING, Archbishop of Westminster.

Letters from his Eminence Cardinal Cullen, and from nearly all the Prelates in Ireland, strongly recommending the work, are inserted in the commencement of Vol. I.

"This Catechism, with wonderful precision and clearness, opens a vast field of information to the reader, in fact, leaves very few questions untouched, and in the explanation of each is satisfactory."—Most Rev. Patrick Dorrian, Bishop of Down and Connor.

"Well adapted for the use of upper schools and of pupil and trained teachers, for whom some such a manual was much wanted."-Right

Rev. J. Browne, Bishop of Shrewsbury.

"I consider your Catechism a beautiful and useful work—I think the best in the English language."—Rev. Thomas Longman.

"I have a large collection of books-near a thousand volumes-and there is not a work in the entire I value more than the 'Catechism: Doctrinal and Moral; 'nor do I know any work from which I have derived more ready and useful information."—Rev. James M'Laughlin, P.P.

"For order of arrangement, for judicious brevity, combined with sufficient fulness of matter, and for general usefulness to the missionary priest, we know of no work on the Catechism more worthy of commendation than that of the Rev. Patrick Power. We have recommended it for some years, and have found the ecclesiastical students under our care in college, as well as the young priests who have departed to the foreign missions, experience the greatest advantages from the use of it."—The Pastor and His People, by the Rev. Thomas J. Potter.

"After forming as mature a judgment as possible upon its merits we have only one conclusion to arrive at, viz., that the 'Catechism: Doctrinal, Moral, Historical, and Liturgical,' is one of the finest books of its class that ever appeared in print, and one of the most instructive works that can be found in the whole range of books pertaining to Christian knowledge."—Glasgow Free Press.

MORAN AND CO.'S NEW LIST.

The Vocation of St. Aloysius, a Drama in Three Acts.

Translated by a Priest from the Italian of PADRE BOERO,
S.J. Price 6d.

The Catholic Times says: "It used to be produced every year in the Roman College, and was a favourite play with many other Continental colleges and convents. As might be expected from the title, the play is of a strong religious cast. The translation is well done."

Stories of the Irish Rebellion 1798. By J. J. MORAN. Picture cover, 1s.; cloth, 1s. 6d.

The Weekly Sun says: "There is a delightful sense of humour running through each of the seven stories. His happiest work has been the delineation of Irish peasant life as it is to be found in the West of Ireland; and I can recommend reciters to go to his books for selections if they wish some laughter-moving items for their entertainments."

Strong as Death, a Story of the Irish Rebellion. By Mrs. Charles M. Clarke (Miriam Drake). Cloth, 6s.

The Irish Monthly says: "When this work originally appeared it filled three volumes. The type of the present excellent reprint, though very clear, is small, and crushes a great deal into each page, and yet there are five hundred and forty of them. Some of the real history of Ireland before the Union is pressed into the service of the novelist, and she manages cleverly a great variety of dramatic incident. 'Strong as Death' is a notable contribution to the Centenary literature of '98."

Irish Stew (New Edition). By J. J. MORAN. Picture covers, 6d.; cloth, 1s. 6d.

The Weekly Sun says: "Mr. Moran is the Barrie of Ireland."

My First Prisoner. By the Governor. New Edition. Cloth, 1s. 6d.

Glen Insch. By Mrs. Corballis. New Edition, 1s. 6d.

ST. BENEDICT'S SERIES.

Life of St. Mechtildis. Just out, with Picture of the Saint. Cloth, gilt, 3s. 6d.

"'From St. Benedict's. Rome,' is the label upon a book just received, and the manner in which the volume is bound is worthy of the 'Eternal City.' It is exquisite. Heavy paper, with wide margins, clear, good type, flexible covers; these are some of its charms, but the reading matter is the main thing. 'The Life of St. Mechtildis' is the subject, and the lovely form of the Saint is depicted on the frontispiece, after the manner of the old Italian 'Holy Picture,' framed in a fair landscape, picturesque and artistic. 'To all the singers set before the altar, to all the lovers of beautifulness, living at peace in their houses,' is the quaint dedication of this delightful book, which one takes up lovingly, so fair is its workmanship, and lays down regretfully, so interesting is its text. . . . Indeed, the book is like a fragrant garden, blooming with lovely flowers."—Church Progress.

"... The whole work may be called an instructive page from the remote past. In the excellence of the style and the admirable manner in which the book is brought out, it bears witness to the fact that St. Benedict's, Rome, is becoming a great centre of light and leading on the Continent."—Catholic Times and Catholic Opinion.

The Life and the Rule of St. Benedict, being the second book of the Dialogues of St. Gregory the Great, with the Rule of the same Holy Patriarch. In Latin and English. Cloth, gilt, 5s.

Life of Helen Lucretia Cornaro Piscopia, Benedictine Oblate, and Doctor of the University of Padua. With eight Illustrations. Cloth, gilt, 4s. 6d.

"This biography has an interesting bearing on what may be called one of the questions of the day—the admission of women to University degrees. . . . The main interest of the Life lies in the circumstance that in this, probably the most remarkable instance of the highest intellectual gifts in a woman being sedulously cultivated and used to their utmost capacity, severe study and the most cultured intellectualism appear not in the slightest degree to have dimmed her feminine grace and delicacy; she was no amazon, but a woman, gentle, modest, and loving to the end. . . . The Life, which occupies a hundred pages, is well written, and is adorned with four portraits of the heroine and with other illustrations; and it ought to become a useful handbook with the advocates of higher education for women."—Dublin Review.

Life of the Blessed Joanna Mary Bonomo. With Portrait. Cloth, gilt, 3s. 6d.

"Of great interest is the Life of Blessed Joanna Mary Bonomo, O.S.B., a Nun and Abbess of the Monastery of St. Jerome, at Bassano, and a contemporary of Helen Lucretia Cornaro. She was one of those privileged servants of God to whom it was given to bear in their own bodies the stigmata of Christ's Passion. . . . We owe our best thanks for the interesting account of one whose holy life had never yet been written in English."—Tablet.

"A Latin publication due to the zeal and the learning of the English Benedictine Nuns in Rome."—Review of Reviews.

"... The 'Spicilegium Benedictinum' is worthy of the highest commendation we can bestow. The illustrious Order to which we owe it are not moved by the stress and struggle of modern life to disregard their old traditions of learning. The present number contains much which cannot fail to interest the reader who has cultivated the taste for serious literature."-Tablet.

"The 'Spicilegium Benedictinum' maintains its character for learning and research. . . . "-Catholic Times.

INCENSE.

THE ONLY AUTHORISED INCENSE.

From the Very Rev. Monsignore Searle, Secretary to the late Cardinal Wiseman.

DEAR MR. MARTIN,—I will have pleasure in submitting for his Eminence's approbation the sample of Incense so kindly forwarded. This I would have done without the very flattering introduction of my dear friend the Rev. J. Carr, as I consider all articles for the Church should be prepared, if possible, by one of its own members. I may add that I have tried the Incense, and like it very much.—I am, dear Sir, sincerely yours,

From His Eminence Cardinal Wiseman.

I have much pleasure in giving approbation to the "Incense Rico de Castila" imported by Mr. Martin of Liverpool. I am assured of its purity, and well pleased with its fragrance.

The Irish began January, 1897.

Ecclesiastical Record.

A Monthly Professional Journal for Priests, published under Episcopal Sanction, and patronized by the Archbishops, Bishops, and Clergy of Ireland, Great Britain, United States, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, India, South and Western Africa, and circulating widely in Italy, France, and Spain.

TITH the January Number, 1900, "THE IRISH ECCLESIASTICAL RECORD" enters on its Thirty-third Year of publication, The Editor is promised during the coming year most valuable contributions from leading writers in the Church, on both sides of the Atlantic. No pains will be spared to make the periodical as interesting and as useful as it could possibly be. The steady and continuous support of the Clergy will enable us gradually to introduce new improvements, which will make the "RECORD" what it ought to be, viz : the best professional periodical in the world.

During the coming year, the several distinctive features of "THE IRISH ECCLESIASTICAL RECORD," which have conduced in the past to make it useful and even essential to the Catholic Clergy, will be retained. The departments of Theological Questions and Liturgical Questions will remain in the capable hands of the distinguished members of the staff now conducting them, and the queries of correspondents regarding dogma and practice are invited, and will be answered promptly and with care. Documents, especially Roman Decisions of special interest to the clergy, or affecting the Church in missionary countries, will be. as heretofore, collected and printed.

The Editor, therefore, looks with confidence, not only to the Irish Clergy at home and abroad, but to the English-speaking Clergy everywhere, to accord in even greater measure than heretofore their valued support to their own professional periodical, and enable him to maintain it in a position worthy of them, and of the country,
